TIMEX PERFORMANCE CENTER

JERRY PINKUS

The Giants have found the perfect corporate partner for the precise and punctual Tom Coughlin.

The organization announced on June 17, 2009 a unique partnership with Timex Group USA, Inc. that enables both brands the opportunity to collaborate on training solutions for athletes of all levels that participate in various sports across the world. This partnership grants TIMEX, one of the world's largest watch companies, the naming rights for the Giants' new training facility and corporate headquarters. The facility has been named the TIMEX Performance Center.

"TIMEX is making a major commitment to growing its brand and we are very fortunate that they have chosen the Giants as one of the vehicles to help them do so," said John Mara, the Giants' President and Chief Executive Officer. "Our partnership with Timex is not your typical marketing partnership or naming rights agreement. It is a working relationship to enhance our mutual operations, namely TIMEX, products, our player and coach preparation and training. TIMEX, shares our core principles and attributes of loyalty to our customers and striving to be the best that we can be in our respective fields. Both of our companies have deep roots here in the New York/New Jersey/Connecticut metropolitan area. We share a deep sense of commitment to our community and we both have an unwavering commitment to corporate social responsibility. All of those factors help to forge our relationship."

Coughlin, who famously likes to begin meetings and practices five minutes ahead of schedule, is thrilled that TIMEX has affixed its name to what he consider the NFL's gold standard in training facilities.

"We are very proud to announce that TIMEX will be an all-pro along with the New York Giants," Coughlin said. "I have been asked many times, but most recently this morning, how do I feel about our new facility? Everyday is Christmas, are you kidding me? Everyday is Christmas. I sit in an office, I look out a window, I look at three magnificent grass fields that will be there for us when we return from training camp. Our players are excited to be here."

In addition to the naming rights, the 15-year agreement calls for TIMEX, as the Official Performance Equipment of the New York Giants, to have its brand integrated into the Giants game day experience at Giants Stadium during the 2009 season and the Giants' new stadium set to open in 2010. At the new stadium, Giants fans will see a TIMEX "Countdown to Kickoff Clock" on the video towers that encirde the perimeter of the facility. Additional branding programs indude a major sponsorship with New York Giants Radio Network, Giants.com, the "Giants GameDay" television show on WNBC, and placement within the Giants' health and fitness magazine, "Giants Health Monitor," which is distributed in more than 10,000 doctors' offices around the New York metro area.

"TIMEX and the New York Giants are two icons that have a lot in common," said Hans-Kristian Hoejsgaard President and CEO of Timex Group. "Not the least, a huge, loyal following of fans. It is also history coming together. Timex group was founded in 1854, the Giants in 1925. We are bringing a lot of heritage and history to the table. More importantly, for generations, both companies have had great families behind them. For generations, it means long-term commitment, it means integrity, it means trust. All of us who are in brand building know what that means, not the least in times like this. But when you have been around for a long time - Timex Group for over 150 years, the Giants for over 80 years - you always run the risk of becoming complacent. It is very important that we do understand our business by looking backward, but that we really understand that we need to look forward to run our business. Today is all about being forward looking.

"The partnership with the Giants gives us a whole new opportunity to broaden our consumer touch points. We share with the Giants our unwavering commitment to corporate-social responsibility. Both organizations play a role as good corporate citizens in the communities in which they operate. We are committed to taking care of the environment. We support philanthropic activities where we live. This is a 15-year partnership that will mean a lot and play a key role in TIMEX product development in research and design. I hope very much that this is just the beginning of a partnership that will only deepen and extend over time. I want to thank the Mara and the Tisch families for the environment of trust, openness and professionalism conducted during our negotiations. I want to wish the Giants a great season ahead and wish for our joint partnership that this will indeed be of great mutual benefit."

The complex also includes four full-length fields; three natural grass full-length fields, one FieldTurf synthetic field in the field house, and one 80-yard FieldTurf outdoor synthetic field.

Designed by architectural and design firm EwingCole and constructed by Joseph A. Natoli Construction Corporation, the Giants training complex will serve as the home for the entire Giants organization (except the ticket office) and is equipped with conference rooms, work space and state-of-the-art technology to create an efficient and friendly work environment.

JOHN K. MARA
PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 19th season with the Giants. The franchise's President and Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara, in 2005. John Mara is the oldest of Wellington Mara's 11 children. He had been the team's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In his present position, Mara, who joined the Giants in 1991, is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization. Along with team Chairman Steve Tisch, he is at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for the new stadium that is under construction next door to Giants Stadium and will open in 2010.

Mara also serves on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Management Council Executive Committee and the Committee on Workplace Diversity.

Mara was born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston, College where he received a B.S. degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his law degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y., The School of the Holy Child, also in Harrison, N.Y. and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, Courtney, John Jr., Christine and Erin. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

STEVE TISCH
CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch has the distinction of being the only person on the planet with both an Academy Award and a Super Bowl ring. He won the former as one of the producers of "Forrest Gump," which was awarded the Oscar for Best Picture of 1994, and the latter as Chairman of the Giants, who defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII.

Tisch joined the Giants organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005, but he has been intimately involved with the team since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. With the passing of his father in 2005, Steve Tisch assumed the additional title of Chairman. In the last three years, Steve has been working closely with John Mara on the planning and construction for the new stadium under construction next to Giants Stadium. The new stadium is a joint venture with the New York Jets.

Tisch is one of the most successful producers in the motion picture industry. He is a partner in Escape Artists, an independently financed film production company based at Sony Pictures Entertainment. His television and feature film projects have consistently focused on the lives of everyday people and the vital impact they have in society.

One of Tisch's most noteworthy professional achievements was the production of "Forrest Gump," which was named Best Picture at both the Academy Awards and the Golden Globes. "Forrest Gump," which was nominated for 13 Academy Awards and won nine, remains one of the 20 highest domestic box office grossing films in history.

Another Tisch film, "The Pursuit of Happyness," starring Will Smith, was released by Columbia Pictures in December 2006 and became one of the biggest hits of the year. Escape Artists also released "The Weather Man" in the fall of 2005. Additional Tisch projects include "Seven Pounds" starring Will Smith, "Knowing", starring Nicolas Cage and "The Taking of Pelham 123" starring Denzel Washington and John Travolta.

Tisch specializes in producing movies that attempt to tell a story that can make a difference in people's lives. He has produced more than 50 films, including those that have addressed teenage suicide, children at risk, media abuse, cancer and mental retardation.

Tisch began his career in entertainment when he was a student at Tufts University. His summer jobs included booking films in the family's movie theater chain, working for director John Avildsen and serving an apprenticeship under Otto Preminger. Upon his graduation, Tisch worked as Peter Gruber's assistant at Columbia Pictures. At age 22, he became an Executive at the studio, and during his four-year tenure he worked on such films as "The Lords of Flatbush," "Tommy" and "The Last Detail."

In 1976, Tisch left Columbia to produce his first motion picture, "Outlaw Blues." Tisch met Jon Avnet during the shoot and the pair soon formed Tisch/Avnet Productions. The company's success's included the runaway 1983 hit, "Risky Business." Tisch/Avnet also produced many acclaimed television films, including "The Burning Bed," which received 11 Emmy nominations and numerous other awards, and was credited with providing many women with the courage to seek help from physical abuse.

Tisch/Avnet's other television film credits include "Silence of the Heart," "Something so Right," "Prime Suspect," "No Other Love," "Call to Glory" and "Homeward Bound" (winner of a Christopher Award).

In 1986, Tisch formed his own production company, the Steve Tisch Company, which has produced many films, including "The Postman," "Wild America," "The Long Kiss Goodbye," "Corrina, Corrina," "Big Business," and "Bad Influence." Tisch also served as Executive Producer on "American History X," "Lock, Stock & Two Smoking Barrels," and "Snatch."

Tisch has long been a leader in philanthropic ventures. In April 1991, he was elected to the AIDS Project Los Angeles' Board of Directors. During his tenure, Tisch served as both Board Chair and Chair of the Development Committee.

Tisch has also generously contributed his time and resources to such organizations as The H.E.L.P. Group and the ERAS Center. He is also a member of the Board of Advisors at the Tisch School of the Arts at New York University and is on the Board of Trustees of The Geffen Theatre in Los Angeles, The Sundance Institute, The Museum of Contemporary Art and The Preston Robert Tisch Brain Cancer Center at Duke University.

JONATHAN TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February of 1991 as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch is Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the United States, and is also Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of its subsidiary, Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has engineered Loews Hotels' expansion and emergence as a leading luxury hotel chain by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships. His leadership philosophy, explored in his best-selling book, The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships, provides a blueprint for achieving enduring success through partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. His best-selling follow-up book, Chocolates on the Pillow Aren't Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience, nominated for a Quill Award as one of the five best business books of the year, offers a detailed look at how the right customer experience can produce long-lasting success for any organization.

To get a better perspective on the essential connection between upper management and entry level employees, Tisch starred in the premier episode of "Now Who's Boss?," a television series by TLC and New York Times Television, that explored what happens when a CEO is put back in frontline positions at his own company.

Tisch also hosts the television series Beyond the Boardroom where he goes one-on-one with the nation's leading CEOs. The program reveals the person behind the successful executive and shows that business is about more than just numbers, but rather guts, hard work, imagination, and people.

Recognized as a national leader of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry, Tisch served from 1995 to 2008 as Chairman of the Travel Business Roundtable, and from 2003 to 2006 on the United States Department of Commerce Travel and Tourism Advisory Board. Tisch also served a five-year term as an officer of the American Hotel & Lodging Association, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization. Tisch now serves as the Chairman Emeritus of the United States Travel Association.

Tisch is equally committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where for nearly six years he served as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism marketing agency and local convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of September 11th, Tisch was asked to serve as Chairman of "New York Rising," a task force set up to help rebuild the City by reviving tourism. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders" and was named the 2006 "CEO of the Year" by the Executive Council of New York.

Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and his community and philanthropic activities are extensive. He served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service. He is on the Boards of the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, Tribeca Enterprises and the Tribeca Film Institute, and the Business Council for the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

After graduating from Tufts University, Tisch worked as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston, for which he received two local Emmy nominations.

CHRIS MARA
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER EVALUATION

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He served as a scout for the Giants for 14 years, including the franchise's first two Super Bowl Championship seasons in 1986 and 1990. Mara joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years he was a member of the club's player personnel department.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children-Daniel, Kate, Patricia, and Conor – and two grandchildren, Judith Kailee and Wellington Rooney (Daniel's children).

JERRY REESE
SR. VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

In this third year on the job, Jerry Reese is already one of the most successful general managers in the NFL. Reese's first two seasons at the top of the franchise's football operations included a 22-10 regular season record, a victory in Super Bowl XLII and an NFC East championship. The Giants are one of just two teams to advance to postseason play each of the last four seasons (along with the Indianapolis Colts).

Reese was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 16, 2007. He succeeded Ernie Accorsi, who had held the positions for nine years before retiring. Reese, who will be 46 when the 2009 season begins, has been with the Giants since 1994. Prior to becoming the G.M., he had spent the previous four seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Reese coordinated the Giants' college scouting, was in charge of the team's draft preparation and ran the draft room during the two days of player selections. When Accorsi retired, the team's ownership selected Reese as the team's third general manager since 1979, when the late George Young assumed the position. Young held it until 1997, when Accorsi took over. Accorsi, who had helped convince Reese to leave college scouting and join the pro personnel department of the Giants, promoted him and championed his cause.

"We felt that Jerry was the right man at the right time in the right place," John Mara, the Giants' President and Chief Executive Officer, said at the news conference announcing Reese's appointment. "I've had the opportunity to observe Jerry's work firsthand throughout his time here, and he has demonstrated extraordinary leadership skills, intelligence, confidence, a superior work ethic and an outstanding ability to evaluate players. Jerry earned this position the old-fashioned way: through hard work and dedication, being promoted through the ranks, and demonstrating a unique set of skills that caused us to take notice of him very early on. He has earned the respect and admiration of everyone in this organization from the first day he walked in the door and we are very excited about his ability to lead our team in the future."

"Change is not always necessary just for change's sake," said Jonathan Tisch, the team's treasurer. "(With Reese's promotion), we were able to continue the continuity that is embedded in this organization, that has been around historically since the Mara family took over and since my family has been fortunate to have been partners for the past 16 years, and reflect upon Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch and move forward with an organization that is strong and wants to put a winning product on the field. That will now happen under Jerry Reese's leadership."

The selection of Reese was historic, as he was the third African-American general manager in NFL history, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome and Houston's Rick Smith. It was particularly poignant for Reese to learn of his appointment on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

"I thought about that a lot and it was perfect timing," Reese said. "It was absolutely perfect timing for this to happen. I don't mean to sound cliché, but I really feel it's my time to carry the torch. There are many people who went before me who really suffered through this process, and now it's my time. I'm going to be successful – I have to be successful on a lot of levels."

Doug Williams, the first black quarterback to win a Super Bowl, with Washington in January 1988, carried the Lombardi Trophy to the stage set up on the field following Super Bowl XLII. Reese and Williams correspond regularly.

"After the Super Bowl, Doug called me, emailed me, texted me, and he just said, 'You made me so proud,'" Reese said. "Those are the kind of calls that mean so much, because Doug really kind of paved the way for African-Americans, saying, 'You know what, there can be an African-American quarterback to win the Super Bowl, there can be an African-American general manager who can lead his team to the Super Bowl.'"

Reese helped put the Giants on the road to a championship soon after becoming general manager. He re-signed center Shaun O'Hara, which kept the offensive line intact, and added linebacker Kawika Mitchell via free agency and running back Reuben Droughns and kicker Lawrence Tynes in trades. He drafted eight players – Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Jay Alford, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Adam Koets, Michael Johnson and Ahmad Bradshaw – who all played during the postseason. Most of them made vital contributions to the Giants' cause. During the season, the Giants added important players like fullback Madison Hedgecock and wide receiver/kickoff returner Domenik Hixon.

Reese's ability to acquire important players was again evident in 2008. Linebacker Danny Clark was signed in March and was the Giants' starting strongside linebacker. David Carr was such a solid backup quarterback, the Giants were afforded the luxury of carrying just two signal-callers on their roster the entire season. When kicker Lawrence Tynes was injured in the preseason, Reese signed 21-year veteran John Carney, whose 143 points were the second-most in Giants history. The Giants also drafted Kenny Phillips, Terrell Thomas, Mario Manningham and Bryan Kehl, all of whom should contribute significantly to the team for years to come.

While serving as the Giants' Director of Player Personnel, Reese oversaw all aspects of the team's college scouting. During his tenure as personnel director, the Giants drafted Eli Manning, Osi Umenyiora, David Diehl, David Tyree, Chris Snee, Gibril Wilson, Justin Tuck, Brandon Jacobs, Mathias Kiwanuka, Corey Webster and Barry Cofield, all of whom played big roles in the championship season. All but Wilson remain on the roster.

Reese originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999, he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. In that position, he scouted the Giants' upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players. Reese was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese led the team with seven interceptions in 1982 and was UT-Martin's leading tackler in 1984 with 99. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

In 2008, Reese was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and earned his master's degree in education administration and supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

TOM COUGHLIN
HEAD COACH

Long regarded as one of the NFL's premier head coaches, Tom Coughlin reached the pinnacle of his profession in the 2007 season when he led the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XLII. The Giants, heavy underdogs entering the game, scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to defeat the previously-undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14.

Coughlin and the Giants' success continued in 2008, when they won the NFC East championship with a 12-4 record, their best record since the 2000 NFC champions won 12 games. The Giants' records the last four seasons are 11-5, 8-8, 10-6 and 12-4, their first stretch of four consecutive non-losing seasons since they had 10 in a row from 1954-63. The division title was the Giants' seventh since the 1970 merger. It was the eighth time in franchise history and the sixth time since the 1970 merger that the Giants finished a season with at least 12 victories. More importantly, the Giants advanced to postseason play for the forth consecutive season, the first time they accomplished that feat in the 84-year history of the franchise. The Giants and Indianapolis Colts are the only teams to make the playoffs each of the last four years.

The 2008 Giants established several milestones and records. The Giants had two more victories than they finished with the previous season to become the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the Lombardi Trophy (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season). The Giants were the first defending Super Bowl champion in 10 years – and only the fourth overall – to earn a top seed in the postseason a year after winning the championship game (since seeding began in 1990).

Coughlin has always stressed the importance of limiting turnovers and the Giants set an NFL record (tied by the Miami Dolphins) by coughing up the ball only 13 times in 16 games. The Giants and Dolphins were the seventh and eighth teams to average less than one turnover a game over a 16-game season. Coughlin has coached two of the teams, the 2002 Jaguars and last season's Giants.

The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants finished the season with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They scored 448 points in 1963 and had 356 first downs in 1985.

Coughlin is one of just three active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Bill Belichick and Mike Tomlin, whose Pittsburgh Steelers succeeded the Giants as NFL champions. When the Giants won Super Bowl XLII, Coughlin became the 26th different head coach to win a Super Bowl, and the second to win one with the Giants (Bill Parcells won two). At 1-0, Coughlin is one of 18 coaches with an unblemished Super Bowl record. At 61 years and 156 days old, he was the third-oldest coach to win a Super Bowl. Only Dick Vermeil and Weeb Ewbank were older.

Coughlin is 8-7 in the postseason, including 4-3 with the Giants. The four playoff victories are the second-most in Giants history, behind Parcells' eight.

The championship season and last year's division title are successes in a Giants' revival that began when Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 6, 2004. The Giants won only four games in the season before his arrival. A successful head coach in the NFL and on the collegiate level, Coughlin was an assistant coach with the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990. When he returned to the team as head coach, Coughlin quickly put the team back on a path that would ultimately lead to another Super Bowl victory.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories and the NFC East title in Coughlin's first two seasons with the team. In 2006, they went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. In 2007, they were 10-6 in the regular season and again reached postseason play as a Wild Card. Last year, they were again one of the NFL's very best teams and reached the playoffs for the first time following a Super Bowl appearance.

Coughlin has won four division titles and led his teams to the playoffs eight times in his 13 years as an NFL head coach. Belichick, who has coached the New England Patriots to six first place finishes in the AFC East, is the only active coach entering the 2009 season with more division titles than the Giants' coach.

A 35-14 victory over Dallas on Nov. 2, 2008 was Coughlin's 200th regular season game as an NFL head coach. Coughlin is 115-93 (.553) in the regular season, plus 8-7 in the postseason for an overall record of 123-100 (.552). His 115 regular season victories place him third among current NFL head coaches, behind Belichick and Jeff Fisher, both of whom have coached one more season than Coughlin, who is the only one of the three to have coached an expansion team. The 115 victories leave him in 28th place on the NFL's all-time regular season list, one behind former Rams and Redskins coach George Allen. Coughlin's 123 victories place him in a tie for 27th place with Hall of Famer Sid Gilman. A victory over the Jets on Oct. 7, 2007 was the 100th of Coughlin's career, including postseason games. Coughlin won his 100th regular season game at Detroit on Nov. 18, 2007.

Coughlin twice led the Jaguars to the AFC Championship Game prior to leading the Giants to victory in the NFC Championship Game. He is one of just six coaches to lead teams to a championship game in each conference since the 1970 merger. The others are Parcells and Dan Reeves (both former Giants coaches), as well as Chuck Knox, Tony Dungy and Jon Gruden.

The 2007 Giants set several milestone achievements on their way to the NFL championship. The Giants became the fifth Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, the second in three years (the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL) and the first from the NFC. They were the second team to win the Super Bowl after winning three postseason games on the road to get there (again joining the 2005 Steelers). The No. 5 Giants were the lowest-seeded NFC team to win the Super Bowl since the NFL began seeding teams in 1990. The previous low was a second-seeded team. The Giants were just the third team to win the Super Bowl after starting the season 0-2. The others were the 1993 Dallas Cowboys and the 2001 Patriots.

Perhaps the most impressive characteristic of the 2007 Giants was their ability to win on the road. The Giants won 10 consecutive games as visitors (seven regular season, three postseason), an NFL single-season record. They were the visiting team in the Super Bowl, which was their 11th consecutive triumph away from Giants Stadium. The Giants won their first 2008 road game, at St. Louis, to extend their road winning streak to 11 games, which ties them with three other teams for the second-longest such streak in NFL history. They achieved much of that success with 11 rookies on their 2007 active roster, a record for a Super Bowl winner.

In 2007, the Giants started the season 0-2 before winning six consecutive games to become just the fifth team in history and the second since 1947 to follow two opening losses with six straight triumphs. The last of those victories was over the Miami Dolphins in London's Wembley Stadium, which made them the first team to win a regular season game outside of North America. Last year, the Giants won seven consecutive games from Oct. 19 to Nov. 30. It was first time the Giants have had won six games in a row in each of two consecutive seasons since 1993 and '94.

The Giants have also made dramatic statistical improvement under Coughlin. The team averaged 376.0 points per season in his first five years. Under Coughlin's stewardship, the Giants have had three of the five highest-scoring seasons in the history of the franchise, with 427 points last year, 422 points in 2005 and 373 points in 2007. The Giants scored more than 30 points seven times in 2008 – including four in a row from Nov. 2-23 - and six times in 2007, their highest totals of 30-point games since 1963, when they had 10. The Giants averaged 285.6 points a year in the three seasons prior to Coughlin's arrival.

Last season, the Giants and Philadelphia Eagles were the only two NFL teams to be ranked in the top nine in both offense and defense in the 2008 regular season. The Giants were ranked seventh offensively (355.9 yards a game) and fifth defensively (292.0). Philadelphia's offense was ranked ninth (350.5) and its defense third (274.3). It was the first season in which the Giants were ranked in the top 10 on offense and defense since 2002, when they were sixth in offense (364.1 yards a game) and ninth in defense (309.3). The 2008 season was the first in which the Giants allowed less than 300 yards a game since 2000, when the opponents of the NFC champions gained 281.4 yards per game.

EVAN PINKUS

The Giants were first in rushing yardage last season after finishing fourth in 2007. They have finished seventh or better in rushing in each of the last four seasons, the first time since 1990-93 that they were in the NFL's top 10 four years in a row.

In 2005, Coughlin's second season, the Giants scored 45 touchdowns, their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. They became only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. Their 5,787 total yards were the third-most in team history. The Giants' 312 first downs were the fifth-most in team history. The Giants' offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. It was the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth with an average of 320.2 yards a game

Defensively, the Giants ranked fifth in total defense in 2008, allowing 292.0 yards a game. It was their highest ranking since 2000, when they were also fifth. The 292 yards per game were the fewest allowed by the Giants since 2000, when they gave up 284.1. The Giants were ninth in the NFL in rushing defense, surrendering 95.8 yards per game. In the 2007 Super Bowl season, the Giants were eighth in rushing defense, allowing 97.7 yards a game. In addition, the Giants led the NFL with 53 quarterback sacks in 2007 and followed that up with 42 sacks last year. The 95 sacks are the league's second-highest total in the previous two seasons, topped only by Dallas' 105.

Coughlin has also overseen a significant improvement in the Giants' special teams. In 2008, three Giants special teams player played in the Pro Bowl – punter Jeff Feagles, kicker John Carney and long-snapper Zak DeOssie. Feagles, who was 42 in 2008, finished the season with a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The net average was a career high. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year. Carney scored a career-high 143 points, the second-highest figure in Giants history and just five less than Jay Feely's record of 148 in 2005. Carney kicked 35 field goals in

LARRY FRENCH

38 attempts, a .921 percentage that was the best in Giants history. Two of his three misses were blocked.

The year before Coughlin arrived, the Giants averaged only 19.9 yards a kickoff return. In 2004, they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage for the first time since 1953 with an average return of 25.1 yards. In 2005, their average kickoff return dropped by less than a yard, to 24.3 yards, good for fourth in the NFL. Last year, the Giants averaged 23.3 yards a return. The Giants also allowed only 140 punt return yards the entire season and a 5.8-yard average on punt returns, the third-best figure in the NFL.

Many Giants players have enjoyed outstanding seasons in the Coughlin era. In 2008, seven Giants were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to the game. The Pro Bowlers were quarterback Eli Manning, guard Chris Snee, center Shaun O'Hara, defensive end Justin Tuck and Feagles, Carney and DeOssie.

Manning, who threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes in Super Bowl XLII, passed for 3,238 yards and 21 scores in 2007. He is the first Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in four consecutive seasons and the first to throw at least 20 touchdown passes four years in a row. Manning's 71 consecutive regular season starts is the second-longest active streak among NFL quarterbacks entering the 2009 season. With Brandon Jacobs (1,089 yards) and Derrick Ward (1,025), the Giants were just the fourth team in history with two running backs rushing for at least 1,000 yards apiece in the same season. Jacobs is the fourth running back in Giants history to run for at least 1,000 yards in at least two consecutive seasons. He rushed for 15 touchdowns in 2008 and is just the second player in Giants history to run for that many scores in a single season. The Giants are the only NFL team to start the same five offensive linemen in every regular season game the last two seasons (Kareem McKenzie, Snee, O'Hara, Rich Seubert and David Diehl).

Coughlin previously coached the Jacksonville Jaguars, taking charge of the expansion franchise more than 18 months prior to its first game and guiding the team for its first eight seasons. Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, and twice took Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in its first five seasons.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars compiled several impressive statistical records. Jacksonville was 55-12 in games in which it owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Coughlin was out of football in 2003 but has been in the coaching profession for 40 years. He has always emphasized ball security and his teams have been among the very best in the NFL at taking care of the football. His career turnover differential is plus-50 in the regular season and plus-two in the postseason. In the 128 regular season games they played under Coughlin, the Jaguars committed fewer than three turnovers in 104 of them, including 32 in which they had no giveaways. In those 128 games, Jacksonville had 187 giveaways, giving Coughlin a 1.46 turnovers-per-game average. In 2002, Jacksonville's differential was plus-12 and the Jaguars had only 15 giveaways to become just the third team in history with fewer turnovers than games played (the others were the 1990 Giants, a team which had Coughlin as its wide receivers coach, and the 2002 Kansas City Chiefs).

Coughlin's Giants teams have been equally careful with the ball, turning it over only 114 times in 80 regular season games (1.43 a game). The Giants had fewer than three turnovers in 63 of those 80 games. The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34. In four seasons under Coughlin, the Giants are plus-16, including an NFC-best plus-nine in 2008, when the Giants lost only three fumbles all year.

Coughlin became the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and '98 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Coughlin earned a reputation as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-2-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin and Miami Dolphins coach Tony Sparano are the only current NFL head coaches with experience as college head coaches. Sparano was once the coach at the University of New Haven.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and '85. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Kate, two son-in-laws named Chris, two sons, Brian and Tim, two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife), and six grandchildren: Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea, Cooper, Caroline May and Marin Elizabeth.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation was established by Coach Tom Coughlin and named in honor of Jay McGillis, a young man who played for Coughlin at Boston College and lost his battle with leukemia at the age of 21. Jay and his family set an example of courage and dignity that would forever leave its mark on those who knew him. The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is:

1. Assist children with leukemia and other childhood cancers and their families during the course of their child's illness.

2. Support clinical and laboratory research in leukemia and other childhood cancers that will be of benefit to these children and their families.

Since its inception in 1996, the Jay Fund Foundation has donated more than $2 million to help children and their families. Since joining the Giants organization in 2004, Coughlin has worked to expand his foundation to provide the same support to the children of the New York metropolitan area. The foundation hosts several annual fundraising events, including a Wine Tasting Gala and Celebrity Golf Classic Tournament in Jacksonville and the Pigskin Ball in Manhattan. Since 2005, Coughlin has partnered with New York Jets running back Curtis Martin to host the Pigskin Ball, a dinner to kick off the football season which benefits the Jay Fund and Martin's charity of choice, the National Law Enforcement and Firefighters Children's Foundation. In addition to these events, Coach Coughlin regularly hosts special parties for pediatric oncology patients and children from the Make a Wish Foundation, granting children's wishes at Giants' Saturday practices throughout the year.

KEVIN GILBRIDE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Kevin Gilbride is in his third full season as the Giants' offensive coordinator after serving the previous three years as the team's quarterbacks coach. Gilbride assumed play-calling duties from former coordinator John Hufnagel prior to the 2006 regular season finale in Washington.

With Gilbride devising game plans and calling plays, the Giants' offense compiled many impressive numbers during the 2008 season. The Giants finished the season with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They scored 448 points in 1963 and had 356 first downs in 1985. The Giants scored at least 30 points seven times during the season – including four games in a row from Nov. 2-30 - their highest total of 30-point games since 1963, when they had 10.

The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants rushed for 301 yards in an overtime victory over Carolina on Dec. 21 that clinched home field advantage throughout the postseason. It was the fifth-highest total in team history and their highest total in 49 years.

Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards (despite missing three games with a knee injury) and Derrick Ward ran for 1,025 to the 4th pair of backs from the same team – and the fifth set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

Overall, the offense was ranked seventh in the NFL with an average of 355.9 yards a game, almost 25 yards more than the unit's 2007 average.

Gilbride has worked closely with Eli Manning throughout the quarterback's career. In 2008, Manning threw for 3,238 yards and 21 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in four consecutive seasons and the first to throw at least 20 touchdown passes four years in a row. Manning is one of four quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards every season from 2005-08. The others are Drew Brees, Brett Favre and Peyton Manning. He is one of three quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in each of the last four seasons, joining Brees and Peyton Manning.

Gilbride joined the Giants as the team's quarterbacks coach on Jan. 26, 2004. He was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995 and 96. Gilbride has also coordinated offenses for the Houston Oilers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills. The 2009 season is Gilbride's 35th in coaching and 20th in the National Football League.

As quarterbacks coach, Gilbride was at the forefront of the development of Manning, the No. 1 selection in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2005, under Gilbride's guidance, Manning led the Giants to the NFC East title while throwing 557 passes, the third-highest total in the league and the second-highest total in team history. Manning's 294 completions tied for ninth in the NFL and placed him fourth on the Giants' single-season list. His 3,762 yards were fifth in the NFL and fifth on the franchise's single-season list. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

In 2006, Gilbride's last as quarterbacks coach, Manning threw 522 passes, the sixth-highest total in Giants history. He completed 301 of those throws to become just the second quarterback in franchise history to top 300 completions in a season. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger. Manning became the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

Manning's development under Gilbride became evident in the latter part of the quarterback's rookie season in 2004. In the last three games of the year, Manning completed 53 of 87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two years as the Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. Houston ranked first in the NFL in passing yards in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. The Oilers also ranked first in the league in total offense in 1990, second in 1991, third in 1992 and second in 1993.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84. He compiled a 35-14-2 record, a .706 winning percentage that is the best in school history.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Con., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children - daughters Kelly and Kristen and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999 and Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003.

BILL SHERIDAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bill Sheridan is in his first season as the Giants' defensive coordinator after spending the previous four seasons as the team's linebackers coach. This is Sheridan's 29th year in coaching and fifth in the NFL. Sheridan, who was a highly successful collegiate coach before joining the Giants, was named defensive coordinator on Jan. 19.

"Bill is a very good football coach," head coach Tom Coughlin said when promoting Sheridan. "He does an excellent job of teaching, of reinforcing what we aspire to be with our defensive team. He's coached our linebackers, he's given a big assist to Steve (Spagnuolo, his predecessor as coordinator) in all that he has done. As a linebackers coach, you're a central figure in the spoke, because you're involved in the coordination of the front and the linebackers and then the back seven. He has done a good job of encompassing the entire defense and grasping the aggressive style."

Under Sheridan's tutelage, the Giants linebackers have played at a consistently high level since 2005.

In 2008, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the team with 113 tackles (37 more than runner-up Michael Johnson), despite missing one game. When Osi Umenyiora's injury prompted Mathias Kiwanuka to return to defensive end, veteran Danny Clark stepped in at strongside linebacker and played well the entire season, finishing fourth on the team with 74 tackles. When the Giants needed a weakside backer, Sheridan helped facilitate Chase Blackburn's transfer from his position as Pierce's backup in the middle. The Giants finished fifth in the NFL in defense, allowing only 292.0 yards per game.

The previous season, Sheridan was instrumental in helping Kiwanuka make a successful transition from defensive end to the strong side. Kiwanuka had 47 tackles and 4.5 sacks in nine games before suffering a fractured fibula at Detroit. Reggie Torbor started the final 10 games of the season and played well. Sheridan also integrated a new weakside linebacker in Kawika Mitchell, while Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles.

In 2006, Sheridan helped steer the linebackers through a series of injuries as LaVar Arrington, Carlos Emmons and Brandon Short missed significant playing time. But Pierce remained healthy the entire season and was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the team with 159 tackles (93 solo). Pierce joined the Giants three weeks after Sheridan and under his coach's tutelage, has developed into one of the NFL's finest middle linebackers.

Injuries to Pierce and others forced Sheridan to constantly juggle the linebackers in his first season with the team. At one point during the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina, Sheridan's group on the field was composed of Kevin Lewis, Alonzo Jackson and Jay Foreman, none of whom had been on the team before late October.

Prior to joining the Giants, Sheridan spent three seasons at the University of Michigan, the first as linebackers coach and the last two as defensive line coach. He was also the school's recruiting coordinator in 2002-2003 and netted a pair of classes that were rated among the 10 best in the country.

Sheridan, 50, began his coaching career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Mich. from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army – from 1987-95. In 1996 and 97, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point. He then put in a three-year stint as the linebackers coach at Michigan State. Sheridan spent the 2001 season at Notre Dame, where he coached safeties and special teams. He moved to Michigan the following year.

A native of Detroit, Sheridan earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He graduated from De La Salle High School in Detroit.

Sheridan and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

TOM QUINN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tom Quinn is in his fourth season with the Giants and his third as the team's special teams coordinator. His first year with the team was spent as an assistant to Mike Sweatman, who retired following the 2006 season. Head coach Tom Coughlin quickly named Quinn to replace Sweatman.

The special teams played a huge role in the Giants' success in 2008. Three special teamers – kicker John Carney, punter Jeff Feagles and long snapper Zak DeOssie – were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Chase Blackburn was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a cover specialist.

Carney was signed on Aug. 30 because Lawrence Tynes was sidelined with an injury suffered three weeks earlier in training camp. Quinn quickly integrated Carney into the kicking unit and the veteran had the best season a Giants kicker has ever had. Carney kicked 35 field goals in 38 attempts, a .921 percentage that is the best in franchise history. Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005).

Feagles continued to improve in his 21st season. He had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average ties for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. Feagles holds the NFL records for punts (1,649), punting yards (68,607) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (531). Feagles is also the Giants' holder.

In addition to the Pro Bowlers' exploits, Quinn's coverage teams played extremely well throughout the season. The Giants' special teams were ranked fourth in the NFL according to a comprehensive survey by the Dallas Morning News. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and were ranked third in the NFL in punt coverage, giving up an average of only 5.85 yards a return. The team's field goal percentage of 92.3 was ranked third. The Giants blocked three field goals and opposing teams converted 73 percent of their attempts, the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL. The 40.2-yard net punting average was a Giants record and placed them fourth in the league. their opponents averaged 5.8 yards a return, the NFL's third-best figure. Domenik Hixon averaged a team-record 60.0 yards on three kickoff returns at Arizona.

The special teams overcame adversity and performed well in the Giants' 2007 championship season. Long-snapper Ryan Kuehl suffered a season-ending injury in training camp, and the Giants used rookie snappers Jay Alford (on placekicks) and DeOssie (for punts) the entire year. Tynes, in his first season with the Giants, made 23 of 27 field goal attempts (85.2 percent), the same numbers posted the previous season by Feely. Tynes also made the biggest kick of the postseason, a game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay.

Quinn employed three kickoff returners – Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Domenik Hixon – and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average. The coverage teams were also strong; Giants opponents averaged only 6.2 yards on 28 punt returns.

Quinn, 41, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years. Before joining the Giants, he spent four years on the coaching staff at Stanford University. Quinn coached the special teams in each of those seasons, plus the tight ends in 2002 and 2003, and the outside linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

Quinn began his career coaching linebackers at Davidson in 1991. From 1992-94, he was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator at James Madison. In 1995, he was the defensive coordinator at Boston University and from 1996-98 Quinn was the defensive coordinator at Holy Cross.

Quinn moved back to the West Coast in 1999 at San Jose State, where in three years he worked with the linebackers, tight ends and with the special teams. He joined the staff at Stanford in 2002.

Quinn grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

JACK BICKNELL, JR.

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Jack Bicknell, Jr. is in his first season as the Giants' assistant offensive line coach. He was hired on Jan. 23 to replace Dave DeGuglielmo, who is now the line coach of the Miami Dolphins. Bicknell will work with Pat Flaherty in leading the continued development of the offensive line.

Bicknell joined the Giants after two seasons as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Boston College. "He was the offensive line coach at Boston College for two 10-win seasons," Coach Tom Coughlin said. "I have followed his career closely and I know very well of him and I think he will make an excellent addition to our staff."

In 2008, the line coached by Bicknell helped Boston College finish fifth in the ACC in both scoring (24.7 points a game) and in rushing (143.3 yards per game) and third in sacks allowed (21 in 14 games). In 2007, Bicknell helped mold a young offensive line that protected ACC Player of the Year Matt Ryan – now the Atlanta Falcons' quarterback - and helped the Eagles generate nearly 6,000 yards of total offense. The Eagles allowed only 22 sacks in 14 games. Bicknell helped develop Gosder Cherilus, whom the Detroit Lions selected with the 17th overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft. B.C. finished the season ranked 10th in the nation, the team's best final poll finish since 1984, when Bicknell was he Eagles' center.

Prior to his two-year stay at B.C., Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech, where his 43 victories are the third-most in school history.

During Bicknell's stint, Louisiana Tech routinely played one of the nation's toughest schedules. The Bulldogs faced Florida State, Penn State, Miami, Tennessee, Nebraska, Texas A&M, Clemson and Auburn. Under his leadership, Tech defeated national powers Alabama, Michigan State and Oklahoma State and 22 of his players were either drafted by or signed free agent contracts with NFL teams.

Bicknell, who was one of the youngest Division I-A head coaches when he started, led the 1999 Bulldogs to an 8-3 record, the school's first AP Top 25 ranking and a 29-28 upset win over eventual SEC champion Alabama. In 2001, Louisiana Tech won the Western Athletic Conference championship during its first year of membership, earning Bicknell conference Coach of the Year honors. Louisiana Tech went on to play Clemson in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, the program's first post-season appearance since 1990.

Bicknell began his coaching career at Boston College in 1985 as a graduate assistant. In 1987, he went to the University of New Hampshire as the defensive line coach. He took over the offensive line in 1993. During his time at UNH, the Wildcats won the Yankee Conference in 1991 and 1994 and were the New England Division champions in 1996. He was the offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech in 1997-98 before becoming the head coach. After leaving Louisiana Tech in 2007, Bicknell accepted the offensive line job at Texas Tech, but later opted to return to his alma mater.

Bicknell's father, Jack, served as the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe and was the head coach at BC from 1981-90, finishing with a record of 59-55-1.

Bicknell played at Boston College from 1981-85, which coincided with Coughlin's tenure as an assistant coach there (81-83). He played in the Cotton and Tangerine Bowls and in 1984 started one of the most famous plays in college football history when he snapped the ball to Doug Flutie, who threw the Hail Mary pass to Gerard Phelan that defeated Miami in the Orange Bowl. As a senior at B.C., he received the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a BC football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education. Bicknell received both his bachelor's (1985) and master's (1987) degrees from Boston College. He and his wife Helen have three children: John, Katelyn and Alyse.

PAT FLAHERTY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience, is in his sixth season as the Giants' offensive line coach. He was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004.

The Giants have consistently had one of the NFL's best and most dependable offensive lines since Flaherty began coaching the unit. The same five linemen – center Shaun O'Hara, guards Chris Snee and Rich Seubert and tackles David Diehl and Kareem McKenzie – started all 32 regular season games the previous two seasons, the only line in the NFL that can make that claim. In 2008, Snee and O'Hara were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team Snee, who was a starter, was the first Giants guard to play in the Pro Bowl since Ron Stone in 2001 and O'Hara the first Giants center to go to the game since Bart Oates in 1993. In addition, Diehl was selected as a third alternate.

With the line leading the way, the Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. It was the first time since 1993 that the Giants led the NFL in rushing. Since the arrival of Coughlin and Flaherty in 2004, the Giants have finished no worse than 11th in the NFL in rushing and in each of the last four seasons were ranked seventh or better.

In 2007, the Giants were fourth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 134.3 yards a game. The Giants were also fourth in the league with a 4.6-yards-per-carry average. In 2006, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with an average of 134.8 rushing yards a game and sixth with an average of 4.7 yards per carry, tying a franchise record set the previous year. The Giants' 138.1-yard rushing average in 2005 placed them sixth in the league. In 2004, the Giants averaged 119.0 yards a game and 4.5 yards a carry, which were far superior to the 97.4 and 4.0 averages the Giants posted in 2003, the year before Coughlin and Flaherty arrived.

The line also did an outstanding job protecting Giants quarterbacks, who dropped back to pass 548 times and absorbed only 28 sacks in 17 games (including the NFC Divisional Playoff Game).

The Giants have had a 1,000-yard rusher in each season Flaherty has coached the line. In fact, last year they had two in Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025), just the fourth set of running back teammates in NFL history with more than 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. In 2007, Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards, despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Tiki Barber made the only three Pro Bowls of his career while rushing for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards in the three years he ran behind a Flaherty-coached line.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, DeLone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., in 1979.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

PETER GIUNTA

SECONDARY COACH/CORNERBACKS

Peter Giunta is in his fourth season as the Giants' secondary coach/cornerbacks. He joined the team on Jan. 18, 2006. Giunta, who has spent 18 of his 28-year coaching career in the NFL, was the defensive coordinator for the 1999 Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams.

In his first three seasons with the Giants, Giunta has been at the forefront in the development of young cornerbacks such as Aaron Ross, Corey Webster, Kevin Dockery and Terrell Thomas. In 2008, Webster, Ross and safety James Butler tied for the team lead with three interceptions apiece. Ross, the team's 2007 first-round draft choice, scored a touchdown on an interception return in each of his first two seasons. Webster, a second-round choice in 2005, re-joined the starting lineup in the 2007 postseason and has since played superbly. Dockery joined the team as an unheralded rookie free agent in 2006, but has become a steady and reliable contributor in sub defenses and as a fill-in starter. After missing the first month of the season with a hamstring injury, Thomas became an important member of the secondary in the second half of his rookie season.

With the cornerbacks playing solid football all season, the Giants were eighth in the NFL in pass defense in 2008, allowing 196.2 yards a game.

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) spent five seasons as the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game) and sixth in total defense (293.6 yards per game).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interception and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 sacks.

Giunta has long had a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs he coaches. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay safety Darren Sharper, who had nine. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by Ryan McNeil.

Prior to joining the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Aaron Glenn, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1997 and '98 seasons.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach in Philadelphia from 1991-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). Giunta was a defensive assistant his first year on Joe Paterno's staff before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). Giunta then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

Giunta is a native of Salem, Massachusetts and a graduate of Northeastern University. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Christina, John and D.J.

JIM HERRMANN

LINEBACKERS

Jim Herrmann is in his first season as the Giants linebackers coach. Herrmann joined the coaching staff on Jan. 22. He succeeds Bill Sheridan, the linebackers coach the previous four years who is now the defensive coordinator.

Herrmann came to the Giants after three years as the linebackers coach for the Jets. Prior to that, Herrmann was on the coaching staff at Michigan, his alma mater, for 20 years, including a nine-year stint as defensive coordinator.

"I've always been very much aware of Jim Herrmann and the job that he has done," head coach Tom Coughlin said. "He was the defensive coordinator at the University of Michigan for a lot of years and did an outstanding job. I was very impressed by not only the type of defense that they played but the aggressive style that they played. And he is a part of the (legendary Michigan coach) Bo Schembechler tree. I have always been a great admirer of Bo Schembechler."

In 2008, Herrmann helped coach a Jets defense that finished seventh in the NFL against the run (94.9 yards a game) and 16th overall (329.4). Two of the linebackers Herrmann coached, Eric Barton and Calvin Pace, were the team's top two tacklers.

The previous year, one of Herrmann's former Michigan players, David Harris, joined the Jets. As a rookie, Harris led the team with 117 tackles and tied for the team lead with five sacks.

Prior to joining the Jets, Herrmann was on the Michigan coaching staff for two decades. From 2002-04, one of his assistant coaches was Sheridan, first as linebackers coach for two seasons and then as the defensive line coach. In 1997, Herrmann's first year as defensive coordinator, the Wolverines won the national championship while leading the country in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency. Herrmann was the recipient of the Broyles Award as the National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During Herrmann's nine years as coordinator, Michigan won five Big Ten championships and the defense held 47 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards. His defense led the Big Ten in sacks in 1997, 2001 and 2002, including a school-record 50 sacks in 2001. Herrmann coached six All-Americas at Michigan, including Marlin Jackson, Ernest Shazor, Leon Hall, LaMarr Woodley, Larry Foote and Charles Woodson, who won the 1997 Heisman Trophy and was named the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Herrmann was a three-year letter-winner at linebacker for Michigan and was a member of Schembechler's first Rose Bowl-winning team in 1980. A Michigan native, Herrmann was a three-sport athlete and standout linebacker at Dearborn Divine High School.

Hermann has three children, Jessica, Cory and Timothy.

AL HOLCOMB

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Al Holcomb is in his first season as the Giants' defensive quality control coach. Holcomb spent the previous three seasons as the defensive line coach at Lafayette.

Last season, the Leopards led the Patriot League in both total defense (303.2 yards a game) and scoring defense (17.5 points a game). Lafayette also allowed the fewest first downs in the league (176), the best defensive third-down conversion percentage (33.6) and had the lowest passing efficiency by opposing quarterbacks (116.0). Defensive lineman Jason Mills was named to the All-Patriot League first team. In 2007, Holcomb mentored All-Patriot League First-Team tackle Kyle Sprenkle and second-team defensive end Keith Bloom. Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.1 yards per game and ranked fourth in the country in rushing defense (85.7 yards a game) and eighth in scoring defense (16.9 points per game).

In his first season at Lafayette, Holcomb coached defensive end Marvin Snipes and tackles Dan Liseno and Kyle Sprenkle to All-Patriot League honors.

In the summer of 2007, Holcomb participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship with the Jets. He spent mini-camp and training camp working the team's defense. Holcomb coached at Division II Kutztown University, where he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2004 and 2005 and served as acting head coach in the winter of 2005. Holcomb was the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Bloomsburg for six seasons from 1998-2003. Bloomsburg won the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference championship four straight years (2000-03).

Holcomb was linebackers coach, assistant track coach and a physical education instructor at Division III Colby College in Maine in 1997. He was the graduate assistant coach in charge of linebackers at Temple in 1995 and 1996.

A 1993 graduate of West Virginia University with a bachelor's degree in sport management, Holcomb earned his master's degree in athletic coaching education from WVU in 1996. He began his coaching career as linebackers coach at Morgantown High School in the fall of 1994, and served as a volunteer administrative assistant with the Mountaineers while pursuing his graduate degree.

Holcomb and his wife, Toni, are the parents of a son, Alex.

NEW YORK GIANTS

JERALD INGRAM

RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his sixth season as the Giants' running backs coach and he has mentored a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his previous five years with the team. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 25 years of coaching experience, including 18 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

Under Ingram's tutelage, the Giants had the NFL's most productive running attack in 2008. The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. Since the arrival of Coughlin and Ingram in 2004, the Giants have finished no worse than 11th in the NFL in rushing and in each of the last four seasons were ranked seventh or better.

Several of Ingram's players had outstanding individual seasons. Brandon Jacobs led the Giants with 1,089 rushing yards and Derrick Ward was close behind with 1,025. They became just the fourth pair of running backs from the same backfield – and only the fifth set of teammates – to each rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. Jacobs and Ward rushed for a combined 2,114 yards, the fourth-highest total by a running back tandem in 2008.

In addition, Ahmad Bradshaw – the team's leading rusher in the 2007 postseason – ran for 355 yards, Danny Ware emerged as a promising young running back and fullback Madison Hedgecock was voted a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Such excellence has been a part of the backfield since Ingram's arrival. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,009 yards in 2007. In Ingram's first three seasons with the Giants, Barber emerged as one of the very best running backs in the NFL and one of the finest players in franchise history. Barber, who retired following the 2006 season, had never played in the Pro Bowl prior to Ingram's arrival. But he was voted to the NFC team each of his final three seasons. In those three years, he rushed, in order, for 1,518 yards in 2004, a team-record 1,860 yards in 2005 and 1,662 yards in 2006. Barber, who rushed for 5,409 yards in his first seven Giants seasons, ran for 5,040 in just three years under Ingram to finish with a franchise-record 10,449 yards. Barber set the franchise record with 234 rushing yards at Washington in his final regular season game, breaking the mark of 220 yards he had set the previous season.

Ingram also helped make Jacobs one of the NFL's best short-yardage and goal-line backs in limited playing time his first two seasons. In 2004, Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943. The following season, Jacobs rushed for 423 yards and nine scores to establish himself as Barber's successor.

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's direction, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3 games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards. Ingram is also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers; when he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

Ingram joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin during his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Ingram spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

THOMAS MCGAUGHEY

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Thomas McGaughey is in his third season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. In his first two years with the team, McGaughey worked with special teams coordinator Tom Quinn to help the Giants' special teams become among the most productive in the NFL.

In 2008, three Giants special teamers – kicker John Carney, punter Jeff Feagles and long snapper Zak DeOssie – were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Carney, who was 44, and Feagles, then 42, were the NFL's oldest active players in 2008 and the oldest players ever voted to the Pro Bowl.

Carney, signed on Aug. 30, kicked 35 field goals in 38 attempts, a .921 percentage that is the best in franchise history. Two of his three misses were blocked. The one that wasn't was a 48-yarder. Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005). Carney scored a career-high 143 points, the second-highest figure in Giants history and just five less than Feely's record of 148 in 2005.

Feagles continued to improve in his 21st season. He had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The net average was a career high and enabled him to realize a long-held goal of having a 40-yard net average for a full season. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average ties for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year. Feagles holds the NFL records for punts (1,649), punting yards (68,607) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (531). Feagles is also the Giants' holder.

DeOssie has been the Giants' long snapper since shortly after his arrival as a fourth-round draft choice in 2007.

In addition to the Pro Bowlers' exploits, the coverage teams played extremely well throughout the season. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and their opponents averaged 5.8 yards a return, the NFL's third-best figure. The Giants had higher averages than their opponents on both kickoff and punt returns.

The special teams also excelled in the Giants' 2007 championship season. Kicker Lawrence Tynes, in his first season with the Giants, made 23 of 27 field goal attempts, plus the game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. Quinn and McGaughey employed three kickoff returners – Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Domenik Hixon – and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average.

McGaughey joined the Giants after two seasons as the Denver Broncos' assistant special teams coach. In 2006, the Broncos held opposing punt returners to an average of 6.9 yards a return, the fifth-best figure in the NFL. The previous year, McGaughey worked with Broncos special-teams units that helped the club go 13-3 en route to capturing the AFC West title and advancing to the AFC Championship Game.

McGaughey was the Kansas City Chiefs' assistant special teams coach for the 2002 season. He broke into the NFL as a minority intern with the Chiefs during their 2001 training camp before working as a pro scouting assistant in an internship with the Houston Texans that year as the franchise prepared for its inaugural season.

McGaughey spent two years (2003-04) working at his alma mater, the University of Houston before joining the Broncos' staff. He served as Houston's special teams coordinator in 2003 and as special teams coordinator/ cornerbacks coach in 2004.

A safety in his playing days, McGaughey entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 1996. He competed in the training camps of the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles in 1996-97, respectively. He was on the Eagles' practice squad late in the 1996 season and was a member of the Barcelona Dragons' team that won NFL Europe's World Bowl in 1997.

McGaughey played for the Houston Cougars from 1991-95 and was special teams captain as a senior. He also lettered in track from 1991-93, competing in the 110-meter hurdles.

McGaughey, 34, was born in Chicago and grew up in Houston. He and his wife, Erika, have three children.

DAVID MERRITT, SR.

SECONDARY COACH/SAFETIES

David Merritt is in his sixth season on the Giants' coaching staff and his fourth as the team's secondary coach/safeties.

Merritt has demonstrated a knack for developing players who were not highly-touted entering the NFL. Last year's starting safeties were Michael Johnson, a seventh-round draft choice, and James Butler, who originally joined the team as an undrafted free agent. Johnson and Butler tied for second on the 2008 Giants with 76 tackles apiece. They also combined for five interceptions. Kenny Phillips, the team's first-round draft choice in 2008, assumed a larger role as the season progressed. He played in every game, starting three, and is expected to contribute for many years to come.

In the Giants' 2007 Super Bowl season, one of the team's most productive defensive players was free safety Gibril Wilson, who arrived as a fifth-round draft choice. Wilson led the club with 33 postseason tackles, was second with 96 regular season tackles and was one of the top free agent safeties in 2008.

Merritt assumed his current position prior to the 2006 season. In 2005, he was the Giants' defensive assistant coach. The previous year, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004 after spending three seasons with the Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96 and for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from N.C. State.

Merritt and his wife Yolonda have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson and a daughter, Drayah. He also has an older daughter, Kiki, who lives in North Carolina.

CHRIS PALMER

QUARTERBACKS

Chris Palmer is in his third season as the Giants' quarterbacks coach. Palmer is a 37-year coaching veteran who is in his 20th season as an NFL coach. During his long and distinguished NFL coaching career, Palmer has tutored Pro Bowl quarterbacks Drew Bledsoe, Mark Brunell, Tony Romo and Eli Manning.

His current star pupil is Manning, who has put together two outstanding seasons under Palmer's guidance. In 2008, Manning completed 289 of 479 passes (60.3 percent) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were career highs. Manning twice had single-game career high passer ratings. On Sept. 14 in St. Louis, he completed 20 of 29 passes for 260 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 131.4. Three weeks later vs. Seattle, Manning completed 19 of 25 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 136.6, the highest of his career, including both regular season and postseason games. Manning is the first Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in four consecutive seasons and the first to throw at least 20 touchdown passes four years in a row.

Manning was superb in the 2007 postseason, when he led the Giants to four victories, including an upset of New England in Super Bowl XLII. In the playoffs, Manning completed 72 of 119 passes (60.5 percent) for 854 yards, six touchdowns and only one interception.

When he joined the Giants, Palmer filled an opening created when Kevin Gilbride became the offensive coordinator. Palmer and head coach Tom Coughlin previously worked together with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1997-98.

Palmer came to the Giants after spending the 2006 season as the Dallas Cowboys' quarterbacks coach. Under Palmer's direction, Romo enjoyed a meteoric rise from a player who had not thrown a regular season pass in almost 3 years with the Cowboys to a Pro Bowler. Romo, who took over the job at halftime of a loss to the Giants on Oct. 23, won five of his first six starts, finished 6-4 and led the Cowboys to an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. He completed 220 of 337 passes (65.3 percent) for 2,903 yards, 19 touchdowns and 13 interceptions.

Palmer joined the Cowboys after serving as the offensive coordinator of the Houston Texans from 2001-05, the first five years of the franchise's existence (the team played its initial game in 2002). The Texans' first-ever draft choice was quarterback David Carr, who is in his second season as Manning's backup. With Palmer at the forefront of his development, Carr developed into a productive quarterback, completing 61.2 percent of his passes and throwing for 3,531 yards in 2004.

Prior to his stint with the Texans, Palmer spent two seasons as head coach of the expansion Cleveland Browns. The team was 2-14 in its inaugural season in 1999 and suffered several serious injuries in a 3-13 campaign in 2000. In Cleveland, Palmer worked with quarterback Tim Couch, who, like Manning and Carr, was a first overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Coughlin and Palmer first worked together when the latter was named the Jaguars' offensive coordinator in 1997. During Palmer's two seasons in Jacksonville, the Jaguars were ranked seventh and 10th, respectively, in the NFL in total offense. The '98 Jaguars won the AFC Central championship and averaged 325.9 yards a game, which was fifth in the NFL.

In addition, Palmer played a pivotal role in the improvement of Brunell, who became one of the AFC's finest quarterbacks. In 1997, Brunell led the conference with a 91.2 passer rating and played in his first Pro Bowl. He returned to Hawaii the following season. Palmer's influence was perhaps more evident when Brunell was sidelined. In his two years in Jacksonville, five different Jaguars starting quarterbacks won at least one game: Brunell, Rob Johnson, Steve Matthews, Jamie Martin and Jonathan Quinn.

Palmer was with the New England Patriots from 1993-96, the first three seasons as the wide receivers coach and the final year as the quarterbacks coach. In his season working with Bledsoe, the quarterback led the NFL in passing attempts (623) and completions (373) and was third in passing yards (4,086) and touchdowns (27). The Patriots won the AFC title before losing to the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXI.

Palmer's first NFL coaching experience was as the Houston Oilers' wide receivers coach from 1990-92 when Gilbride was the offensive coordinator. During those three seasons, the Run 'N Shoot Oilers had the NFL's most productive passing attack. Four Houston wide receivers – Curtis Duncan, Earnest Givens (twice), Drew Hill and Haywood Jeffires (twice) made the Pro Bowl while being coached by Palmer.

Prior to entering the NFL, Palmer was a successful college coach. He was the head coach at Boston University in 1988-89 and at the University of New Haven in 1986-87, when the Chargers posted consecutive 8-2 records.

Palmer's first professional coaching experience came in 1983, when he was the offensive line coach for the Montreal Concordes in the Canadian Football League. The following year, he coached the wide receivers for the USFL's New Jersey Generals. In 1985, he was promoted to quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. That year,

Palmer's offense featured quarterbacks Doug Flutie and Brian Sipe and running back Herschel Walker, who rushed for 2,411 yards.

Palmer began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Connecticut, where he coached the freshman defensive line in 1972 and the varsity wide receivers in 1973 and 74. In 1975, he became the wide receivers coach at Lehigh. The following year, Palmer was named the offensive coordinator at Colgate, where he stayed for seven years. In 1977, the Red Raiders led the nation in total offense with an average of 486 yards a game.

Palmer played quarterback for Southern Connecticut State from 1968-71. He earned both bachelor's and master's degrees at SCSU, where he was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame. He is also a member of the Hall of Fame at New Haven and Immaculate High School.

Palmer is a native of Brewster, N.Y. He has his wife, Donna, have two children, Mark and Kristin, a granddaughter, Annette Grace, and a grandson, Casey Christopher.

JERRY PALMIERI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

New Jersey native and longtime Tom Coughlin assistant Jerry Palmieri is in his sixth season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri was honored as the 2007 Samson's NFL Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful and productive athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at the University of North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from Giants Stadium. He received a master's degree is exercise physiology from North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri is a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was born in Englewood, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have a son, Tony, and a daughter, Annamarie.

MARKUS PAUL
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Markus Paul, a former NFL player and a veteran coach in the league, is in his third season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach. Paul works closely with Jerry Palmieri to improve the size, strength and speed of the Giants' players.

Prior to joining the Giants, Paul spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the Jets, in 2005 as the Director of Physical Development and the following year as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Before his tenure with the Jets, Paul was the New England Patriots' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He worked under Mike Woicik, who has trained six Super Bowl championship teams. Paul owns three Super Bowl rings from the Patriots' titles in 2001, 2003 and 2004.

Paul's first NFL coaching position was as the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1998-99.

Paul played defensive back during his playing career and was the Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft choice in 1989. He played with the Bears until 1993, when he played one game with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Paul played in 71 games with 30 starts at strong or free safety. He intercepted seven passes, which he returned for a total of 100 yards.

A four-year starter at Syracuse University, Paul holds the school record with 19 career interceptions. As a senior in 1988, he was credited with 76 tackles and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Football News. Paul earned a bachelor of science degree in retailing.

Paul was born in Orlando, Fla. He and his wife, Patricia, have a son, Jairus, and a daughter, Tabitha.

MICHAEL POPE
TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' head coach and began assembling his staff in January 2004, he retained only one position coach from the previous regime: tight ends coach Michael Pope. Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical.

"He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 27th consecutive season as an NFL coach and his 19th season as a Giants' assistant. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 29 postseason games, including five trips to the Super Bowl.

This the 10th season of Pope's second tour of duty as a Giants assistant coach. He is the only coach to participate in each of the Giants' four Super Bowls and he also coached in the Super Bowl with the Patriots in 1996.

Pope continues to enhance his reputation as the NFL's finest tight ends coach. Last year, Kevin Boss, who joined the team as a fifth-round draft choice from Western Oregon in 2007, became a fulltime starter and emerged as a reliable receiver and forceful blocker. Boss had a team-high six touchdown receptions among his 33 catches. Boss' 45-yard catch-and-run in Super Bowl XLII set up the Giants' first touchdown.

Pope's guidance and teaching helped make Jeremy Shockey one of the NFL's best tight ends. From 2002-06, Shockey was voted to the Pro Bowl four times. His 371 career receptions place him fourth on the Giants' career list (behind Amani Toomer, Tiki Barber and Joe Morrison).

Shockey was the Giants' first-round draft choice in 2002, when he caught 74 passes, a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl – Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope was re-hired by the Giants on Feb. 11, 2000. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense that season, which ended with the team winning the NFC championship and playing in Super Bowl XXV. He has further energized it the last eight seasons by being at the forefront of the development of Shockey and then Boss.

Pope was a member of Bill Parcells' Giants' coaching staff from 1983-91. He left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the New England Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as a receivers coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College, where his team won one national championship and was runner-up a second time. The team's combined record during his playing career was 34-8-3. An all-conference player, Pope was team captain and MVP as a senior. He was also inducted into Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities was the "Team Before Self" award winner as a senior. Pope is a member of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. A shoulder injury ended Pope's World Football League career after one year.

Pope was born in Monroe, N.C. Michael and Lee have two sons who work in the financial services industry, Travus in Naples, Fla., and Daron in New York City. Daron's wife, Rosie, is a native of London.

SEAN RYAN

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Sean Ryan is in his third season as the Giants' offensive quality control coach.

Ryan came to the Giants from Harvard University, where he spent the 2006 season as recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and head coach of the junior varsity.

Prior to his tenure at Harvard, Ryan was as an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons. In 2003 and 2004, Ryan was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, Ryan coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany (where the Giants hold training camp) in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y. – north of Albany - Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

MIKE SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS

Mike Sullivan is in his sixth season as the Giants' wide receivers coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 20, 2004.

The 2008 season saw a new group of receivers emerge under Sullivan's guidance. Second-year pro Steve Smith led the Giants with 57 receptions. Domenik Hixon, who had one career reception entering the season, had a team-high 596 receiving yards on 43 catches. Amani Toomer was second on the team with 48 receptions in his final Giants season. Toomer holds the franchise career records for catches (668), receiving yards (9,497), touchdown catches (54) and 100-yard games (22). In four seasons with the Giants, Plaxico Burress had 344 catches, which place him 12th on the franchise's career list, one catch ahead of Earnest Gray and three behind Aaron Thomas. Burress had 3,681 receiving yards and caught 33 touchdown passes for the Giants.

Burress caught 10 touchdown passes in 2006 and 12 the following year to become the first Giant since Del Shofner in 1961-62 to post back-to-back seasons with 10 or more scoring catches. He set a Giants postseason record with 11 receptions in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay, one more than Ike Hilliard had in the 2000 Championship Game victory over Minnesota.

David Tyree, another of Sullivan's players, made one of the greatest plays in Super Bowl history when he improbably secured an Eli Manning pass against his helmet for a 32-yard gain on the Giants' game-winning drive in Super Bowl XLII.

Sullivan was the Jacksonville Jaguars' offensive assistant in 2003 after spending the previous season as Jacksonville's defensive quality control coach under Tom Coughlin. He was the only member of Coughlin's coaching staff retained by the Jaguars in 2003.

Sullivan joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching in college football. He began his coaching career at Humboldt State in 1993. He also coached at Army (1995-96 and 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98) and Ohio University (2001). In 1997, Youngstown State won the Division 1-AA national championship under Jim Tressel, now the coach at Ohio State. At Ohio University, Sullivan coached the defensive backs and tutored the kick blocking units on the special teams.

Sullivan was a defensive back at Army, where he received a B.S. degree in 1989. He also has a master's degree from Humboldt State. Sullivan is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools.

Sullivan and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Carmen Enriqueta and Hope Carolyn. Sullivan was born in Santa Maria, Calif.

MIKE WAUFLE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Mike Waufle has more than 30 years of coaching experience and is in his sixth season with the Giants.

In Waufle's first five years with the team, three different Giants defensive linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl: Michael Strahan in 2005, Osi Umenyiora in 2005 and 2007 and Justin Tuck in 2008. In addition, linemen such as Fred Robbins, Barry Cofield, Mathias Kiwanuka, Jay Alford and Dave Tollefson have played well under Waufle's direction.

With Waufle's defensive linemen leading the way, the Giants had 95 combined sacks the previous two seasons, the second-highest total in the NFL. In 2007, the Giants led the NFL with 53 sacks, their highest total since they had a league-high 54 in 1998. That included a record-setting 12.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia on Sept. 30. Strahan, Tuck and Alford all had big sacks in the Super Bowl XLII victory over New England.

Last year, Tuck led the team with 12.0 sacks and the defensive line with 71 tackles and was voted to his first Pro Bowl and Kiwaunka added a career-high 8.0 sacks. The previous season, Umenyiora had a team-high 13.0 sacks, which left him third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL. It was the fourth consecutive season he had sole possession of the team's sack leadership. Tuck had 10.0 sacks and Strahan 9.0.

Strahan retired following the 2007 season with 141.5 sacks, the NFL's fifth-highest total since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

The tackles have also excelled under Waufle's tutelage. Robbins and Cofield were both strong run defenders. Robbins had 5.5 sacks for the third consecutive season and Cofield led the Giants' interior linemen with 56 tackles.

In 2006, rookies Kiwanuka and Cofield thrived under Waufle. Kiwanuka, the team's first-round draft choice, played in every game and had four sacks and two interceptions. Cofield arrived as an unheralded fourth-round choice, started every game at nose tackle and was selected as the nose tackle on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America first All-Rookie team. He was the 1st Giants rookie defensive player to start every game since Lawrence Taylor and defensive lineman Bill Neill in 1981 and was one of 13 rookies to start each of his team's games in 2006.

Prior to joining the Giants, Waufle was the defensive line coach of the Oakland Raiders for six seasons. In those six years (1998-2003), the Raiders made the playoffs three times, winning at least one postseason game in each of those seasons and advancing to Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season. Defensive tackle Darrell Russell was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1998 and 99.

Before his stint with the Raiders, Waufle coached the defensive linemen at the University of California, where he was also the recruiting coordinator. At Cal, he helped develop several NFL defensive linemen, including two first-round picks in the 1996 draft, Duane Clemons and Regan Upshaw.

Waufle is a native of Hornell, N.Y., and was inducted into the high school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1994. He began his coaching career as the defensive line coach at Alfred University in 1979. From 1980-84, he was an assistant at Utah State, working one season as the assistant secondary coach, two with the offensive line and two as the defensive line coach. From 1985-88, Waufle was the defensive line coach and worked with the special teams at Fresno State. He was the defensive line coach at UCLA (1989) and Oregon State (1990-91) before moving to Cal.

After graduating from high school, Waufle served from 1972-75 in the United States Marines before beginning his collegiate football career at Bakersfield Junior College, which won the junior college national title and played in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1976. He then played defensive line at Utah State, where he was named captain as a senior.

Waufle and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters: Michele, who lives with her husband, Ken Maghuyop, daughters Kaitlin and Kennah, and son Cody in California, and Marsha, who is married to Sean Peterson and is a senior clinical research associate for Parexel International in Alaska. The Waufles live in Oakland, N.J.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 3rd round (81st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Alford joined Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Michael Johnson, Adam Koets and Ahmad Bradshaw as 2007 Giants draft choices who contributed in their rookie season.
- Made a huge play in Super Bowl XLII when he sacked New England quarterback Tom Brady for a 10-yard loss with 19 seconds remaining.
- Has proved to be a valuable and versatile reserve along the defensive line seeing action at both defensive tackle and end.
- Provided consistent snapping on field goals and extra points in his 1st 2 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has play in 32 regular season games with 3 starts and played in 5 postseason contests…Career totals include 34 tackles (10 solo), 3.5 sacks and 1 pass defensed in the regular season and 12 tackles (4 solo) and 1 sack in the postseason…Has handled snapping duties on every regular season and postseason field goal and extra point attempt since joining the team as a rookie in 2007.
- In 2008, played in all 16 regular season games with 3 starts and played in the NFC Divisional Playoff game vs. Philadelphia…Finished with 26 tackles (9 solo), 2.5 sacks, 3 tackles for losses, 4 QB hurries, 7 QB hits, and 1 pass defensed.
- Sacked Marc Bulger for a 7-yard loss in the 4th quarter at St. Louis (9/4)…Made his 1st career start, in place of injured Fred Robbins, at defensive tackle at Washington (11/30) and had 2 tackles…Started for Robbins and tallied 2 tackles, 1 sack for a 7-yard loss and 1 QB hurry at Dallas (12/14)…Started in place of Barry Cofield and finished with 3 tackles (2 solo) and 2 QB hurries at Minnesota (12/28/08)
- As a rookie in 2007, Alford played in all 16 regular season games and all 4 postseason games…Was the snapper for field goals and extra points all season…Finished with 8 tackles (1 solo), 1 sack, 5 QB hurries and 2 QB hits…In the postseason, he contributed 7 tackles (3 solo) and 1 sack.
- Made his NFL debut with 2 solo tackles at Dallas (9/9)…Recorded his 1st career sack when he dropped Donovan McNabb for a 1-yard loss in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (12/9)…Had 2 tackles (1 solo) and 1 QB hurry in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20/08)…Made a perfect snap for Lawrence Tynes' game-winning 47-yard field goal in overtime…Saw action as the snapper and at defensive tackle in Super Bowl XXLII vs. New England (2/3)…Finished with 2 solo tackles, 1 sack and 1 QB hurry…Sacked Tom Brady for a 10-yard loss on the Patriots' 2nd play of their final drive.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 46 games with 41 starts for the Nittany Lions…Alford recorded 118 tackles (60 solo), 32 tackles for losses and 19 sacks…He also recovered 4 fumbles, forced 3 fumbles, deflected 12 passes and registered 3 quarterback pressures…His 19 sacks leave him tied with Bruce Clark (1976-79) and LaVar Arrington (1997-99) for 8th on the school's career list.
- All-America 3rd-team selection by the Associated Press, adding honorable mention from The NFL Draft Report…All-Big Ten Conference 2nd-team pick by the league's coaches and media.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Hosts an annual free football camp for kids in his hometown of Orange, N.J.
- Served as a celebrity judge in the "Newark Idol" talent competition
- Attended the Giants Kickoff Luncheon benefitting St. Vincent's Medical Center.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Orange (N.J.) High School, about 30 minutes from Giants Stadium…Three-year starter who was selected 1st-team All-State, U.S. Army All-American and was listed among the G&W Recruiting Report Top 50 defensive players in the nation. Graduated from Penn State in December 2006 with a degree in Integrative Arts.
- Born Jason Jamaal Alford on May 28, 1983 in Orange, N.J.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the Houston Texans in 2002…Released by the Texans on March 23, 2007…Signed as a free agent by the Carolina Panthers on April 10, 2007…Signed as a free agent by the Giants on March 3, 2008.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Carr was the Houston Texans' 1st-ever draft choice in 2002….He was the 12th quarterback selected number 1 overall since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger.
- With Eli Manning and Carr, the Giants are the 2nd team in history to have 2 quarterbacks who were selected 1st overall in their respective drafts on their roster at the same time. The 2007 Panthers were the 1st team with that distinction with Vinny Testaverde (1987) and Carr (2002).
- David and his father love collecting classic cars. Each year they attend the Pismo Beach Classic, one of the largest classic car and street rod shows on the West Coast. The show, traditionally on Father's Day Weekend, pulls in 1,000 classic cars and street rods and over 100,000 spectators in 3 days.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Carr has played in 85 regular season games with 79 starts. He started all 16 games 4 times in his 5 seasons with the Texans, including the last 3. Carr has completed 1,325 of 2,218 passes (59.7 percent) for 14,141 yards, 64 touchdowns and 70 interceptions. His career passer rating is 74.9. He has been sacked 263 times, including a record 76 for 411 yards in losses as a rookie.
- Carr has produced 4 career 300-yard passing performances, including a career-high 372 vs. Minnesota on Oct. 10, 2004…He had career-high totals of 54 passes and 39 completions in Giants Stadium vs. the Jets on Nov. 26, 2006…Carr tied the NFL single-game record with 22 consecutive completions vs. Buffalo on Nov. 19. 2006…He has directed 11 career game-winning drives in which the decisive points were scored in the 4th quarter or overtime, most recently Oct. 7, 2007 in New Orleans. Carr led the NFL with a career-high 68.3 completion percentage (hitting 302 of 442 passes) in 2006.
- In 2008, Carr played in 3 games and threw 12 passes in reserve of Eli Manning. He completed 9 for 115 yards and 2 touchdowns…Saw his 1st action as a Giant uniform at St. Louis (9/14/) on the game's final series and had 3 rushes for minus-3 yards…Replaced Manning in the 4th quarter vs. Seattle (10/5) and completed his only pass for a 5-yard touchdown to Sinorice Moss to give the Giants a 44-6 lead…Played extensively for the 1st time at Minnesota (12/28),. He replaced Manning to start the 2nd half and completed 8 of 11 passes for 110 yards with 1 touchdown and no interceptions…Also had 3 rushes for 15 yards…Threw 2nd touchdown pass of the season, a 23-yarder touchdown to Domenik Hixon…A 27-yard pass to Moss was his season-long and helped set John Carney's 20-yard field goal.
- In 2007, Carr played in 6 games with 4 starts for Carolina and completed 73 of 136 passes (53.7 percent) for 635 yards, 3 touchdowns and 5 interceptions…Added 17 carries for 59 yards on the ground.
- Started at quarterback in place of an injured Jake Delhomme at New Orleans (10/7) and completed 10-of-17 passes for 119 yards, 1 touchdown and 1 interception…Directed an 85-yard 4th quarter drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Steve Smith with 3:53 remaining to tie the game at 13…Engineered his 11th career game winning drive and 1st with Carolina, directing the team 21 yards on 8 plays in 2:14 and completing both of his pass attempts for 17 yards to set up a 52-yard John Kasay field goal as time expired.
- Started at Tennessee (11/4) and completed 15 of 27 attempts for 107 yards, 1 touchdown and 1 interception…His 18-yard touchdown pass to Drew Carter in the 4th quarter was his 3rd scoring strike of the season.
- In 2006, started all 16 games for the 3rd consecutive season with Houston…Completed a career-high 302 passes (in 442 attempts) for 2,767 yards, 11 touchdowns and 12 interceptions for a passer rating of 82.1…Led the NFL with a career-best 68.3 completion percentage…Carried 53 times for 195 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Produced 8th-career game-winning drive vs. Miami (10/1) when he drove the offense 70 yards in 10 plays, completing all 4 passes for 46 yards and scoring the winning touchdown on a 1-yard run on the 1st play of the 4th quarter.
- Tied NFL single-game record with 22 consecutive completions vs. Buffalo (11/19, a mark previously achieved by Washington quarterback Mark Brunell vs. Houston (9/24)…Completed 25 of 30 for 223 yards with 1 interception.
- Threw for a season-high 321 yards, 1 touchdown and 1 interception while completing 39 of 54 passes (both career-high totals) at the Jets (11/26)…It was his 4th career 300-yard passing game and the 3rd-highest total of his career, surpassed only by 372 yards vs. Minnesota (10/10/04) and 371 yards at Tennessee (10/12/03).
- In 2005, started all 16 games…Completed 256 of 423 passes (60.5 percent) for 2,488 yards, 14 touchdowns, 11 interceptions and a passer rating of 77.2…Led all AFC quarterbacks in rushing with a career-high 308 yards and 1 touchdown on 56 attempts…Sacked 68 times, the 3d-highest single season total in NFL history behind the 76 sacks of Carr in 2002 and 72 sacks of Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham in 1986.
- Carr completed a season-high 25 passes on 34 attempts for 293 yards, 3 touchdowns and 1 interception for a season-high rating of 116.4 vs. St. Louis (11/27)…The 3 touchdown passes matched his career best, previously accomplished vs. Minnesota (10/10/04).

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 5th round (160th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Tough, durable and versatile offensive lineman has started all 103 regular season and postseason games since he joined the Giants as a 5th-round draft choice in 2003. Diehl is the 1st Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978 to start all 96 regular season games in his 1st 6 seasons.
- Has played right guard, right tackle, left guard and left tackle for the Giants.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started all 96 regular season games and 7 postseason games the Giants have played since joining the team in 2003…Diehl is the only player selected in the 2003 NFL Draft to start every game in the previous 6 seasons. He is 1 of the 6 players who entered the league in 2003 and have since played in every regular season game. The others are Brendon Ayonbadejo, Josh Brown, Derrick Dockery, Visanthe Shiancoe and Terrell Suggs…Diehl is 1 of the 63 NFL players who have played in every game since the start of the 2003 season.
- Diehl's 96 consecutive regular season starts are the longest current streak on the Giants. Eli Manning is 2nd with 71 starts in a row. Entering the 2009 season, Diehl's 96 consecutive starts are tied for the 9th longest streak among active offensive linemen.
- Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie, 16 at right tackle in 2004, 15 games at left guard and 1 game at right tackle in 2005, 15 games at left guard and 1 at left tackle in 2006 and 16 games at left tackle in 2007 and 2008.
- In 2008, Diehl was selected to the All-NFC team by the Pro Football Writers Association….He was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 1st downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Diehl and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
With the line opening holes, the Giants rushed for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total Giants history.
- Diehl and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, Diehl started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games at left tackle. Diehl was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants score 373 points (the 5th-highest total in franchise history) and compile 321 1st downs (the 4th-highest total by a Giants team) and 5,302 yards (7th in team history). The line's blocking enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game.
- Diehl and the line allowed just 4 total sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 30-Oct. 28.

- Made his 65th consecutive start for the Giants offensive line in the season opener at Dallas (9/9)…Started at left tackle and provided enough pass protection for Eli Manning to amass 312 passing yards on 28 of 41 passes and 4 touchdowns.
- Giants offensive line allowed 1 sack at Atlanta (10/15) and provided enough protection for the Giants offense to gain a season–high 491 yards of total offense.
- In the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20) the offensive line allowed 2 sacks but provided enough blocking and protection for the Giants to gain 380 yards of total offense.
- In 2006, Diehl started the 1st 15 games at left guard before shifting to tackle for the regular season finale and the NFC Wild Card Game. Started at left tackle at Washington (12/30), where the line allowed 1 sack and provided enough run blocking for the Giants to rush for 261 rushing yards, including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber…Also played left guard in the game after Grey Ruegamer was sidelined temporarily in the 1st half with a leg laceration.
- Started at left tackle in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)…Run blocking helped the Giants gain 151 yards on 31 rushes.
- In 2005, started 15 games (plus the NFC Wild Card Game) at left guard and 1 at right tackle. The line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards…Pass blocking helped Manning to pass for a 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- Blocking at left guard helped Barber rush for 203 yards, including at franchise-best 95-yard touchdown run, at Oakland (12/31).
- Started at right tackle in place of Kareem McKenzie vs. Kansas City (12/17) and line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a then-team record 220 yards.
- Started at left guard at Philadelphia (12/11), but moved to right tackle when McKenzie was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter due to injury. Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided enough blocking and protection for the Giants to gain 437 yards of total offense.
- In 2004, Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle. He missed a snap for the 1st time in his career when he left the game for a play in the 4th quarter with a cut below the eye at Green Bay (10/3). Returned to the game and helped the Giants rush for 245 yards.
- In 2003, Diehl played right guard and became the 1st Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985…Was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games…Was 1 of only 3 offensive linemen on the roster to see action in all 16 games, was 1 of only 2 to start every game during the year and was the only to start at the same position each game during the 2003 season.

COLLEGE:
- Second-team All-Big Ten Conference selection as a senior in 2002.
- Recipient of the Wright Commitment to Excellence Award, presented to the Illinois player who has dedicated himself to academic excellence despite obstacles faced during his collegiate career.
- As a senior, started every game at left guard, registering 91 knockdowns for an offense that featured its 1st 1,000-yard rusher (Antoineo Harris) and 1,000-yard receiver (Brandon Lloyd) in the same season since 1984. Helped offense total 5,356 yards.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:
- David and his wife, Nicole, donated $350,000 for a new weight room at their alma mater, the University of Illinois.
- David and fellow lineman Rich Seubert have taken a special interest in the Ronald McDonald House of New York City, a temporary home for seriously ill children and their families to reside while undergoing treatment in area hospitals. Together, they serve as Co-Chairs of the "Meet the Giants" fundraiser. This annual event is held to raise funds for the Giants Room on the Sports Floor of the Ronald McDonald House located in New York City. In 2007, they also created the 1st annual summer cookout at the house, bringing many players over for a day of barbeque and board games in the sun.

VETERANS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Signed as a rookie free agent by the New England Patriots on May 1, 1988…Waived by the Patriots on May 24, 1990…Awarded to the Philadelphia Eagles off waivers on June 5, 1990…Signed by the Phoenix Cardinals as a free agent on March 2, 1994…Signed by the Seattle Seahawks as a free agent on March 4, 1998…Signed by the Giants as a free agent on March 7, 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:

- One of the finest, most durable and most consistent punters in NFL history…Since entering the NFL with New England in 1988, he has not missed a single game, playing in a league-record 336 consecutive regular season contests, plus 11 postseason games.
- Feagles' 336 regular season games played is the 4th-highest total in NFL history, behind Morten Andersen (368), Gary Anderson (353) and George Blanda (340).
- On Nov. 27, 2005 at Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, surpassing former Cleveland and Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall's record of 282 consecutive games streak from 1960-79.
- At 42 years old, was the NFL's 2nd oldest player in 2008. The only player who was older was his then-teammate, 44-year-old kicker John Carney.
- Was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1995 and 2008 seasons. The 13-year gap between Pro Bowls was the 2nd-longest in history. Only Carney's 14-year hiatus was longer. Carney and Feagles were the 2 oldest players ever selected to the Pro Bowl.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in all 336 regular season games and 11 postseason games since entering the NFL in 1988.
- Feagles' 1,649 punts, 68,607 yards and 531 punts inside the 20-yard line are all NFL records. He has placed at least 20 punts inside the 20 in 19 consecutive seasons.
- Has a career gross average of 41.6 yards and a career net average of 35.9 yards.
- Feagles' totals with the Giants included 449 punts, 18,559 yards and 155 punts inside the 20 (15 shy of Dave Jennings' team record).
- Has punted 10 times in a game 3 times and 9 times in a game 11 times…His single-game personal best is 466 yards for Seattle vs. Philadelphia on 9/23/01…Had a career-best average of 52.8 yards (minimum 4 punts) for Philadelphia vs. Dallas on 10/5/92.
- In 2008, Feagles played in all 16 regular season games for the 21st consecutive season. He had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts, the 3rd-lowest total of his career. The net average was a career high and enabled him to realize a long-held goal of having a 40-yard net average for a full season. It had never been done in the NFL until the 2007 season. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his 1st Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and was just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year.

- Punted 6 times for a season-high 48.8-yard gross average and a 45.5-yard net average while placing 3 kicks inside the 20 vs. San Francisco (10/19)…Had a 47.9-yard gross average and a 43.0-yard net average on seven punts at Dallas (12/14)…Finished with a season-best 45.8-yard net average on 4 punts at Minnesota (12/28).
- In the 2007 regular season, Feagles punted 71 times and had a 40.4-yard gross average, a 36.0-yard net average and left 25 kicks inside the 20-yard line…Averaged a season-high 48.3 yards on 6 punts at Detroit (11/18)…Had his busiest day vs. Washington (12/16) with 7 punts for a 34.1-yard average.
- In 2006, Feagles performed with his typical consistency, punting 77 times for a 40.2-yard gross average and a 37.0-yard net average and dropping 27 punts inside the 20…Punted 3 times for 48.7 gross average and a 46.3 net average with one landing inside the 20 and a long punt of 54 yards at Dallas (10/23).
- In 2005, he booted 73 punts for a 42.1-yard gross average and a 37.0-yard net average.
- Selected NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after posting a 44.7-yard gross average and a 39.7-yard net average on 6 punts vs. Dallas (12/4). Feagles twice pinned the Cowboys inside their 5-yard line.
- In 2004, posted a 41.5-yard gross average and a 34.6-yard net average on 74 punts…Punted 4 times vs. Cleveland (9/26), when his gross and net averages were both 35.0 yards, with a long of 45 yards. All 4 punts landed inside the 20 with three inside the 10. The 4 Cleveland drives that began after a Feagles' punt started at the Browns' 14, 4, 10 and 8-yard line.
- Punted 5 times for a 42.6-yard average and a net average of 28.6 yards with a long of 49 yards and 1 touchback in the season-opener at Philadelphia (9/12). Took a vicious shot to the helmet by Eagles' LB Jeremiah Trotter, who was not penalized. Remained on the ground for several minutes and though trainers called for a cart, he walked off the field and remained in the game.
- In 2003, his 1st season with the Giants, Feagles finished 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line (Houston's Chad Stanley led the league with 32).
- In 2002, finished 5th in the NFC and 6th in the NFL with a 37.0 net punting average kicking for Seattle…Gross average was 41.7 yards on career-low 61 punts…Placed 22 punts inside the 20 and had only 4 touchbacks…
- Played his finest game of the 2002 season for Seattle at the Giants (9/22), punting 6 times for a season-high 47.8-yard average and dropping 3 kicks inside the 20, including 2 inside the 10.
- In 2001, Feagles was 4th in the NFL with a 43.9-yard gross average.
- In 2000, became 1 of only 10 punters in NFL history with at least 1,000 punts and 200 games played…In the season finale vs. Buffalo (12/23), he passed Ray Guy for most consecutive games played by a punter with 208.
- In 1999, set a Seahawks record and was 3rd in the NFL with 34 punts inside the 20-yard line…Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December, when he had 11 of 25 punts downed inside the 20, including 6 versus Kansas City (12/26)…Led the NFL with 40.5 percent (34 of 84) of his punts downed inside the 20.
- In 1997 with Arizona, finished 4th in the NFC with a career-high 44.3-yard gross average.
- Led the NFC with a 38.2-yard net average and earned his 1st trip to the Pro Bowl in 1995…Was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his 48.3-yard average in a 40-37 overtime victory vs. Atlanta (11/26).
- Joined the Cardinals as a free agent prior to the 1994 season and led the NFL with 98 punts…Earned All-Pro mention by USA Today…Led the NFC and set a team record with 33 punts inside the 20…Had a 40.8-yard gross average and a 36.0-yard net average.
- Gained 6 yards for a 1st down on a fake field goal vs. the Giants (11/21/93).
- In 1992, led the NFC with 26 punts inside 20.
- Earned All-Rookie honors in 1988 after averaging 38.3 gross yards and 34.1 net yards on 91 punts for New England…Finished 3rd in the AFC with 24 punts inside the 20…Had the league's longest punt, a 74-yarder versus Indianapolis (10/2).

- Jacobs has 2,620 yards career rushing yards, which is the 10th-highest total in Giants history.
- Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards in 2008 after running for 1,009 yards in 2007 to become the 4th running back in Giants history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in at least 2 consecutive seasons. The others were Joe Morris (1985-86), Rodney Hampton (1991-95) and Tiki Barber (2002-2006).
- Jacobs and Derrick Ward (1,025 yards) became the 4th pair of running backs from the same team – and the 5th set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.
- When Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 he became the 1st Giants back other than Barber to rush for more than 1,000 yards since Gary Brown in 1998 (1,063).
- Has rushed for at least 100 yards 9 times in the regular season. The Giants are 8-1 in those games.
- Was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October 2007.
- In 2005, he became the 1st Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since 1984.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Jacobs has played in 55 regular season games with 22 starts and played in 7 postseason games with 5 starts…In the regular season, he has rushed for 2,620 yards on 555 carries (a 4.7-yard avg.) and 35 touchdowns. His 35 rushing touchdowns tie him with Ottis Anderson for 5th on the Giants' career list…Jacobs has 40 receptions for 359 yards and 2 scores.
- In postseason play, Jacobs has rushed for 297 yards on 83 carries (a 3.6-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns and added 4 catches for 29 yards and a score.
- In 2008, he started all 13 regular season games in which he played and started the NFC Divisional Game vs. Philadelphia…Jacobs finished the regular season with 1,089 yards on 219 carries (a 5.0-yard avg.) and a career-high 15 touchdowns...He also caught 6 passes for 36 yards…Missed 3 games due to knee injury (at Arizona 11/23, at Dallas 12/14 and at Minnesota 12/28/08).
- His 15 touchdowns made him just the 2nd player in Giants history to rush for at least 15 touchdowns in a season. Joe Morris ran for a team-record 21 scores in 1985. Jacobs' 15 touchdowns tied for 3rd in the NFL with the Jets' Thomas Jones and Tennessee's LenDale White. DeAngelo Williams was 1st with 20, followed by Michael Turner with 17.
- Ran for 73 yards on 11 carries with 2 touchdowns vs. Baltimore (11/16), to help the Giants rush for 207 yards against the NFL's No. 1 run defense, which had allowed an average of 65.4 rushing yards a game and not more than 76 yards in any game… It was the Giants' 3rd consecutive 200-yard game…Jacobs' 2 touchdowns came in the 1st quarter on 1-yard runs and increased his season total to a career-high 11, two more than he had in 2006. He became the 1st Giant to score double-digit touchdowns since Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdowns passes in 2006 and the 1st to run for at least 10 scores since Barber ran for 13 in 2004. It was the 11th time in Giants history a player reached double digits in rushing touchdowns in a season…Had a career-long 44-yard run vs. Seattle (10/5).
- Had a career-high 3 rushing touchdowns vs. Carolina (12/21), to become the 1st Giant to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Burress caught 3 touchdown passes at Dallas on Sept. 9, 2007 and the 1st to run for 3 scores since Barber did it at Washington on Dec. 30, 2006.
- In 2007, he played in 11 regular season games with 9 starts and started all 4 postseason games. Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards and 4 touchdowns on 202 carries, despite missing 5 games and most of a 6th with knee and hamstring injuries. Jacobs was the 1st Giants back other than Barber to rush for more than 1,000 yards since Gary Brown in 1998 (1,063)…Rushed for at least 100 yards 5 times.
- Jacobs combined with Burress (1,025 receiving yards) to give the Giants a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the 7th time in their history.
- During the 2007 postseason, Jacobs rushed for a touchdown in each of the Giants' 1st 2 postseason victories and became the 1st Giant to run for a touchdown in consecutive postseason games since Ottis Anderson on Jan. 25, 1987 (Super Bowl XXI) and Jan. 7, 1990 (NFC Divisional Playoff Game)…Jacobs scored the Giants' 1st 2 touchdowns at Tampa Bay on a 5-yard pass from Eli Manning and an 8-yard run to become the 1st Giant in history to score a rushing and a receiving touchdown in the same postseason game…Jacobs was the 1st Giants running back to catch a touchdown pass in a postseason game since fullback Greg Comella in the 2000 NFC Championship Game. Prior to that, the last Giants back with a postseason touchdown catch was Leon Bright at Philadelphia on Dec. 27, 1981.
- Missed 3 games in September 2007 with a knee injury suffered on opening night in Dallas, where he rushed for 26 yards on 6 carries.
- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October 2007, when the Giants were 4-0, scored an NFC-high 112 points and led the NFL with 705 rushing yards. Jacobs – and the offensive line that opened the holes for him – were key components to that success…Jacobs led the league with 424 rushing yards during the month. He set career highs 3 times with the 1st 3 100-yard games of his career. Jacobs averaged 5.7 yards on his 74 carries, caught 6 passes for 24 yards and scored 2 touchdowns in October.

- Returned to action after missing 3-plus games with a knee injury and rushed for 100 yards on 20 carries, including a 19-yard touchdown vs. Jets (10/07). It was the 1st 100-yard game of his career. Jacobs became the 1st Giant other than Tiki Barber to rush for 100 yards since Ron Dayne ran for 111 yards against New Orleans on Sept. 30, 2001. Barber had the Giants' previous 37 100-yard rushing games (including 1 in the postseason).
- Missed games vs. Minnesota (11/25) and at Chicago (12/2) with a hamstring injury.
- Finished with a career-high 145 yards on 24 carries with 2 touchdowns at Buffalo (12/23)…Scored twice in the 2nd quarter, on runs of 6 and 43 yards, then the longest run of his career… Helped the Giants rush for 289 yards, their highest total since they rushed for 289 yards on Dec. 21, 1985 in a 28-10 victory over Pittsburgh…Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for 151 yards and a touchdown to give the Giants 2 100-yard rushers in the same game for the 1st time in their history. The Giants became the 1st team to have two runners with 140 or more yards in the same game since Nov. 11, 2001, when St. Louis' Marshall Faulk ran for 183 yards and Trung Canidate added 145 in a game against Carolina.
- In 2006, Jacobs played in 15 games (he suited up but did not play vs. New Orleans) and the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia…Finished the season with 97 carries for 432 yards and a team-best 9 rushing touchdowns…Added 11 receptions for 149 yards, with a long catch of 43 yards.
- Had 5 carries for 29 yards and 2 receptions for 52 yards vs. Dallas (12/3)…Career-long 43 yard reception in the 4th quarter and helped set up Jay Feely's 22-yard field goal to tie the game at 13-13.
- Scored touchdowns on runs of 1 and 8 yards on his only 2 carries of the game vs. Chicago (11/12).
- As a rookie in 2005, played in all 16 games…Was used primarily in short-yardage and goal-line situations and on special teams…Finished with 38 carries for 99 yards and 7 touchdowns, with a long run of 21 yards…Converted 20 of 32 opportunities on rushing attempts of 4 or less yards to go.
- Jacobs was the 1st Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the 1st to rush for 7 touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.
- Scored touchdowns in each of his 1st 2 games, the 1st Giants rookie to accomplish that feat since Barber in 1997. Scored on a 5-yard vs. Arizona (9/11) and a 1-yard run at New Orleans (9/19).
- Carried 6 times for season-high 39 yards and a touchdown in his NFL debut vs. the Cardinals.

COLLEGE:

- Played at 3 schools: Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College, Auburn and Southern Illinois. In 42 games at the 3 stops, he rushed for 4,003 yards with 52 touchdowns on 595 carries (6.7-yard avg.), caught 12 passes for 136 yards (11.3-yard avg.) and returned 6 kickoffs for 140 yards (23.3-yard avg.).
- Jacobs was perhaps the most highly-touted transfer in Southern Illinois history. He joined fellow transfers Terry Jackson (Minnesota) and Arkee Whitlock (Coffeyville) to form one of the most explosive backfields in college football, one that accounted for 42 of the team's 65 touchdowns and 3,404 of the squad's 6,032 yards in total offense in 2004, his only season with the Salukis.
- Began his collegiate career in 2001 at Coffeyville, where he rushed for 927 yards and 13 touchdowns on 130 carries (7.1-yard avg.) in 10 regular season games, then added 422 yards and 4 scores in playoff action en route to being named to the All-Jayhawk Conference team. The following year, Jacobs led the conference in rushing with 1,638 yards and 17 touchdowns on 243 carries (6.7-yard avg.), and added another 258 yards and 3 scores on 24 carries in the playoffs.
- In 2003 at Auburn, when he shared time at halfback with Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams, who became 2 of the top 9 picks in the 2005 draft. He was 2nd on the team with 72 carries for 446 yards (6.2-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns.
- Hoping to get an opportunity for more playing time, Jacobs again transferred, this time to Southern Illinois. In his one season there, Jacobs rushed for 922 yards and 19 touchdowns on 150 carries, averages of 6.6 yards a carry and 122.1 yards a game.

BRANDON JACOBS AND DERRICK WARD

Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards (despite missing three games with a knee injury) and Ward ran for 1,025. They were the fourth pair of running backs - and the fifth set of teammates - to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season:

YEAR/TEAM	PLAYERS	RUSHING YARDAGE
1972 Dolphins	Larry Csonka	1,117
	Mercury Morris	1,000
1976 Steelers	Franco Harris	1,128

1985 Browns	Kevin Mack	1,104
	Earnest Byner	1,002
2006 Falcons	Warrick Dunn	1,140
	Michael Vick	1,039
2008 Giants	Brandon Jacobs	1,089
	Derrick Ward	1,025

Vick was a quarterback

Jacobs and Ward rushed for a combined 2,114 yards in 2008, the fourth-highest total by a running back tandem.

TEAM/RUNNING BACKS	YARDS
Carolina Panthers DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart	2,351
Minnesota Vikings Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor	2,159

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed by the Giants as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2006…Waived by the Giants on Sept. 2, 2006…Signed to the Giants practice squad on Sept. 3, 2006…Signed to Giants' 53-man roster on Dec. 26, 2006.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Johnson's 1st 2 career receptions were both 1-yard touchdowns in 2008: vs. Baltimore (11/16) and vs. Philadelphia (12/7).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 17 career games with 2 starts and has 4 receptions for 46 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- In 2008, saw action in all 16 regular season games with 2 starts and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…Finished with 4 receptions for 46 yards and 2 touchdowns…Majority of his play on offense came in double tight end formations…Also made contributions on special teams.
- Finished with 1 reception for 1 yard and a touchdown vs. Baltimore (11/16)…Johnson scored the Giants' 3rd touchdown on a 1-yard pass from Manning. It was the 1st reception and 1st touchdown of his career. Johnson was the 1st Giant to score a touchdown on his initial career reception since another tight end, Marcellus Rivers, did it on Sept. 10, 2001 at Denver.
- Caught his 2nd pass of the season and of his career vs. Philadelphia (12/7), also for a 1-yard touchdown. The last Giant to score touchdowns on each of his 1st 2 career catches was Rivers in 2001.
- Saw the most extensive playing time of his career on offense in the season finale at Minnesota (12/28)…Started and finished with 2 receptions for 44 yards, including a season-long 26 yarder.
- Played in double tight end formations and had 1 catch for 13 yards in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia (1/11).
- In 2007, was placed on injured reserve on Aug. 17 after suffering a knee injury in a 1-on-1 drill 3 days earlier.
- In 2006, spent the 1st 16 weeks of the season on the Giants' practice squad before being signed to the 53-man roster just prior to the season finale…Saw his 1st career regular season action at Washington (12/30) and then played in NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7). Played on offense in double tight end formations, but did not have any receptions.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 48 games with 35 starts at Central Florida…Caught 81 passes for 919 yards (11.3-yard avg.) and scored 6 touchdowns while recording 14 tackles (8 solo) on special teams…Also had a 22-yard kickoff return…Earned All-Conference USA 2nd-team honors in 2005 as a senior. Ranked 3rd on the squad with 36 catches for 435 yards (12.1-yard avg.) and 2 touchdowns.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Attended David Tyree's annual "All-Pro Bowling Classic" to raise operating funds for his Next in Line program and The International Children's Support Foundation, a non-profit charity that helps in-need children around the world.
- Attended the Giants Kickoff Luncheon benefitting St. Vincent's Medical Center.
- Attended David Tyree's Next in Line Fundraiser Dinner.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick and 2005 1st and 5th-round picks.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL…Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft, is a 3-time NFL Most Valuable Player and was the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI.
- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands. It was the 22nd time in Super Bowl history a quarterback was named MVP and the 2nd year in a row a Manning won the award.
- Manning was the 27th different starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and the 2nd Manning. Peyton led the Indianapolis Colts to the title in 2006. The Mannings are the 18th set of brothers to play in the Super Bowl and the 1st pair of brothers to play quarterback.
- Manning joined Phil Simms in Super Bowl XXI and Ottis Anderson in Super Bowl XXV as Giants who have won the Super Bowl MVP award.
- Manning was the 7th quarterback taken with the 1st overall selection in the NFL Draft to start a Super Bowl. The others are Terry Bradshaw (4-0 in Super Bowls), Jim Plunkett (2-0), John Elway (2-3), Troy Aikman (3-0), Drew Bledsoe (0-1) and Peyton Manning (1-0). The former No. 1 choices are 13-4 in Super Bowls.
- Manning was the 4th starting quarterback for the Giants in their 4 Super Bowls. The others were Phil Simms, Jeff Hostetler and Kerry Collins. The Giants are the 1st team to start a different quarterback in each of their 1st 4 Super Bowls. Only 2 other teams have started 4 different quarterbacks in a Super Bowl, though not in the franchise's 1st 4 games. The Raiders started Daryle Lamonica, Ken Stabler, Jim Plunkett and Rich Gannon. Washington's 4 Super Bowl quarterbacks were Billy Kilmer, Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien.
- Manning was the 1st quarterback to wear No. 10 and win a Super Bowl. The only other starting quarterback to wear No. 10 in a Super Bowl was Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton in Super Bowls VIII, IX and XI.
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Record as a starting quarterback is 42-29 in the regular season and 4-3 in the postseason. The 42 victories are the 2nd-most by a Giants quarterback in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976). Simms won 95 games from 1979-93. Manning is 32-20 against the NFC and 10-9 vs. the AFC. Manning is 16-11 in NFC East games. He is 21-15 at home and 21-14 on the road.
- Manning has started the Giants' last 71 regular season games, the 3rd-longest streak among active quarterbacks at the conclusion of the 2008 season. Brett Favre had started 269 consecutive games and Peyton Manning had started 176 games in a row.
- Manning's 71 consecutive starts is a record for Giants quarterbacks. The previous mark of 69 starts in a row was set by Tarkenton from 1967-71.
- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 4 consecutive seasons and the 1st to throw at least 20 touchdown passes 4 years in a row. Manning is 1 of 4 quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards in every season since 2005. The others are Drew Brees, Brett Favre and Peyton Manning. He is 1 of 3 quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in each of the last 4 seasons, joining Brees and Peyton Manning.
- Played in his 1st Pro Bowl following the 2008 season to become the 1st Giants quarterback to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Phil Simms in 1993.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 73 regular season games with starts in his last 71 appearances and has started all 7 postseason games in which he's played. In the regular season, Manning has completed 1,276 of 2,284 pass attempts (55.9 percent) for 14,623 yards with 98 touchdowns, 74 interceptions, a long pass of 78 yards and a career passer rating of 76.1. He is 4th in franchise history in attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns…Thirty of his 98 touchdown passes (31 percent) were in the 4th quarter or overtime.
- Manning's 194 career postseason passes, 113 completions and 1,297 yards leave him 2nd on the franchise's playoff lists in all 3 categories. He trails Simms, who threw 279 passes and had 157 completions and 1,679 yards. Manning's 8 postseason touchdown passes leave him 3rd, behind Simms (10) and Collins (9).
- In 2008, Manning started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…He led the Giants to their 2nd NFC East championship in his 4 full seasons as a starter and their 4th consecutive postseason berth, a franchise record. Only 1 other QB has led his team to the playoffs in each of the last 4 seasons – Peyton Manning.

- Manning completed 289 of 479 passes (60.3 percent) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were career highs. It was the 1st time since Manning's rookie season in 2004 – when he started just 9 games – that he did not throw at least 500 passes. The 10 interceptions are his lowest total since he threw 9 as a rookie and were half his 2007 total.

- Manning twice had single-game career high passer ratings. On Sept. 14 in St. Louis, he completed 20 of 29 passes for 260 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 131.4. Three weeks later vs. Seattle, Manning completed 19 of 25 passes for 267 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 136.6, the highest of his career, including both regular season and postseason games. His previous best in any game had been a 132.4 rating in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13.

- When Manning's 4th pass at Cleveland (10/13) was intercepted by safety Brodney Pool it ended a streak of 108 consecutive throws without a pick, the 2nd-longest streak of his career. He threw 124 passes without an interception from Sept. 11 to Oct. 16, 2005, a streak ended by Dallas' Anthony Henry.

- Manning completed 21 of 34 passes for 305 yards, a touchdown and an interception at Washington (11/30). It was his 1st 300-yard game since Oct. 15, 2007 at Atlanta and the 7th 300-yard game of Manning's career. Every one of them has been on the road. The Giants are 4-3 in games in which Manning throws for at least 300 yards.

- Manning was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November and Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.

- In 2007, Manning started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games…Completed 297 of 529 passes for 3,336 yards, 23 touchdowns and 20 interceptions. The 3,336 passing yards were the 2nd-highest total of his career, and the 23 touchdown passes were 1 less than he threw in each of the previous 2 seasons.

- In 4 postseason games, Manning completed 72 of 119 passes (60.5 percent) for 854 yards, 6 touchdowns and 1 interception.

- Tied a career high – and set a new personal best in a road game - by throwing 4 touchdown passes while completing 28 of 41 throws for 312 yards at Dallas (9/9). Three of the scoring passes went to Burress, the other to Derrick Ward…Manning's 60-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 1st quarter was the 3rd-longest of his career. He threw a 78-yarder to Burress at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005 and a 61-yarder to Burress vs. Philadelphia on Nov. 20, 2005…Left the game in the 4th quarter with a bruised shoulder…Despite the injury, Manning started the next week vs. Green Bay.

- Led the Giants to their 1st victory of the season at Washington (9/23), where he completed 21 of 36 passes, including the game-winning 33-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.

- Manning threw a career high-tying 4 touchdown passes vs. New England (12/29). Two of the scores went to Burress and 1 each to Brandon Jacobs and Kevin Boss…Completed 22 of 32 passes for 251 yards and 1 interception for a passer rating of 118.6.

- Opened postseason play by completing 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions in NFC Wild Card Game victory at Tampa Bay (1/6)…Became the 5th Giants QB to win a postseason game in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976), joining Simms, Jeff Hostetler, Collins and Scott Brunner.

- Completed 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns to Amani Toomer in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)…Manning's rating of 132.4 was then the highest of his career…His 52-yard touchdown pass to Toomer was his longest postseason completion…Successfully engineered a 2-minute drive to the 2nd quarter by completing 4 pass for 56 yards on a 7-play 71-yard drive in just 46 seconds that resulted in a 4-yard touchdown pass to Toomer to tie the game at 14-14 at halftime.

- Played another turnover-free game and set career postseason highs with 40 passes and 21 completions while throwing for 251 yards in the NFC Championship Game victory in Green Bay (1/20)…Increased his streak to 101 consecutive postseason passes without an interception.

- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 for a career postseason-high 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands the Giants' victory over the New England Patriots…Led the Giants on their game-winning 4th quarter drive by completing 5 of 9 passes for 77 yards and a 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress. The most memorable play on the drive was a 32-yard completion to David Tyree, who secured the ball against his helmet after Manning eluded the grasp of numerous Patriots defensive lineman…Threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Tyree early in the 4th quarter that was set up by passes of 45 yards pass to Kevin Boss and 17 yards to Steve Smith…Manning was intercepted by cornerback Ellis Hobbs with 11:53 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' 1st offensive turnover in their 4-game postseason. The offense had gone 34 possessions and run 213 plays without turning over the ball. The previous turnover had been in the regular season finale against the Patriots – also an interception by Hobbs of a Manning pass. Manning had thrown 103 consecutive passes without an interception, including 95 in the postseason. He had thrown 111 postseason passes in a row without a pick…Manning threw 2 interceptions in the Giants' last 5 games and Hobbs had both of them.

- In 2006, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game…Completed a career-high 301 of 522 regular season passes for 3,244 yards, 24 touchdowns (tying his career best), 18 interceptions and 77.0 QB rating…His 522 pass attempts were the 6th-highest total in Giants history. The 301 completions topped the 294 completions he had in 2005, his 1st full season as a starter. It was the 4th season in history that the Giants had a quarterback complete 300 passes. Kerry Collins had the other 3: 335 in 2002, 327 in 2001 and 311 in 2000…Manning's 24 touchdown passes matched his 2005 total and left him tied for 4th in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger…Manning was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Simms did it 3 years in a row from 1984-86

- Completed a career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for a career-high 371 yards with 3 touchdowns and 1 interception for a QB rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)…In overtime, Manning completed 8-of-8 passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.

- Finished with 17 completions on 33 attempts for 172 yards with 3 touchdowns, 0 interceptions, a long pass of 45 yards and a QB rating of 97.0 at Carolina (12/10)…Game long 45-yard pass to Burress was followed by a 28-yard touchdown pass to the same receiver in the 2nd quarter…Threw a season-long 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress vs. New Orleans (12/24).
- Finished with 16 completions on 27 attempts for 161 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)…The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress…Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.
- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game in his 1st full season as the starting quarterback…Led the Giants to the NFC East championship…Completed 294 of 557 passes for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns, 17 interceptions, a long completion of 78 yards and a QB rating of 75.9. The pass attempts and passing yardage were career highs…The 557 passes thrown was the 2nd-highest total in team history. Kerry Collins threw 568 passes in 2001…Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.
- Completed 12 of 24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a victory at Oakland (12/31) that clinched the division title…Threw a career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress.
- Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter at Philadelphia (12/11), the 1st rushing touchdown of Manning's career and the 1st by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).
- Threw a career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64.
- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23). Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8 of 13 passes for 68 yards.
- Completed 19 of 35 passes for 296 yards and 4 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2) to become the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis (12/22/02). Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03).
- Played in 9 games as a rookie in 2004, including starts in the final 7 games…Rookie record as a starter was 1-6…Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.
- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas. Completed 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5. Threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.
- Completed 16 of 23 passes for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yarder to Shockey.
- Made his 1st NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Shockey. Coincidently, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998…Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the team when the stadium opened in 1976). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner…Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft since 1970, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.
- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. Completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd round (95th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2008.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Talented receiver that will compete for more playing time in his 2nd season…His development as a rookie was slowed due to injuries suffered in training camp.

CAREER NOTES:
- Played in 8 games as a rookie and contributed 4 receptions for 26 yards, 1 rush for a 12-yard loss and 2 special teams tackles…Suffered a quad injury that forced him to miss the majority of training camp.
- Made his regular season debut vs. Seattle (10/5) and finished with 1 reception for 4 yards…Saw extensive playing time at wide receiver in the 2nd half at Minnesota (12/28) and had 2 receptions for 21 yards.

COLLEGE:
- Played in 34 games with 24 starts for the Wolverines…In 3 years, he caught 137 passes for 2,310 yards (16.9-yard average) and 27 touchdowns…Ranks 4th in school history with 27 touchdown catches…His 2,310 yards receiving rank 5th in University of Michigan history…Manningham's 137 receptions placed him 9th on the Wolverine all-time record list…Scored 12 times on receptions in 2007, the 6th-best season total in school history…Manningham's 72 receptions in 2007 placed him 6th on UM's season-record list and his 1,174 yards receiving in 2007 rank 2nd in school annals behind Braylon Edwards' 1,330 yards in 2004…Set a school record with 6 straight 100-yard receiving games in 2007 (vs. Northwestern, Purdue, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan State and Wisconsin), breaking Edwards' old mark of four (both in 2003 and '04)…His 3 touchdown catches vs. Notre Dame in 2006 were 1 shy of the school record of 4…With his 106 yards gained receiving vs. Wisconsin in 2005, Manningham joined Toomer (1992), John Kolesar (1985), Carter (1979) and Dick Rifenburg (1944) as the only true freshmen in Michigan history to gain 100 receiving yards in a game…His 97-yard touchdown catch vs. Wisconsin in 2007 set a school record, topping the previous long of 90 yards by Alexander vs. Illinois in 1993…That 97-yarder was the 4th-longest reception in Big Ten history, ranking behind 99-yard catches by Thomas Lewis of Indiana (vs. Penn State, 1993), Vinny Sutherland of Purdue (vs. Northwestern, 1999) and Lee Evans of Wisconsin (vs. Akron, 2003).

PERSONAL:
- Attended Warren G. Harding (Warren, Oh.) High School…Parade All-America, All-State, All-District and All-Conference selection as a junior and senior…Rated 12th on the Detroit Free Press "Best of the Midwest" list and was a 4-star prospect that was ranked the 5th-best receiver nationally and 3rd-best prospect in Ohio by Rivals.com…College Football News rated Manningham as the 6th-best wide receiver and 43rd player overall in the country…Named Prep Star's Dream Team as the 6th-rated receiver prospect in the nation and was named the 7th-best receiver prospect by Student Sports Hot 100 recruits…Started the last 2 years of his 3-year career…Had 105 catches for 1,883 yards and 24 touchdowns in his final 2 seasons and also contributed 4 interceptions at cornerback during his career…Also lettered in basketball, earning honorable mention All-State his senior year…The 3-year varsity letter-winner averaged 17 points as a senior after posting a career-best 21-point average his junior year, gaining All-District and All-Conference honors during his final 2 years….General Studies major, enrolled in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts...Cousin, Bubba Paris, was an All-America offensive tackle at Michigan (1979-82) and earned 3 Super Bowl rings while playing on the offensive line for the San Francisco 49ers (1983-90) and finished his career in 1991 with the Indianapolis Colts…Born Mario Cashmere Manningham on May 25, 1986.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Washington Redskins on April 22, 2001…Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 3, 2005.

GIANTS NOTES:

- In 2006, Pierce became the 1st Giants linebacker to play in the Pro Bowl since Jessie Armstead made a 5th consecutive appearance in 2001. Pierce and Armstead were once teammates on the Redskins and remain close friends.
- Pierce was the Giants' leading tackler in each of the last 3 seasons and a team captain the previous 2 seasons.
- Scored touchdowns on an interception return with Washington in 2004 and on a fumble recovery with the Giants in 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Pierce has played in 115 regular season games with 85 starts for the Redskins and Giants. In his 1st 4 seasons with the Giants, he started all 60 regular season games and all 6 postseason games in which he played.
- Has career totals of 732 tackles (462 solo), 8.0 sacks, 7 interceptions, 8 forced fumbles and 11 fumble recoveries. With the Giants he has 486 tackles (291 solo), 6.0 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries and 4 interceptions…Pierce has 44 postseason tackles (28 solo).
- In 2008, Pierce started all 15 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…Did not play vs. San Francisco (10/20) because of a quad injury…Led the Giants in tackles for the 3rd consecutive season with 113 (54 solo). Also had 1.5 sacks, 3 passes defensed and 2 forced fumbles…Had a season-high 14 tackles (8 solo) vs. Philadelphia (12/7) and 12 tackles (6 solo) vs. Cincinnati (9/21)…Recorded a solo sack at St. Louis (9/14)…Forced fumbles at Pittsburgh (10/26) and vs. Dallas (11/2).
- Was 1 of the Giants' team captains for the 2008 season, with Eli Manning, Amani Toomer, Fred Robbins and Jeff Feagles.
- In 2007, Pierce started all 16 regular season and 4 postseason games…He led the Giants with 116 tackles (66 solo)…Also had 1 sack, 1 interception, 10 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries…Had a season-high 13 tackles (11 solo) vs. Green Bay (9/16)…Recorded his only sack of the season when he dropped Joey Harrington for a 10-yard loss in the 2nd quarter at Atlanta (10/15)…Had 8 tackles (5 solo) and an interception vs. San Francisco (10/21). Picked off a Trent Dilfer pass and returned it 25 yards to set up Manning's 2-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Shockey.
- Finished with a team-high 10 tackles (7 solo) in the Giants' Super Bowl XLII victory vs. New England (2/3). Was a key figure on a Giants defense that held the Patriots far below their season averages in several categories, including points (the Patriots averaged almost 37 a game in the regular season, but scored 14 in the Super Bowl); yards (New England averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl); rushing yards (the Pats averaged 115.6 in the regular season and 147 in their 1st 2 postseason games, but settled for only 45 against the Giants and did not have a run longer than 9 yards).
- Was one of the Giants' team captains for the 2007 season, with Manning, Shaun O'Hara, Michael Strahan and Feagles.
- In 2006, Pierce started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at middle linebacker…He led the Giants with 159 tackles (93 solo), 1 tackle shy of the career-high he set with Washington in 2004…Pierce also had 1 sack, 1 interception, 11 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries.
- Pierce played in his 1st Pro Bowl after Chicago's Brian Urlacher was unable to play because of an injury. He had 3 solo tackles and intercepted a Vince Young pass in the Pro Bowl…Registered 13 tackles (7 solo), 1 quarterback hurry and 2 passes defensed vs. Chicago (11/12)…Recorded his 1st interception of the season when he picked off Tony Romo's 1st attempt of the game after the ball was deflected by Michael Strahan at Dallas (10/23).
- In 2005, started all 13 games in which he played at middle linebacker and was voted a 1st alternate to the Pro Bowl in his 1st season with the Giants…Before suffering a season-ending ankle injury at Philadelphia (12/11), Pierce led the Giants with 98 tackles (78 solo) and had 2.5 sacks, 2 interceptions, a forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries, 1 of which he returned for a touchdown…Did not play in the final 3 regular season games or the NFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Carolina (1/8), yet was second on the team to Gibril Wilson in tackles.
- Finished with a team-high 7 tackles (5 solo), 1 pass defensed and a fumble recovery vs. Dallas (12/4). Scored the Giants 1st defensive touchdown of the season when he recovered a Drew Bledsoe fumble and returned it 12 yards for the score on the 1st play from scrimmage in the 3rd quarter…Recorded a team-high 11 tackles, 1 interception and 2 passes defensed vs. Washington (10/30). Intercepted his 2nd pass of the season when he picked off a Mark Brunell attempt for David Patten in the 2nd quarter.
- In 2004, started all 16 games at middle linebacker for Washington…Finished with a career-high 160 tackles (109 solo), 1 sack, 2 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble…Had a season-high 15 tackles (9 solo) and had a 4-yard sack of Kyle Boller vs. Baltimore (12/12).

- In 2003, played in 15 games with 1 start…Most of his action was on special teams…Finished 3rd on the team in special teams tackles with 18, 13 on kickoff coverage and 5 on punt coverage.
- In 2002, played in 8 games with 1 start and finished with 13 tackles (11 solo).

- Credited with 2 tackles at Washington (11/30), where he also intercepted a Jason Campbell pass for Antwaan Randle El in the 3rd quarter.
- As a rookie in 2007, played in 15 games with 9 starts and in all 4 postseason games with 3 starts…Finished with 53 tackles (36 solo), 1.5 sacks, 3 interceptions and 9 passes defensed…In the postseason, he had 13 tackles (9 solo), and 1 pass defensed.
- Had 1 solo tackle in his NFL debut at Dallas (9/9).
- Made his 1st career start vs. Philadelphia (9/30) and finished with 6 tackles (4 solo) and 2 passes defensed
- Did not play in the 1st half vs. the Jets (10/7) because he was disciplined after violating an undisclosed team rule. But Ross twice intercepted Chad Pennington in the 4th quarter, his 1st 2 NFL picks. The 1st was at the goal line, likely prevented a Jets touchdown and led to the Giants' go-ahead score. Ross returned the second interception 43 yards for a touchdown for the Giants' final points with 3:15 remaining. It was the Giants' 1st touchdown on an interception return since Oct. 23, 2006, when Kevin Dockery – who was also a rookie – picked off a Tony Romo pass in Dallas and returned it 96 yards for a score. Ross was the 1st Giant with 2 interceptions in a game since Gibril Wilson had 2 at Carolina on Dec. 10, 2006…Finished with 3 tackles (1 solo), 3 passes defensed and 2 interceptions.
- Started at left cornerback at Atlanta (10/15) and recorded his 3rd interception of the season when he picked off a Joey Harrington attempt in the end zone to end the 2nd quarter…Also split a 6-yard sack of Harrington with DE Michael Strahan.
- Did not play at Chicago (12/2) because of a hamstring injury.
- Started in the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6) and had 6 solo tackles.
- Started in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas and finished with 5 tackles (3 solo) before being forced from the game in the 2nd quarter with a shoulder injury…Returned in the 3rd quarter but was forced to leave again.
- Started vs. New England in Super Bowl XLII and had 1 assisted tackle.

COLLEGE:

- Ross played in 51 games with 15 starts at Texas. He registered 205 tackles (145 solo) with a 1-yard sack, 5 stops for losses of 21 yards and a quarterback pressure. He forced 3 fumbles and recovered 2 others, returning 1 for a touchdown. Ross batted away 33 passes and intercepted 10 others for 111 yards in returns (11.1-yard avg.). He also returned 76 punts for 893 yards (11.8-yard avg.) and 3 scores and added 53 yards on a pair of kickoff returns.
- Ross' 76 punt returns ranked 6th on the Longhorns' career-record chart and his 893 career punt return yards ranked 5th…His career average of 11.8 yards per punt return ranked 4th in Texas history.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally signed by the Giants as a rookie free agent on April 27, 2001.

GIANTS NOTE:
- With the offseason departure of Amani Toomer, Seubert is the longest-tenured Giants player.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Seubert has been a significant contributor as both a starter and reserve. He has played in 74 regular season games with 58 starts and 8 postseason games with 7 starts…Suffered a serious leg fracture on Oct. 19, 2003 that forced him to miss the remainder of that year and the entire 2004 season…Returned to action in 2005.
- In 2008, Seubert started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at left guard. The Giants are the only team to start the same 5 linemen in all 32 regular season games the previous 2 seasons.
- Seubert was an integral member of an offensive line that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 1st downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Seubert and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- The line's blocking helped the Giants rush for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total Giants history…Seubert and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, started all 16 regular season games for the 2nd time in his career and all 4 of the Giants' postseason games at left guard…Blocking by Seubert and the O-line enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game. In their 4-game postseason surge that culminated in a Super Bowl XLII victory, the Giants averaged 305.5 yards, including 103.8 on the ground.
- In 2006, played in 14 games with 3 starts…Also started the NFC Wild Card Game at left guard…Used as a 2nd tight end throughout the season…Was inactive for 2 games (vs. New Orleans, 12/24, at Washington, 12/30) with a shin injury.
- Started at left guard in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)…Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided the blocks that enabled the Giants to rush for 151 yards on 31 carries…Started at center in place of injured

Shaun O'Hara vs. Philadelphia (12/17)…Left the game for 1 play due to a knee injury in the 4th quarter but later returned…Began the game in his normal role in double tight end formations and started for the 2nd straight week at Carolina (12/10)…Played center in the 1st half when O'Hara left the game due to injury…Played the entire 2nd half at left guard in place of David Diehl, who was at right tackle in place of the injured Kareem McKenzie.

- In 2005, returned to action after missing the entire 2004 season while recovering from 3 fractures in his right leg suffered in 2003…Played in 4 games with 1 start…When he started at left guard vs. the Chiefs it was his 1st playing time on the offensive line since Oct. 19, 2003, when he suffered a severely fractured right leg against the Eagles. The line's run blocking enabled Tiki Barber to rush for a then-franchise record 220 yards.
- In 2004, missed the entire season after being placed on the physically unable to perform list as a result of the fractured right leg he suffered in 2003.
- In 2003, started the 1st 6 games at left guard before suffering an injury that forced him to miss the rest of the season…Fractured the right fibula, tibia and ankle late in the 1st quarter vs. Philadelphia (10/19). He was placed on injured reserve the following week.
- In the 5 full games he played, the Giants offense averaged 355 total yards (including 399 at Washington and 381 at New England) and allowed just 8 sacks.
- In 2002, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card game at left guard…Was 1 of 3 undrafted free agents to start on the offensive line, joining Chris Bober at center and Jason Whittle at right guard…The line gave up only 24 sacks all season.
- As a rookie in 2001, played in 2 games, with no starts…Played only on special teams…Suited up for a 3rd game but did not play and was inactive for 13 games.

COLLEGE:

- Named 1st-team All-Gateway Conference as a senior in 2000…Helped Leathernecks to the 21st-ranked rushing attack in the country…Began career as a tight end before moving to offensive line full-time as a junior in 1999…Started all 11 games at tight end as a true freshman in 1997…Caught 2 passes for 17 yards…Started 1st 5 games at tight end as a sophomore and caught 4 passes for 58 yards…Started the remainder of the season at guard. Switched to tackle as a junior.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Seubert received the Wellington T. Mara Award at the Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York annual Vision of Hope Awards Dinner.
- Rich and his fellow lineman Dave Diehl have taken a special interest in the Ronald McDonald House of New York City, a temporary home for seriously ill children and their families to reside while undergoing treatment in area hospitals. Together, they serve as Co-Chairs of the "Meet the Giants" fundraiser. This annual event is held to raise funds for the Giants Room on the Sports Floor of the Ronald McDonald House located in New York City. In 2007, they also created the 1st summer cookout at the house, bringing many players over for a day of barbeque and board games in the sun.
- Hosted the 2nd annual Rich Seubert Celebrity Trap Shoot fundraiser in Wisconsin with the goal of contributing $1 million to The Marshfield Clinic for cardiac research. His grandmother, Celine Seubert, received a heart transplant more than 20 years ago. Thanks to the subsequent care she has received at Marshfield Clinic, Celine has been able to see the expansion of her families, including several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
- Participated in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (51st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Smith made one of the biggest plays of the Giants' 2007 postseason when he caught a short Eli Manning pass and turned it into a 12-yard gain and a 1st down on a 3rd-and-11 in the waning moments of Super Bowl XLII. On the next play, Manning threw the 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress that gave the Giants their upset victory over New England.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Smith has played in 21 games with 4 starts, recording 65 receptions for 637 yards and 1 touchdown…Also played in 5 postseason games with 1 start, where he totaled 16 catches for 169 yards.
- In 2008, played in all 16 regular season games with 4 starts and started the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…Led the Giants with 57 receptions (9 more than runner-up Amani Toomer) and was 3rd with 574 receiving yards…Had season-high totals of 9 catches for 94 yards at Cleveland (10/13)…Scored his 1st career touchdown on a 5-yard reception from Eli Manning in the 1st quarter vs. Dallas (11/2).
- As a rookie in 2007, he played in 5 regular season games and in all 4 postseason games…Was inactive for 11 games with a fractured scapula suffered vs. Green Bay (9/16) and then with a hamstring injury…Returned to action vs. Washington (12/16)…Finished the regular season with 8 receptions for 63 yards…Was outstanding in the postseason, when he caught 14 passes for 152 yards.
- Caught his 1st 3 NFL passes at Dallas (9/9)…Had 3 receptions for 29 yards in action as the 3rd receiver at Tampa Bay in the NFC Wild Card Game (1/6)…His 21-yard reception on 3-and-1 in the 2nd quarter helped set up the Brandon Jacobs' 8-yard touchdown run.
- Finished tied for the team lead with 4 catches for 48 yards at Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/13)…Had 22 and 11-yard receptions on consecutive plays on the Giants' 2-minute drive before the half that resulted in Toomer's 4-yard touchdown reception that tied the game 14-14 at halftime…Smith's 11-yard reception on 3rd-and-6 in the 4th quarter extended a drive that resulted in Jacobs' 1-yard touchdown that gave the Giants a 21-17 lead.
- Caught 2 passes for 25 yards in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20)…Contributed 5 receptions for 50 yards with a long catch of 17 yards in Super Bowl XXLII vs. New England (2/3)…Converted two 3rd downs with receptions of 8 and 9 yards on the Giants' 1st drive to help set up a Lawrence Tynes' 32-yard field goal…Smith's 17-yard reception on 3rd-and-4 extended a drive that resulted in David Tyree's 5-yard touchdown…His key 12-yard catch on 3rd-and-11 set up Manning's 13-yard game-winning touchdown pass to Burress.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 46 games with 27 starts for the Trojans…Finished career with 190 receptions for 3,019 yards (15.9-yard avg.) and 22 touchdowns, with a long catch of 73 yards…Averaged 4.13 receptions and 65.6 yards a game…Smith's 190 catches placed him 5th in school history and his 3,019 yards receiving ranked 4th…Smith became the 6th receiver in school history to catch at least 20 touchdown passes in a career.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (56th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Set a Giants franchise record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia on Sept. 23, 2007, surpassing surpassed the old mark of 4.5 sacks by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991.
- Umenyiora led the Giants in sacks in 4 consecutive seasons with 7.0 in 2004, 14.5 in 2005, 6.0 in 2006 and 13.0 in 2007. He was the 1st Giant to top the team in sacks 4 years in a row since Lawrence Taylor topped the Giants in 5 consecutive seasons from 1986-90. Michael Strahan was No. 1 in sacks each season from 1995-98, but shared the 1996 lead with Chad Bratzke.
- Was voted to the Pro Bowl following the 2005 and 2007 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 72 regular season games with 51 starts and started all 6 postseason games in which he's played at right defensive end…He has 238 tackles (164 solo), 41.5 sacks, 9 passes defensed, 14 forced fumbles and 8 fumble recoveries…Has been named NFC defensive player of the week twice and special teams player of the week once.
- Umenyiora missed the entire 2008 season after undergoing knee surgery…He suffered a torn lateral meniscus cartilage in his left knee in a preseason game vs. the Jets on Aug. 23….Underwent surgery and was placed on injured reserve 3 days later.
- In 2007, started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games at right defensive end…Umenyiora was the only member of the Super Bowl champion Giants selected to the Pro Bowl, the 2nd time he was chosen…Led the team in sacks for the 4th consecutive season with 13.0 for 87 yards…Also had 53 tackles (33 solo), 2 pass defensed, 5 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries…Was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Week…Added 10 tackles (7 solo) and a fumble recovery in the playoffs.
- Set a Giants record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia (9/30). The old record of 4.5 sacks was set by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991. The NFL record of 7.0 sacks was set by the late Hall of Famer Derrick Thomas for Kansas City against Seattle on Nov. 11, 1990. Umenyiora is tied for 2nd in league history with San Francisco's Fred Dean (6.0 sacks vs. New Orleans on Nov. 13, 1983) and Thomas (6.0 sacks vs. Oakland on Sept. 6, 1998)…Umenyiora's previous career high was 2.0 sacks, which he had accomplished 6 times…He entered the game with no sacks in 2007 and just 1 sack in his last 8 games dating back to 2006 – not counting his sack in the Giants' postseason loss to Philadelphia…In addition to his 6 sacks, he forced 2 fumbles and had 4 QB hurries…Contributed to a defense that set a team record for sacks with 12.0…The previous Giants record was 9 sacks, which they accomplished 3 times. Two of the three games were at home against the Eagles, most recently on Aug. 31, 1997. They also had nine sacks on Dec. 6, 1987 against Philadelphia and Dec. 14, 1986 vs. the St. Louis Cardinals…Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- Finished with 4 solo tackles, 1 sack, 3 QB hurries and 3 QB hits vs. the Jets (10/7)…Recorded his 7th sack of the season when he dropped Chad Pennington for a 7-yard loss in the 4th quarter.
- Had 3 tackles (2 solo), 1 sack, 2 QB hits, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries vs. San Francisco (10/21)…Scored the Giants' 3rd touchdown of the game when he sacked Trent Dilfer for a 10-yard loss, forced a fumble that he recovered and returned 75 yards for a score in the 3rd quarter. It was the longest fumble return for a touchdown by a Giant since Sept. 9, 1984, when linebacker Andy Headen brought one back 81 yards in a victory over Dallas…It was the 2nd touchdown of Umenyiora's career. He scored on a 50-yard fumble return at Baltimore on Dec. 12, 2004…The performance earned Umenyiora his 2nd Player of the Week award in 2007.
- Posted his second 2-sack game of the season vs. Minnesota (11/25)…Also had sacks in each of the next 2 games, at Chicago (12/2) and at Philadelphia (12/9)…Contributed 6 tackles (4 solo) and a 10-yard sack in the Giants' playoff-clinching victory at Buffalo (12/23).
- Made a big contribution in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3), with 3 tackles (2 solo), 2 QB hurries and a team-high 5 QB hits. Also recovered a Tom Brady fumble after the quarterback was hit by Justin Tuck and lost the ball in the 2nd quarter...Tackled RB Laurence Maroney for losses of 3 yards in the 2nd quarter and 2 yards in the 3rd quarter.
- In 2006, started all 11 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right defensive end…Led the team with 6.0 sacks despite missing 5 games with a strained hip flexor…Finished the season with 39 tackles (27 solo), 16 QB hurries, 12 QB hits, 1 pass defensed and 1 forced fumble.
- Contributed 4 tackles, 1 sack and 3 QB hurries in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7/07).
- Had 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Atlanta (10/15)…Sacked Michael Vick for a 9-yard loss in the 1st quarter…Recorded his 2nd sack of Vick when he stripped the ball for a 6-yard loss in the 4th quarter.

- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina at right defensive end…Finished with 70 tackles (49 solo), 14.5 sacks, 3 passes defensed, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries
- His 14.5 sacks placed him 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL and was the highest total by a Giant other than Michael Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989…Umenyiora and Strahan combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates…Umenyiora was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly and was selected the NFL's Most Improved Player by Pro Football Weekly.
- Umenyiora and Strahan became the 1st tandem of defensive ends from the same team to go to the Pro Bowl together since Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong of the Miami Dolphins in 2000.
- Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/31)…Dropped Kerry Collins for a 12-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and recorded his 2nd sack of the game in the 4th quarter when he stripped Collins of the ball for a 9-yard loss.
- In 2004, played in 16 games with 7 starts at defensive right end…Led the team with 7.0 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries (including 1 he returned for a touchdown) and 3 forced fumbles along with 58 tackles (42 solo) and 3 passes defensed.
- Recorded 9 tackles, 1 sack and a forced fumble vs. Dallas (1/2)… Sacked Vinny Testaverde and forced a fumble in the 4th quarter that was recovered by Reggie Torbor and led to Tiki Barber's 3-yard touchdown reception…Did not start at Baltimore (12/12), but recorded 4 tackles, a half-sack, 2 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Scored the 1st touchdown of his career when he recovered a Kyle Boller fumble that was forced by a Reggie Torbor sack and returned it 50 yards in the 2nd quarter.
- As a rookie in 2003, played in 13 games with 1 start...Finished with 19 tackles (15 solo), 1 sack and one special teams tackle in rookie season.
- Set up all 3 Giants touchdowns in season finale against Carolina (12/28), the 1st 2 with blocked punts and the third with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered for a score by Keith Washington. Umenyiora's feat was the 1st time the Giants blocked 2 punts in 1 game since Oct. 9, 1943 against the Phil-Pitt Steagles, a team made up of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia players during World War II. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He finished with 4 tackles (1 solo) and a sack for a loss of 17 yards.

NFL DRAFT 2009

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

CAREER NOTES

- Nicks started all 36 games he played in for the Tar Heels and led the team in receptions in each of his 3 seasons…Was the 1st UNC underclassman to declare for the NFL Draft since defensive end Julius Peppers in 2001…Set 14 school records, including catches, receiving yards and touchdown catches…His 181 receptions topped the old record of 177 by Jarwarski Pollock (2001-05) and rank 13th in Atlantic Coast Conference history…Nicks' 2,840 yards receiving broke the previous UNC mark of 2,447 yards by Corey Holliday (1989-93) and placed Nicks 11th on the ACC career-record chart…His 21 touchdown receptions bettered the former record of 19 by Octavus Barnes (1994-97)…Nicks set another school record with 74 receptions in 2007, topping the previous record of 71 by Pollock in 2003…In 2008, he became the 1st player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving with 1,222 yard, topping the former record of 990 yards by Sam Aiken in 2003…His 12 touchdown catches in 2008 broke the old record of 9 by Marcus Wall in 1994…Had 10 games with at least 100 receiving yards…Nicks' 217 yards vs. West Virginia in the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl were the 2nd most by a Tar Heel, and he became just the 3rd player in school history to post a 200-yard receiving game. Nicks joined Randy Marriott (247 vs. Georgia Tech in 1987) and Octavus Barnes (211 vs. Ohio in 1995).

2008 SEASON

- All-America honorable mention by The NFL Draft Report and Rivals.com…Selected 1st team All-ACC by the league's coaches, media and Associated Press…Started all 13 games at split end, leading the team in receptions for the 3rd consecutive year with 68 for a school-record 1,222 yards (18.0-yard avg.) and 12 touchdowns…Ranked 2nd in the league with an average of 5.23 catches per game and led the ACC with an average of 94.0 yards receiving a game…Forty nine of his 68 catches (72.1 %) produced 1st downs, he converted 19 of his 25 (76.0) 3rd-down catches and all three 4th-down receptions…Had 45 catches of least 10 yards and 23 of at least 20 yards…Rushed for 43 yards and a touchdown on 7 carries and returned 7 kickoffs for 134 yards…Recorded a pair of solo tackles by taking down defenders after UNC interceptions vs. Virginia Tech…Finished 7th in the conference with an average of 106.9 all-purpose yards per game.
- MCNEESE STATE…Opened the season with 6 catches for 110 yards…Returned a kickoff 20 yards…Nicks' 71-yard reception in the 4th quarter set up a touchdown.
- RUTGERS…Caught 6 passes for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 9 and 11 yards…
- VIRGINIA TECH…Had 4 catches for 51 yards…Made tackles after interceptions on consecutive possessions.
- MIAMI…Finished with 5 receptions for 133 yards, including a 74-yard touchdown from Mike Paulus with 9 minutes left.
- CONNECTICUT…Gained 55 yards on 3 catches, including a 13-yard 4th quarter score.
- NOTRE DAME…Caught a season-high 9 passes for 141 yards, his school-record 8th 100-yard game…Nicks' 19-yard reception on 3rd-and-18 set up a touchdown.
- VIRGINIA…Tallied 90 yards on 6 catches…His 15, 10 and 23-yard receptions in the 4th quarter set a 40-yard field goal that gave UNC a 10-3 lead.
- BOSTON COLLEGE…Scored 4 touchdowns (3 receptions, 1 rushing)…Had 8 receptions for 139 yards and 3 rushing attempts for 31 yards…Scored touchdowns on catches of 26, 40 and 43 yards and a 12-yard reverse.
- GEORGIA TECH…Fellow receiver Brandon Tate was sidelined with a season-ending injury, so Nicks stepped up with 3 catches for 72 yards and a touchdown…Held without a catch in the 1st half, he came up with a 31-yard score on 4th-and-2 late in the 4th quarter. Nicks' 72 yards gave him 2,472 for his career, moving ahead of Corey Holliday (2,447 yards, 1989-93) to become the school's career record-holder.
- MARYLAND…Caught 3 passes for 57 yards.
- NORTH CAROLINA STATE…Contributed 4 receptions for 56 yards.
- DUKE…Finished with 3 receptions for 38 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown…Became the 1st player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season, breaking the old mark of 990 yards by Sam Aiken in 2002.
- WEST VIRGINIA (Meineke Car Care Bowl)…Concluded his collegiate career with 8 catches for 217 yards and 3 touchdowns…His 1st score was the most memorable - T.J. Yates' deep throw over the middle was underthrown and nearly intercepted by Ellis Lankster, but the ball went through his hands and Nicks caught it behind him, then started to celebrate about 15 yards shy of the end zone. That allowed Keith Tandy to catch up, but Nicks wrestled away from him for the 73-yard touchdown, his school-record 10th of the season…Three minutes later, Nicks caught a 66-yard touchdown pass from receiver Cooter Arnold on a trick play, setting North Carolina's career touchdown record with his 20th…Nicks' 25-yard scoring catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead.

All-America honorable mention by The NFL Draft Report…1st-team All-ACC…Started all 12 games at split end and led the team and set a school season record with 74 receptions, for 958 yards (12.9-yard avg. and 5 touchdowns…Ranked 3rd in the league with an average of 6.17 receptions per game and 2nd with an average of 79.8 yards. Caught 6 passes for 77 yards and a score vs. East Carolina…Gained 113 yards and scored twice on 7 receptions vs. Virginia…Had 8 catches for 94 yards vs. Virginia Tech and followed with 76 yards on 5 receptions vs. Miami, a game in which he executed a devastating block that leveled two Hurricanes on a 54-yard reverse by receiver Brandon Tate…Despite suffering an ankle sprain, Nicks had 8 receptions for 114 yards vs. South Carolina…Added 9 catches for 87 yards vs. Wake Forest and totaled 88 yards on 8 receptions that included a 30-yard game-winning touchdown in a victory over Maryland…Caught 5 passes for 56 yards vs. North Carolina State and a season-high 162 yards on 7 receptions and a 14-yard score vs. Georgia Tech…Closed out the season with 6 catches for 38 yards vs. Duke.

2006 SEASON

- Freshman All-America and Freshman All-ACC 1st-team honors from The Sporting News and freshman 1st team All-ACC selection by The Gridiron Report…Started 11 games as a true freshman, sitting out the South Florida contest with an ankle sprain…Led the team with 39 receptions for 660 yards (16.9-yard avg.), both school freshman records…Scored 4 touchdowns…Added 10 yards on a reverse, two solo tackles and 101 yards on five kickoff returns.
- Began his career with 63 yards and a score on 7 catches vs. Rutgers…Caught 6 passes for a then career-high 171 yards and 2 touchdowns vs. Notre Dame... Had 7 receptions for 117 yards and a career-long 83-yard score to give UNC a 45-44 win over Duke in the season finale.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

GETTY IMAGES

The Giants raise the Lombardi Trophy during the postgame ceremonies at Super Bowl XLII

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name, score, logo and roster if the team wishes.

GIANTS 2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

GETTY IMAGES

When the 2008 NFL season began, the Giants had the Vince Lombardi Trophy on display in their lobby and legions of skeptics and doubters who were convinced they had won it more through luck and timing than skill. A popular refrain was that the Giants had simply become a hot team at the right time in the 2007 playoffs. For evidence, the disbelievers cited the Giants' stirring Super Bowl XLII victory over the previously-undefeated New England Patriots. When it was time to make predictions for the 2008 season, most prognosticators placed the Giants second or third in the NFC East.

But the Giants proved them all wrong. No, they didn't win another Super Bowl. But they did capture the division title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. They started the season 11-1 and winning 12 regular season games, they became only the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the title (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season).

The Giants achieved their success despite losing several key players from the 2007 championship team, including seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (retirement), two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora (knee injury suffered in the preseason), four-time Pro Bowl tight end Jeremy Shockey (traded to New Orleans) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress, (who did not play in the season's final month after he was wounded in an accidental shooting).

The day after the season ended with a loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game, Coach Tom Coughlin addressed many of the issues that had been raised in training camp.

"What I thought I would start with this morning is to think back to last spring and last summer when all of your questions concerned how this team would respond to winning the Super Bowl," Coughlin said. "Would they be, for lack of a better word, satisfied? Would they be as hungry coming into training camp and beyond training camp as they were in working our way to a Super Bowl championship? I think that our team responded and answered that question. I think we came out, we transitioned, we bridged from the Super Bowl year to the next season very well. Our competitiveness was there, our fire, our attempt to take the success of the Super Bowl season on into the next season was very successful. We were 11-1 and we did come out of camp and play very, very well for a very long time. We, of course, played well and the record stood for that. We didn't finish the season as well as we would have liked to, but I think we answered the questions of what this team was about."

"Twelve and five is not a bad season," general manager Jerry Reese said. "When you set the bar high like that and then all of sudden you get eliminated in the second round it stings. Overall, we had a real good season. It's not where we want it to be, but we said we wanted to be the organization that put our team in position to win the Super Bowl every year. For the last couple of years we have been able to put our team in position to do that. We fell short this time."

The loss to Philadelphia did not mitigate the achievements of a successful regular season. The Giants were one of only two teams to finish in the top nine in both the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. They rushed for an NFL-leading and franchise record 2,518 yards and also topped the league with a Giants-best 5.0 yards per carry. The Giants were the first team since 1985 to have two running backs rush for 1,000 yards each (Brandon Jacobs and Derrick Ward).

Seven Giants were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team: Quarterback Eli Manning, center Shaun O'Hara, guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, punter Jeff Feagles and kicker John Carney. Two weeks before the game, long-snapper Zak DeOssie was added as the NFC's need player.

Snee and Tuck were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and fullback Madison Hedgecock, O'Hara and Carney finished second in the voting at their positions. O'Hara, Hedgecock and defensive tackle Fred Robbins were named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and O'Hara and Snee were selected to The Sporting News' All-Pro first team.

The Giants opened their season at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing the previous season's Super Bowl champions.

Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a surprise appearance by Michael Strahan.

A huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy was wheeled out to midfield as the stadium video boards showed highlights from Super Bowls XXI and XXV. Bob Papa, the voice of the Giants, then introduced the players from those teams that were in attendance: Hall of Famer Harry Carson, Stacy Robinson, Karl Nelson, Brad Benson, Bill Ard, Howard Cross, Rodney Hampton, Ottis Anderson, Carl Banks and Mark Bavaro.

Then a short video appeared with several players talking about the resilience and toughness of the 2007 Super Bowl XLII champions. When the screens went dark, the front panel of the trophy was lowered and out stepped Strahan – wearing his familiar blue No. 92 jersey and holding the real Lombardi Trophy – to thunderous applause.

"Giants Stadium, you thought I was never coming back," said Strahan, who had announced his retirement three months previously after 15 stellar seasons with the team. "But I had to come back to celebrate the championship with the greatest fans in all of sports. And for one final time, salute my teammates for an incredible championship run. So what I want you to do is, I want you to get on your feet, I want you to make some noise and I want you to be ready to stomp somebody out and welcome the New York Giants Super Bowl champions."

With that, the 79,742 fans in attendance screamed in delight as the 2008 Giants took the field for the first time. At the other end of the stadium, a championship banner was raised.

The Giants continued to thrill their fans when the game started as they defeated the Redskins, 16-7, for their first season-opening victory since 2005.

All of the scoring was in the first half, making it the first Giants game in which both teams were shutout in the second half since Dec. 1, 1996, when the Giants lost to the Eagles. Manning scored on a one-yard run and Carney, the 44-year-old kicker signed just five days before the game, had a successful Giants debut with field goals of 24, 25 and 47 yards. The Giants also benefitted from big performances by Jacobs (116 rushing yards) and Plaxico Burress (10 receptions for 133 yards). Manning completed 19 of 35 passes for 216 yards and an interception.

But it was the defense that powered the victory. Washington gained just 209 yards, including 51 in the first half and 93 in their final two possessions, when they were in desperation mode. The Redskins had 11 first downs, 84 rushing yards and owned the ball for only 24:17. They went three-and-out on four of their seven possessions in the first three quarters. Washington's only score was a 12-yard touchdown pass from Jason Campbell to Santana Moss with 13 seconds remaining in the first half.

The following week, the Giants carried over their 2007 success on the road into a new season with a resounding 41-13 triumph over the St. Louis Rams in the Edward Jones Dome. The Giants scored 21 unanswered points in the final 7:18 to break open a close game and secure their most one-sided game road victory in a dozen years (35-7 at Detroit on Oct. 27, 1996).

DAN BURNS

The victory was the Giants' 11th in a row on the road (eight in the regular season and three in the postseason). Including their neutral site victory in Super Bowl XLII, it was their 12th consecutive triumph away from home.

The Giants had a lengthy list of big contributors. Manning compiled a regular season career-high passer rating of 131.4 by completing 20 of 29 passes for 260 yards for three touchdowns and no interceptions. The scoring throws went to Burress, Amani Toomer and Ahmad Bradshaw and the latter also closed the scoring with a 31-yard run. The offense rolled up 441 yards and 25 first downs. Jacobs (93), Ward (58) and Bradshaw (52) became the first Giants trio to each rush for more than 50 yards in a game in 30 years. Tuck retuned an interception 41 yards for a touchdown and had two sacks. Robbins also had a pair of sacks.

After the Rams pulled to within 20-13 on Marc Bulger's 45-yard touchdown pass to Torry Holt – on a throw that safety Kenny Phillips almost knocked down – the Giants responded by driving 82 yards in only six plays, including a short Manning pass that Bradshaw turned into an 18-yard touchdown. Bradshaw did not play a down from scrimmage in the season's first seven quarters. Domenik Hixon set up the score with a terrific 32-yard reception down the left sideline.

On the Rams' next possession, Bulger threw a pass for Dante Hall. Tuck, who was engaged with tackle Adam Goldberg, threw his hands up, somehow secured the ball and ran 41 yards for the touchdown that made it 34-13 with 5:30 remaining.

The Giants forced the Rams into a punt that Hixon returned 50 yards to the St. Louis 39-yard line. Three plays later, Bradshaw zipped around left end and didn't stop until he was in the end zone 31 yards away for the final score of the game.

Manning had earlier thrown touchdown passes of 33 yards to Burress and 10 yards to Toomer.

The Giants returned home on Sept. 21 and defeated the Cincinnati Bengals in an exciting overtime game, 26-23. The win gave the Giants their first 3-0 start since 2000.

Carney's 22-yard field goal 6:21 into the extra period ended a wild game that included four lead changes and three ties. The teams scored three times in the final 4:39 of regulation, including a touchdown by the Giants with 1:50 remaining and Shayne Graham's game-tying field goal with as time expired in the fourth quarter.

A game Manning called "a fun one" turned heart-stopping in the fourth quarter when T.J. Houshmandzadeh (12 catches for 146 yards) caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Carson Palmer to give the Bengals a 20-16 lead with 4:39 remaining.

Manning and the offense responded with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a four-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Boss and a 23-20 advantage with only 1:50 remaining. Ward started the series with a 22-yard run and Steve Smith made the key play when he turned a short Manning pass into a 15-yard gain on third-and-10. Boss, who did not catch a pass in the first two games, jumped for the ball and held on despite getting blasted as he caught the ball.

Carson Palmer then led the Bengals down the field against the strong Giants defense and with the crowd roaring. Houshmandzadeh caught four passes for 53 yards on the drive and Antonio Chatman was stopped at the three-yard line after an 11-yard catch with only four seconds remaining. Graham then kicked his third field goal to send the game into overtime.

The teams traded punts in the extra period before the Giants took possession on their own 34–yard line with 10:28 remaining. On second down, Manning threw a pass up the left sideline for Burress, who hauled it in for a 28-yard gain. Three plays later, on third-and-10, Manning went back to the same side of the field for Toomer, who gained 31 yards to the Cincinnati seven.

Ward ran for three yards before Carney – who earlier had kicked field goals of 24, 46 and 22 yards – made it a perfect foursome for the game.

Carney's outstanding performance was one of many that pushed the Giants along against Cincinnati. Manning completed 26 of 43 passes for 289 yards and did not throw an interception for the second week in a row. Smith had career-high totals of seven receptions for 60 yards. Ward was the leading rusher with 80 yards. Jacobs scored the Giants' other touchdown. The defense sacked Palmer six times, including two by Robbins. Antonio Pierce had 13 tackles (10 solo) and Kevin Dockery had nine (eight solo).

The Giants, who had their bye after the Cincinnati game, had traditionally struggled the week following a week off in the regular season. But they had no trouble when they returned to action against the Seattle Seahawks, rolling to a 44-6 rout of the visitors. The 38-point margin of victory was the Giants' largest in a regular season game since a 62-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles on Nov. 26, 1972 and their largest in any game since a 41-0 rout of Minnesota in the 2000 NFC Championship Game on Jan. 14, 2001.

EVAN PINKUS

The Giants improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1990. They won their third home game, matching their Giants Stadium victory total in each of the previous two seasons.

The Giants also improved to 5-15 in games following a bye.

Although Burress did not play (suspended for one game for violating a team rule), the Giants scored on their first six possessions and did not punt until the third quarter. They gained 523 yards (254 on the ground), the eighth-highest total in franchise history. The Giants had 12 plays that gained 15 or more yards. Carney continued his perfect season with three field goals. Manning completed 19 of 25 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions for a career-high 136.6 passer rating. Hixon, Toomer and Sinorice Moss caught four passes apiece. Hixon and Moss got their first career touchdown receptions on passes from Manning, while Moss – who didn't get off the sideline in either of the previous two games - added a second score from David Carr. Jacobs rushed for two touchdowns.

The Giants were just as dominant defensively, limiting the Seahawks to a pair of Olindo Mare field goals, 187 total yards (74 on the ground) and one success in 11 third down opportunities.

The Giants took control almost immediately. After forcing Seattle to punt on the game's first series, the Giants needed only four plays to travel 91 yards. Jacobs touched the ball on each of the first three plays – a nine-yard catch, six-yard run and then a career-long 44-yard jaunt up the left side that gave the Giants a first down on the Seattle 32-yard line.

The Giants immediately went for the jugular, as Manning threw deep left for Hixon, who got a step on cornerback Kelly Jennings and secured the ball for his first career touchdown reception.

After a Mare field goal, the Giants again traveled a long distance in a short time, needing only six plays to go 75 yards. The big plays were Manning passes Toomer for 22 and 29 yards, plus Hixon's 15-yard run on an end-around. Jacobs powered his way through the right side of the line for the touchdown that gave the Giants a 14-3 lead.

Carney's 29-yard field goal 10 seconds into the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 17-3. Jacobs' second touchdown of the game, on a one-yard run with 7:23 remaining, had given the Giants a 24-3 lead. Manning led the offense on an 11-play, 73-yard drive that began with a 19-yard pass to Smith and included a 13-yarder to Hixon immediately before Jacobs' touchdown. Carney's 33-yard field goal with 47 seconds left in the half extended the Giants' lead to 27-3. Ward's 21-yard run up the middle and Hixon's 16-yard reception were the drive's big gainers. Mare's 29-yard field goal with three seconds remaining in the second quarter cut the Giants' halftime lead to 21 points.

The Giants didn't cool off during the break. They took the second-half kickoff and marched 80 yards in just six plays, including Manning's 23-yard touchdown pass to Moss. Jacobs ran for 50 yards on the series, including a 38-yarder that put the Giants on the Seattle 30-yard line. After Ward gained seven yards, a wide-open Moss hauled in Manning's pass in the end zone for a four-touchdown advantage. Carney's third field goal pushed the Giants' lead to 37-6 with 1:38 remaining in the third quarter. The score was set up by Kevin Dockery's interception and 44-yard return of a Matt Hasselbeck pass. Carr's five-yard pass to Moss accounted for the Giants' final score with 9:25 remaining in the game.

The Giants' reign of success away from home hit a roadblock the following week. In their lone Monday night appearance of the season, the Giants suffered their first defeat of the year to the Browns in Cleveland, 35-14. The loss was the Giants' first since the 2007 regular season finale against New England and dropped their record to 4-1. It also ended their road winning streak at 11 games (eight regular season, three postseason), which was tied for the second-longest in NFL history. Including Super Bowl XLII, the Giants had won 12 consecutive games away from their home field.

The Giants were outscored in the second half, 18-0. The offense committed three turnovers (all on Manning interceptions, including one that was returned 94 yards for a touchdown by Eric Wright midway through the fourth quarter) and scored just two touchdowns despite four trips inside the Cleveland 10-yard line. The defense surrendered 454 yards, had neither a sack nor a takeaway, never forced a punt and enabled the Browns to convert nine of 13 third-down opportunities, a 69 percent success rate.

CHRIS POPE

Derek Anderson threw touchdown passes to Darnell Dinkins and Braylon Edwards, Jamal Lewis ran in for another score and Phil Dawson kicked two field goals for the Browns, who improved to 2-3. Anderson threw for 310 yards and Edwards caught five passes for 154 yards.

Jacobs scored on a seven-yard run and Manning threw a short touchdown pass to Burress for the Giants.

After Dawson opened the scoring with a 28-yard field goal, the Giants went up, 7-3, on Jacobs' seven-yard touchdown run. Safety Mike Adams stepped in front of Jacobs at the three and was absolutely steamrolled for his trouble, as Jacobs ran right over him on his way to the end zone. The Browns regained the advantage on Lewis' four-yard touchdown run, then increased their lead to 17-7 on Anderson's 22-yard touchdown pass to Dinkins, a former Giant.

Manning again demonstrated he has few peers in running a hurry-up offense in leading the Giants on a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in 2:03. He completed six of eight passes for 65 yards on the series, including his first four for 56 yards, all to Smith. Ward's seven-yard run and Manning's six-yard pass to Hixon gave the Giants a first down at the three. After the Giants used their final timeout, Manning threw to Burress for the score.

The second half belonged to the Browns. Dawson's 28-yard field goal made it 20-14 entering the fourth quarter. Anderson threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Edwards. The Giants then drove 77 yards to the Cleveland nine-yard line and were in position to climb to within six points. But Manning's pass for Toomer was intercepted by Wright, who returned it for the clinching touchdown. Edwards' two-point conversion catch accounted for the final margin.

The Giants rebounded the following week with a 29-17 victory at home over the San Francisco 49ers.

The defense turned in an outstanding game. The unit had three takeaways (including safety Michael Johnson's first two career interceptions), sacked J.T. O'Sullivan six times (one of which resulted in a safety) and forced five punts. And it did so despite the absence of starting linebackers Pierce and Gerris Wilkinson, who missed the game with injuries. They were replaced in the starting lineup by Chase Blackburn and rookie Bryan Kehl, respectively, who helped limit the 49ers to 35 rushing yards, including 11 on 11 carries by star running back Frank Gore. Blackburn led the Giants with 10 tackles (eight solo), including his first career sack.

The Giants scored on two Jacobs touchdown runs, Manning's scoring pass to Burress, a pair of Carney field goals and a safety.

San Francisco scored touchdowns on O'Sullivan's 30-yard pass to rookie Josh Morgan and Nate Clements' 74-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt. Joe Nedney added a field goal for the 49ers.

The 49ers trailed by 10 points and were trying desperately to get back into the game when they took possession at their own 20 following a Feagles punt with 5:08 remaining. But on first down, O'Sullivan was sacked by Tuck and fumbled. The ball bounced around before Morgan kicked it out of bounds for a safety, the first for the Giants since Oct. 23, 2006, when LaVarr Arrington tackled Dallas' Drew Bledsoe in the end zone.

Carney's 48-yard field goal gave the Giants a 27-17 lead with 12:17 remaining in the fourth quarter. The 29-yard drive was set up by Bradshaw's 29-yard kickoff return and bolstered by two 10-yard receptions by Smith.

The Niners pulled to within seven points on Clements' return touchdown with 1:50 remaining in the third quarter. Carney, who had made 19 attempts in a row dating back to 2007, tried a 35-yard kick. But Manny Lawson leapfrogged over the Giants' blockers and got his hands on the ball, which bounced back to Clements, who ran far ahead of the field for the touchdown. Instead of owning commanding 27-10 advantage, the Giants' lead was a precarious 24-17.

Manning's six-yard touchdown pass to Burress extended the Giants' lead to 24-10 with 9:01 remaining in the third quarter. On first-and-goal from the six, Manning faked a handoff to Ward, then fired a strike into the end zone for Burress, who shielded Clements away from the ball.

The 18-yard scoring drive was set up by the Giants' first fumble recovery of the season. O'Sullivan and Gore never completed the exchange on an attempted handoff and Mathias Kiwanuka recovered the ball. Manning passes to Smith and Toomer preceded the touchdown throw to Burress.

Carney's 21-yard field goal increased the Giants' lead to 17-10 with 1:52 remaining in the second quarter. The score was set up by Johnson's interception of an O'Sullivan pass for Morgan. Johnson returned the ball 18 yards to the 49ers' nine-yard line.

JERRY PINKUS

Jacobs scored the Giants' first two touchdowns on runs of 26 and two yards.

The Giants returned to the road the following week in Pittsburgh, where the fans were treated to a game befitting two of the NFL's storied franchises – hard-hitting, fiercely fought, thrilling and played before an emotional, raucous crowd – a playoff-type game at the end of October.

But it was the Giants who went home happy after Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Boss with 3:07 remaining enabled the visitors to take advantage of another splendid performance by the defense and defeat the Steelers in Heinz Field, 21-14. The Giants improved to 6-1.

Although they had a common point total, they reached it via unconventional means – Carney field goals of 26, 35, 25 and 24 yards, a safety on an errant snap by a backup snapper and Boss' touchdown. The Steelers scored on Mewelde Moore's 32-yard run in the first quarter and Ben Roethlisberger's 65-yard pass to Nate Washington in the third.

Pittsburgh entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 defense and a league-high 25 sacks. But the Giants had no turnovers and allowed no sacks. The Giants' defense, meanwhile, intercepted four Roethlisberger passes and sacked him five times – three by Kiwanuka, and one apiece by Tuck and Dave Tollefson. Roethlisberger completed only 13 of 29 passes for 189 yards. But he wasn't the only Steeler who was harassed by the defense all day. Pittsburgh gained only 249 yards, totaled 12 first downs and owned the ball for only 25:36. Take away Moore's touchdown and he rushed for 52 yards on 18 carries, a 2.9-yard average.

The defense needed to stand tall, because Pittsburgh's D was at its best when the Giants got close to the goal line. Six Giants trips inside the 20-yard line resulted in the four field goals and one touchdown – the game-winner to Boss.

Manning completed 19 of 32 passes for 199 yards on a day when the Giants rushed for only 83 yards on 35 carries, a 2.4-yard average. His favorite receiver was Ward, who caught five passes for 43 yards. Boss added four receptions for 34 yards.

The Giants earned the victory with a dominating fourth quarter in which they outscored the Steelers, 12-0. The Giants entered the final quarter trailing, 14-9, following a third quarter that Coach Tom Coughlin admitted "did not look real good."

But on the third play of the fourth, Corey Webster intercepted a Roethlisberger pass intended for Hines Ward and returned it to the Giants' 32-yard line. Four minutes later, they faced a fourth-and-one at the Steelers' 29-yard line and used their first timeout. When Manning returned to the field, he didn't like what he saw from Pittsburgh's defense and tried to call another timeout – which is illegal. So he took a five-yard delay-of-game penalty to make it fourth-and-six. When play resumed, Manning lofted a perfect pass down the right side for 30 yards to Toomer, who made a terrific catch to give the Giants a first down at the four. That led to a Carney field goal that closed the gap to 14-12.

The defense forced Pittsburgh into a three-and-out and the Steelers had to punt from their 18-yard line. Linebacker James Harrison – pressed into punt-snapping duties because of a knee injury suffered by Greg Warren – sailed the ball over the head of Mitch Berger and out of the end zone. It was the second week in a row the Giants scored on a safety. More importantly, it tied the score at 14-14 with 6:48 remaining.

After the free kick, the Giants took possession at their own 47-yard line. On third-and-seven, Manning fired a 25-yard pass down the middle to Smith, giving the Giants a first down on the Pittsburgh 25. Runs by Jacobs and Ward and a pass to Burress left the Giants with a second-and-goal at the two. Manning then faked a handoff and threw to Boss, who stood by himself in the end zone and caught the game-winning touchdown pass.

The Steelers had taken a 14-9 lead on Rothlisberger's long touchdown pass to Washington with 10 minutes remaining in the third quarter. On a series-opening snap, Roethlisberger threw down the left side for Washington, who caught the ball at the Giants' 25-yard line, used a couple of moves to get past James Butler, and crossed the goal line untouched.

On Nov. 2, the Giants closed out the first half of their season with a one-sided 35-14 victory over their division rivals, the Dallas Cowboys.

The victory improved the Giants' record to 7-1, including 5-0 in Giants Stadium, their best midseason mark and their longest home winning streak since 1990, when they were 8-0 and they won their first seven home games.

Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 147 yards and threw touchdown passes to Boss, Smith and Toomer in the first half. Jacobs (117 yards on 17 carries) and Ward (63 yards on 12 attempts) ran in for second-half scores. The Giants scored 21 points off turnovers – two interceptions by Webster in the first half off Brad Johnson and another by Butler in the third quarter off Brooks Bollinger. The offense scored touchdowns all five times it ventured inside Dallas' 20-yard line, a marked improvement over the previous week's one-for-six showing in Pittsburgh.

The defense was in control all day, keeping the Dallas offense out of the end zone until the fourth quarter, neutralizing Marion Barber (54 yards on 19 carries), Terrell Owens (five catches for 36 yards and a touchdown) and harassing Johnson and Bollinger with four sacks and constant pressure. The Giants had four takeaways for the second week in a row and held the Cowboys to 183 total yards, 102 passing yards and 11 first downs.

But the Giants were far from flawless. They lost their first two fumbles of the season and a Manning misfire resulted in Dallas scoring its first touchdown on a 23-yard interception return by rookie cornerback Mike Jenkins. The Cowboys also scored on Bollinger's eight-yard touchdown pass to Owens early in the fourth quarter.

The Giants seized control of the game immediately, taking the opening kickoff and driving 75 yards in 11 plays, the last Manning's 13-yard touchdown pass to Boss. On second-and-10, the second-year tight end caught the ball in the right front corner of the end zone and used some nifty footwork to stay inbounds. Boss caught an eight-yard pass on the game's first play. Moments later, Toomer made an outstanding catch on the left side for a 15-yard gain. On the next play, Burress' catch picked up 22 more yards to the Cowboys' 26-yard line. After runs by Jacobs and Ward brought the ball to the 13, Manning hooked up with Boss for the score.

The Giants' defense came up with its first big play late in the quarter when Webster grabbed an overthrown Johnson pass for Owens at the Giants' 16-yard line and returned it 57 yards to the Cowboys' 27. Two Dallas penalties, two Ward runs and Manning's pass to Smith advanced the ball to the five. On third-and-three, Smith caught another Manning throw at the one-yard line and stepped into the end zone for a 14-0 lead with 41 seconds left in the quarter.

Jenkins' interception return on a pass intended for Burress pulled Dallas to within 14-7. But Manning's 11-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 1:28 remaining in the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 14 points. On third-and-six, Toomer found a small opening just past the goal line and Manning found him for his third touchdown pass of the game.

The score capped a six-play, 52-yard drive that was set up by Webster's second interception of a Johnson pass. On the first play of the drive, Jacobs sidestepped several potential tacklers on his way to a 25-yard gain. Ward gained eight yards on a pair of runs before Toomer scored.

Jacobs' 12-yard run on the fourth play of the third quarter increased the Giants' lead to 28-7. The score was set up by Butler's interception of Bollinger's pass on the second snap of the half. It was Butler's second interception in as many weeks. Butler's pick gave the Giants the ball at the Dallas 18-yard line. The drive was simple: Jacobs for six yards, then Jacobs off left tackle for 12 yards and the score.

Owens' touchdown reception made it 28-14. The Giants responded with a nine-play, 67-yard drive that took 5:47 to complete and was highlighted by Jacobs' 31-yard run. All but 10 of the yards on the drive were gained on the ground. Ward scored his first touchdown of the season on a 17-yard run.

The Giants cleared another tall hurdle on Nov. 9 with an entertaining 36-31 Sunday Night victory over the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants' fourth victory in a row improved their record to 8-1, including 3-0 in division games. They won their fourth consecutive regular season game in Lincoln Financial Field.

The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining the Eagles, 401-300, including 219-106 on the ground, and owning sizeable advantages in first downs (26-17) and time of possession (39:10-20:50).

The game's key moments were three replay challenges, all of which went the Giants' way, and Blackburn's tackle of Brian Westbrook on fourth-and-one with 1:47 remaining, which effectively clinched the game.

Manning threw touchdown passes to Burress and Boss, Jacobs ran for two more scores and Carney kicked field goals of 27, 26 and 28 yards for the Giants.

For Philadelphia, rookie DeSean Jackson scored on a nine-yard run, Donovan McNabb threw touchdown passes of 10 yards to Jason Avant, seven yards Hank Baskett and two yards to Kevin Curtis and David Akers kicked a 29-yard field goal.

The game turned in the Giants' favor with 6:18 remaining in the third quarter and the visitors trailing, 24-20, following an Eagles touchdown. The Giants had moved from their own 31 to the Philadelphia 20, where they faced a third-and-10. Eli Manning completed a 17-yard pass to Kevin Boss that appeared to give the Giants a first-and-goal at the three. But Manning was penalized for an illegal forward pass, because an official ruled he had released the ball beyond the line of scrimmage. The infraction would have pushed the Giants back and forced them to attempt a field goal.

But Coughlin, with his coaches upstairs and Manning urging him on, challenged the call. After review, referee Terry McAulay said Manning's back foot was behind the line of scrimmage and upheld the completion. Two plays later, Jacobs scored a touchdown on a three-yard run that gave the Giants a lead they would never relinquish at 27-24.

Carney's 28-yard field goal with 13:28 remaining in the game increased the Giants' advantage to 30-24. The Giants traveled 57 yards in 11 plays prior to the field goal, including a 13-yard Boss reception that saw him leap over safety Quintin Mikell to pick up five extra yards on his way to a first down at the Eagles' 22-yard line. Two runs for 15 yards gave the Giants a first-and-goal. Bradshaw gained two more yards to the five. But Manning overthrew Burress in the end zone and Ward was stopped for a five-yard loss, so Carney trotted out to kick his third field goal.

After the defense forced Philly into a three-and-out, the Giants' offense again went to work and thanks to two unsuccessful Eagles challenges, added to their lead.

Jacobs' second touchdown on a three-yard run gave the Giants a 36-24 lead with 9:30 remaining in the fourth quarter. The two-point conversion try failed. It was Jacobs' ninth rushing touchdown of the season, tying the career high he set in 2006.

The Giants drove 40 yards in five plays following Hixon's 43-yard punt return – which would have been a 73-yard touchdown if Johnson hadn't been penalized for holding.

On the first play of the drive, Bradshaw ran for 23 yards. After a loss of two yards and a defensive offside penalty, things got weird as Philadelphia coach Andy Reid lost replay challenges on consecutive plays – including Jacobs' touchdown.

First, Jacobs ran six yards up the middle to the three before fumbling. The officials said he was down by contact. Reid challenged, but after review, McAulay said Jacobs' elbow was down before he fumbled and upheld the call on the field.

On the next play, Jacobs' run was ruled a touchdown. But he again lost the ball, this time very close to the goal line. Reid again challenged, saying Jacobs fumbled before reaching the end zone. McAulay again upheld the ball on the field and the touchdown stood.

But on the two-point conversion try, Manning's pass to Burress sailed incomplete.

The Eagles responded with a 10-play, 71-yard drive that ended with McNabb's touchdown pass to Curtis, which pulled the Eagles to within 36-31 with 5:30 remaining in the game. On fourth-and-goal from the two, McNabb moved right, the fired a strike to Curtis, who found an opening in the back of the end zone.

The Giants then came up a yard short of a first down and had to punt. Philly took possession at its own 14 with 3:14 remaining and a chance to win the game. On third-and-three from the 43 they gave the ball to their terrific back, Brian Westbrook. He gained two yards, setting up a fourth-and-one. Again they handed the ball to Westbrook. But Blackburn came charging through the line and stopped Westbrook for no gain. The Eagles never again saw the ball.

On Nov. 16, the irresistible force overcame the seemingly immovable object in the Giants' 30-10 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. The Giants entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack, while Baltimore had the league's top-ranked run defense. The collision was no contest. The Giants rushed for 207 yards, averaged 6.3 yards a carry and rolled to their first-ever victory over the Ravens. It was the Giants' third consecutive 200-yard rushing game – the first time they did that since 1952 – and their franchise-record fifth of the season. Baltimore had allowed an average of only 65.4 rushing yards a game. No team had run for more than 76 and no back for more than 73. The Ravens had not given up a 200-yard rushing game since Oct. 5, 1997 against Pittsburgh.

But Jacobs had 70 yards – in the first quarter. That included a 36-yard run. Bradshaw ripped off a 77-yard fourth-quarter run on his way to a team-high 96 yards. Ward chipped in with 41yards on 11 carries, including a 22-yarder, and led the team with four catches for 54 yards.

In addition to the running backs' heroics, Manning threw a touchdown pass to tight end Darcy Johnson, Aaron Ross returned an interception 50 yards for another score and Lawrence Tynes, doing all the kicking for the only time in 2008, booted a 19-yard field goal.

The Giants' run defense was also outstanding. Running backs Willis McGahee (nine carries for 18 yards), Ray Rice (8-19) and Le'Ron McClain (2-10) combined for 47 yards on 19 attempts. Baltimore's leading rusher was rookie quarterback Joe Flacco with 57 yards on six carries.

Flacco threw 10-yard touchdown pass to McClain and Matt Stover kicked a 38-yard field goal.

The Giants seized control of the game almost immediately and never let go. The defense forced Baltimore into a three-and-out on the game's first possession. The Giants took the ball at their 32 and eight plays and 68 yards later, Jacobs forced his way over the goal line for a 7-0 lead. On the offense's second snap of the game, Jacobs appeared to be stopped at the line up scrimmage before spinning out of danger and running up the left side for a 36-yard gain. Moments later, on third-and-15, Manning and Burress hooked up for a 21-yard gain to the Baltimore 16-yard line.

The rest was all Jacobs – well, him and a five-yard offsides penalty on Haloti Ngata. Jacobs carried on four consecutive plays, including a 10-yarder and the one-yard score off left tackle.

The Ravens marched from their own 32-yard line to the Giants' 13 on their next series. But Robbins blocked Stover's 32-yard field goal attempt. Sam Madison tried to pick up the ball, but it bounced off several players until it was finally downed at the Baltimore 33-yard line.

The Giants – again helped by an offsides penalty, one that nullified an interception – traveled the distance in five plays. Jacobs did the bulk of the work, carrying for 15, two and one yards on the drive's final three plays.

A bad snap doomed the extra point attempt after the second touchdown and the Giants' lead remained 13-0.

After forcing another Baltimore punt, the Giants embarked on a 90-yard, 12-play drive that ended with Manning's short touchdown pass to Johnson, who made his first career catch one to remember. Johnson, who spent the 2007 season on injured reserve with a knee injury suffered in training camp, became the first Giant to score a touchdown on his initial career reception since another tight end, Marcellus Rivers, did it on Sept. 10, 2001 at Denver.

On the drive, Ward ran for 28 yards, including a 22-yarder, and caught two passes for 27 more yards. Burress caught a 15-yard pass. Samari Rolle was flagged for pass interference on Burress in the end zone, giving the Giants a first down at the Ravens' one-yard line. After Ward was twice stopped short of the goal line, Johnson got open in the front of the end zone and caught Manning's short pass for a 20-0 lead with 7:14 remaining in the second quarter.

Stover's field goal made it 20-3 with 4:08 left in the second quarter. Baltimore pulled to within 20-10 on Flacco's 10-yard touchdown pass to McClain with 4:26 remaining in the third quarter.

The Giants seemed to be losing momentum when they were forced to punt again on their next offensive series. But Ross seized it back for them and effectively clinched the game with his interception return for a touchdown, which increased the Giants lead to 27-10 with 14 seconds remaining in the third quarter. Flacco threw to the left side for Derrick Mason. The receiver was unable to hold the ball, which caromed in the air to Ross, who sprinted down the right sideline for the score. It was his second interception of the game and the second touchdown of his career. Ross scored on a 43-yard return of a pick against the Jets on Oct. 7, 2007.

Jacobs was not in uniform the following Sunday against the Cardinals in Arizona because of the knee injury he suffered in the victory over Baltimore. Burress tried to go with his sore hamstring, but last just one series. But not even the loss of their leading ground-gainer and most dangerous receiver could derail the Giants. With players on offense, defense and special teams making significant contributions, the Giants defeated the Cardinals, 37-29, in University of Phoenix Stadium – the site of their epic victory over New England in Super Bowl XLII.

Manning threw three touchdown passes – one each to Toomer, Hedgecock and Boss, Ward scored on a one-yard run and Carney kicked three field goals for the Giants.

A long list of players had big games. Hixon had 269 total yards (180 on kickoff returns, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns, plus an 11-yard rush), tied for the third-highest total in Giants history. Del Shofner gained 269 yards – all receiving – vs. Washington on Oct. 28, 1962 (the day Y.A. Tittle threw seven touchdown passes). The franchise record is Joe Scott's 279 yards on Nov. 14, 1948 vs. the Los Angeles Rams (207 kickoff return yards, 35 receiving, 22 rushing and 15 yards after receiving a lateral). Tiki Barber is in second place, with 276 yards vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 28, 2002 (203 rushing, 73 receiving).

Hixon returned kickoffs for the first time in 2008 and had runbacks of 83 and 68 yards in the second quarter. He also took over at split end for Burress and led the team with six catches for 57 yards.

Ward started for Jacobs and rushed for 69 yards on 20 carries and caught four passes for 30 yards.

Manning played one of his best games of the season, completing 26 of 33 passes (a career-best 79 percent completion rate) for 240 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions.

It would be a stretch to say the Giants shut down the NFL's second-ranked passing attack. Kurt Warner, after all, passed for 351 yards. But they limited the damage, allowing no throws longer than 30 yards, holding Anquan Boldin to 87 yards on his 11 catches and Larry Fitzgerald – who would later demonstrate his greatness in the playoffs – to five catches for 71 yards. The defense came up with two second-half takeaways that resulted in 10 points, the difference in a nine-point game.

The special teams were also huge. Hixon's two long kickoff returns "were probably the difference," Coughlin said. "They were huge, big plays in the game." Carney kicked those three field goals and scored 13 points. Arizona tried two onsides kicks in the fourth quarter and the Giants secured both of them.

The Cardinals, who lost at home for the first time, scored on Tim Hightower touchdown runs of four and one yards, Warner's five-yard touchdown pass to Boldin and three Neil Rackers field goals.

Rackers' 44-yarder with 31 seconds remaining lifted the Cardinals to within eight points at 37-29, still within striking distance if they could recover an onside kick. But Smith grabbed the ball and the victory was secured.

Carney's final field goal, a 33-yarder, increased the Giants' lead to 11 points with 1:55 remaining. Ward was stopped about two inches short of what would have been the clinching first down, and Coughlin elected to put more points on the board.

Warner's five-yard touchdown pass to Boldin cut the Giants' lead to 34-26 with 4:02 remaining. The Cards then tried their first onside kick, but former Giant Ralph Brown let the ball skip through his hands and Blackburn recovered. That possession ended in Carney's field goal.

Manning's third touchdown pass of the game, a 10-yarder to Boss, extended the Giants' lead to 31-19 with 11:15 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Giants responded to an Arizona touchdown by marching 80 yards in 10 plays and 4:34. Manning was superb on the drive, completing six of seven passes for 56 yards. That included a big 28-yarder to Boss down the left sideline that moved the ball to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Three plays later, Manning found Smith for a nine-yard gain on third-and-five. Ward's eight-yard run and five-yard catch moved the ball to the 10 and Boss scored on the next play.

The Giants quickly regained possession when rookie Terrell Thomas intercepted a Warner pass for Steve Breaston and returned it to the Arizona 29-yard line. It was Thomas' first career pick. The Giants then moved 20 yards before Carney kicked a 37-yard field goal to increase the lead to 34-19. This was the fourth consecutive game in which the Giants scored at least 30 points.

Hightower's second touchdown pulled the Cardinals to within 24-19 with 49 seconds remaining in the third quarter. On first-and-goal, Hightower went straight up the middle for his ninth touchdown of the season.

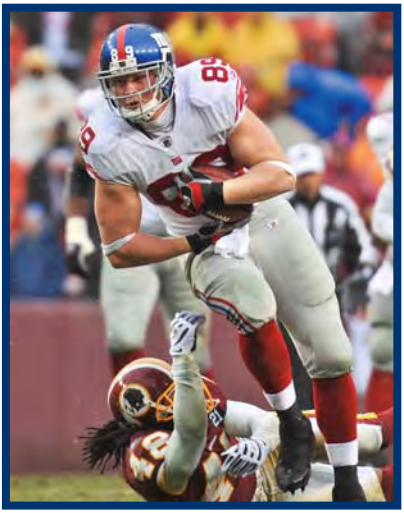

The score capped a 12-play, 90-yard drive that was the longest by a Giants opponent this season. Aaron Ross was called for three penalties on the drive, including two pass interference calls that appeared to be questionable.

Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Hedgecock increased the Giants' lead to 24-12 with 10:35 remaining in the third quarter. On first-and-goal, Manning faked a handoff, looked to the end zone, then threw a short flare pass to Hedgecock, who caught the ball at the five. He sidestepped a tackle attempt by linebacker Monty Beisel and stepped into the end zone for the first touchdown of his four-year career.

The four-play, 40-yard drive was set up by Kiwanuka's recovery of a Warner fumble. On third-and-nine, Warner was sacked by Tuck, who forced the ball out of the quarterback's hands. After a prolonged skirmish, Kiwanuka secured the football in his arms.

The following week in Washington, the Giants proved that nothing can distract them from the completion of their mission.

One day after the news broke that Burress had been wounded in an accidental shooting at a Manhattan nightclub, the Giants' businesslike approached enabled them to win their seventh consecutive game, a 23-7 decision over the Washington Redskins in cold and rainy FedEx Field. The Giants improved to 11-1, the best 12-game start in franchise history. Including their 16-7 opening-night victory, the Giants swept the season series for the second time in three years and have won five of their last six games against Washington.

LARRY FRENCH

Manning passed for 305 yards, his first 300-yard game since Oct. 15, 2007 at Atlanta. That included a 40-yard touchdown pass to Toomer on the first offensive series. The Giants also scored on Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run and Carney field goals of 31, 38 and 39 yards.

Defensively, the Giants held Clinton Portis, the NFL's leading rusher entering the game, to 22 yards on 11 carries. Washington's touchdown came on a second-quarter 29-yard reverse by rookie receiver Devin Thomas.

After forcing the Redskins into a three-and-out on the game's first series, the Giants took possession and promptly drove 71 yards in seven plays, including Manning's 40-yard touchdown pass to Toomer. On first down, Toomer lined up on the right side, got a step in front of cornerback Fred Smoot and caught Manning's perfectly-thrown pass just shy of the goal line and his momentum carried him into the end zone.

It was Toomer's longest regular season score since a 77-yard reception against Buffalo on Nov. 30, 2003 – exactly five years to the day. His longest previous regular season touchdown reception from Manning was a 37-yarder at Philadelphia on Sept. 17, 2006. Toomer scored on a 52-yard catch-and-run in last season's NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Dallas.

Hixon twice kept the drive moving with big third-down catches. On third-and-eight, he took Manning's short pass over the middle and turned it into a 13-yard gain. Three plays later, on third-and-nine, he made a terrific leaping catch on the left sideline for a 15-yard gain that moved the ball to the Redskins' 40-yard line. Toomer scored on the next play.

After another Washington punt, the Giants marched 67 yards in 11 plays, but had to settle for Carney's 31-yard field goal and a 10-0 lead. Boss made the big play on the drive, catching a short Manning pass before leaping over two defenders and turning it into a 24-yard gain. Manning's 15-yard throw to Toomer, plus D'Angelo Hall's penalty for a late hit, gave the Giants a first-and-goal at the eight. But Manning was sacked for a six-yard loss on third down by Anthony Montgomery and Carney came on to kick the field goal.

Carney's 38-yard field goal with 12:01 remaining in the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 13-0.

Washington got on the scoreboard and closed to within 13-7 on Thomas' first career touchdown on a 29-yard reverse with 8:31 remaining in the second quarter. On first down, Campbell handed the ball to Ladell Betts, who gave it to Thomas running from left to right. Because almost everyone on the Giants' defense was moving right, Thomas had a clear path in front of him and was not touched until he was diving over the goal line.

Jacobs' short touchdown run increased the Giants' lead to 20-7 with 8:33 remaining in the third quarter. The big back just missed scoring on first-and-goal, but on second down he took a handoff and bulled his way up the middle and into the end zone for his 12th rushing touchdown of the season.

Carney's third field goal of the game pushed the Giants' advantage to 23-7 with 6:26 remaining in the game. The Giants moved 18 yards in five plays after Tuck stuffed Portis on a fourth-and one run at the Redskins' 39-yard line.

The Giants suffered their first home loss of the season on Dec. 7, falling to the Eagles, 20-14. But they still clinched the NFC East title when Dallas lost later that afternoon in Pittsburgh.

The Giants team that faced Philadelphia didn't look like the Giants of 2008. The NFL's highest-scoring team couldn't score, getting its only offensive touchdown with 15 seconds remaining. The league's leading rushing team ran for only 88 yards, about 72 less than their per-game average. The Giants were second in the NFL in average time of possession, but owned the ball for just 25:06. And the team that hadn't allowed a 100-yard rusher in 14 games saw an opposing back, Westbrook, run for 131 yards.

The Giants had season-low totals of 211 yards and 14 first downs (they also had 14 at Pittsburgh). They converted only three of 11 third down opportunities and went zero-for-three on fourth down. Manning completed less than half of his passes (13 of 27, 48.1 percent) for the first time this year, though at least three of his throws were dropped.

The Giants' only offensive touchdown was a one-yard pass from Manning to Darcy Johnson just 15 seconds before time expired. Their other touchdown was Kevin Dockery's 71-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt on the final play of the second quarter.

EVAN PINKUS

Westbrook gained 203 yards from scrimmage – 131 on 33 rushing attempts and 72 on six catches. He scored both of Philadelphia's touchdowns on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and a 40-yard reception in fourth. David Akers also kicked field goals of 51 and 34 yards for the Eagles.

Akers scored the only points of the first quarter on a 51-yard field goal as time expired. Before the kick, Philadelphia drove 29 yards in five plays, the longest a 32-yard pass from McNabb to Kevin Curtis. That gave the Eagles a first down on the Giants' 30.

When the teams changed sides, the Giants had the 21-mile-per-hour wind at their backs. On the first play of the quarter, Manning threw deep down the middle to Hixon, who dropped the ball on what could have been an 85-yard touchdown pass. The series ended with Trent Cole blocking Carney's 47-yard field goal attempt.

Philadelphia increased its lead to 10-0 on Westbrook's 30-yard touchdown run with 1:52 remaining in the second quarter. On a first down immediately after the two-minute warning, Westbrook took a handoff, slipped past the line of scrimmage and found himself in the open with no Giants defender near him.

It took a tremendous special teams play for the Giants to avoid their first scoreless regular season first half in four years (Dec. 4, 2004 at Washington). Akers lined up for a 32-yard field goal that would have given the Eagles a 13-0 lead at the break. But Tuck jumped high to block the kick. The ball caromed into the backfield, where it was picked up by Kevin Dockery, who sprinted 71 yards for the Giants' first points as time expired in the half.

It was their first touchdown on a blocked field goal return since Oct. 1, 1978, when George Martin brought one back 78 yards at Atlanta. The field goal block was the Giants' second this season; Robbins blocked a 38-yard try by Stover on Nov. 16 vs. Baltimore. It was Dockery's second career touchdown. He scored on a 96-yard interception return at Dallas on Oct. 23, 2006.

Westbrook's second touchdown increased the Eagles' lead to 17-7 with 13:38 remaining in the third quarter. On third-and-11 from the Giants' 40, Westbrook looped from left to right, caught Donovan McNabb's pass at the 35 and easily outran linebacker Pierce to the end zone.

Akers' 34-yard field goal made it 20-7 with 2:09 remaining. The Giants then put together their best drive of the day, moving 70 yards in six plays and ending with Johnson's touchdown.

JERRY PINKUS

The Giants will not remember their last visit to Texas Stadium fondly. On Dec. 14, they lost to the Cowboys, 20-8. Instead of clinching a first-round postseason bye, the Giants lost their second game in a row for the first time since dropping the first two games of the 2007 season.

For the second consecutive week, the offense sputtered. The eight points was the Giants' lowest scoring output since a 30-7 defeat to the New Orleans Saints on Dec. 24, 2006. The Giants rushed for a season-low 72 yards and converted only three of 13 third-down opportunities.

The Giants played without their leading rusher, Jacobs, who did not make the trip because of the knee injury that plagued him for several weeks. Right tackle Kareem McKenzie did not play in the second half after suffering a back injury late in the second quarter. He was replaced by Kevin Boothe. Guard Rich Seubert, who played most of the game despite suffering from a stomach virus, was replaced in the fourth quarter by Grey Ruegamer.

The Giants also lost Moss (calf), Phillips (head), Reuben Droughns (burner) and Wilkinson (knee) to injuries during the game.

Carney field goals from 34 and 47 yards and a safety accounted for the Giants' only scoring.

The Giants allowed eight sacks – three by NFL leader DeMarcus Ware – tying the number of times Manning has been sacked in a game (also Sept. 17, 2006).

Dallas, 9-5, scored on Romo touchdown passes of 34 yards to Patrick Crayton and one yard to Deon Anderson and rookie Tashard Choice's backbreaking 38-yard run with 2:16 remaining.

The Giants had scored five points in 1:18 to pull within 14-8 with less than six minutes remaining. But Dallas made two of its three third-down conversions on a 66-yard drive that ended with Choice's score.

As the fourth quarter reached the midway point, it appeared the Giants would go down quietly. But on a third-and-12 from the Dallas six-yard line, Kiwanuka and Tuck sacked Romo in the end zone for a safety. Romo fumbled the ball, but it rolled out of bounds. That pulled the Giants to within 14-5.

After the free kick, the Giants took possession at their 40 and Manning promptly hit Hixon for a 19-yard gain. Ward (who started for Jacobs and rushed for 64 yards) picked up 12 yards to the Dallas 29. But the drive stalled there and Carney came on to kick his 47-yarder, making it 14-8. If the defense could get a stop, the Giants would get the ball with a chance to win.

The Cowboys took possession on their 34 and were pushed back 10 yards because of a holding penalty. But on second-and-20, Choice gained 17 yards up the right side. Barber then ran for nine yards and the first down. Another holding call left Dallas facing a second-and-23. But Romo's throw to Choice gained 14 yards and on third-and-nine, a pass to Witten picked up 11 yards. Choice scored the clincher on the next play.

Romo's one-yard pass to Anderson had increased the Cowboys' lead to 14-3 with 12:13 remaining in the fourth quarter. On second-and-goal, Anderson slipped out of the backfield and found himself all alone in the end zone when he caught Romo's pass.

The score concluded a nine-play, 72-yard drive that included a pair of 23-yard gains – the first on a Romo pass to Miles Austin, the second on a Choice run. Witten's 13-yard reception gave the Cowboys a first down at the one. After Choice was stopped for no gain, Anderson scored the touchdown.

The Giants trailed at halftime, 7-3, and gained only 78 yards in the first two quarters – 30 on the ground. The defense held Dallas to just nine yards on the ground in the half.

It was the Giants' lowest-scoring half since Dec. 16, 2007, when they fell behind Washington, 16-3, on their way to a 22-10 loss. It was the second game in a row the Giants failed to score an offensive touchdown in the first half. The Giants scored their first points on Carney's 37-yard field goal with 4:52 remaining in the second quarter.

Before the kick, the Giants drove 66 yards in 10 plays following a Dallas touchdown. The longest play on the drive was a short Manning pass that Boss turned into a 23-yard gain. Later in the series, the Giants faced a third-and-11, but Manning fired a pass down them middle to Smith that gained 14 yards to the Cowboys' 19-yard line.

Manning was sacked for a three-yard loss before connecting with Hixon for six yards. But Manning's third-down pass for Boss was incomplete and Carney came on to kick the field goal.

Dallas scored the game's first points on Romo's 34-yard touchdown pass to Crayton with 11:11 remaining in the second quarter. On second-and-four, Romo scrambled to evade the rush, then threw downfield to Crayton, who got behind the secondary and caught the ball at the goal line.

Coughlin challenged the touchdown, claiming Romo was beyond the line of scrimmage when he released the ball. After review, referee Walt Anderson upheld the ruling on the field and the touchdown stood.

On Dec. 21, the Giants ensured that the NFC's path to Super Bowl XLIII would cut right through Giants Stadium, thanks to one of the Giants' most exciting and memorable victories in memory.

With the conference's No. 1 seed on the line, the Giants overcame deficits of 11 points in the second quarter and eight points in the fourth to secure a thrilling 34-28 overtime triumph over the Carolina Panthers. Jacobs scored the winning points on his third touchdown of the game, a two-yard run with 5:03 elapsed in the extra period.

"It was a heck of a football game," Coughlin said, "and to finish and win that way was really outstanding."

The Giants improved to 12-3, their first 12-win season since 2000. They had secured a first-round bye earlier in the day when Minnesota lost to Atlanta.

The Giants benefitted from a long list of outstanding performances, but the most vital were turned in by the offense line and running backs Ward and Jacobs. The Giants rushed for 301 yards, the fifth-highest total in franchise history. Ward ran for 215 yards on only 15 carries, a remarkable 14.3-yard average that was the highest in NFL history by a back with at least 15 rushing attempts.

Jacobs complemented Ward by running for 87 yards and those career-high three scores, one week after missing the Dallas game with a sore knee. He scored on runs of two, one and two yards. The Giants also got Manning's four-yard touchdown pass to Boss and two Carney field goals.

DeAngelo Williams scored all of Carolina's touchdowns, on runs of 13, five, one and 30 yards to become the first Giants opponent to score four touchdowns in a game since New Orleans receiver Joe Horn caught scoring passes of 50, 13, seven and 18 yards in the Superdome on Dec. 14, 2003. The last opponent to rush for four touchdowns was Dallas' Emmitt Smith on Sept. 4, 1995 in Giants Stadium. Smith scored on a 60-yard run and three one-yarders.

Carolina had a chance to win the game in the waning moments of regulation, but John Kasay's 50-yard field goal attempt was wide left. Both teams punted in the overtime before the Giants took possession on their own 13 with 12:20 remaining. On the first play from scrimmage, Ward scampered for a career-long 51-yard gain to the Carolina 36-yard line. Three plays later, on a critical third-and seven from the 33 – likely outside of Carney's field goal range – Ward ran for 14 yards. On the next play, he picked up 17 more to the two. Jacobs scored the game-winner on the next play. Ward ran for 82 yards on the deciding 87-yard drive.

Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run and Manning's two–point conversion pass to Hixon – the Giants' first in more than three years – tied the game at 28-28 with 3:48 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The 56-yard drive was set up when Thomas downed Jeff Feagles' punt at the one-yard line. The defense forced the Panthers into a three-and-out and after the punt, the Giants took over at their 44.

Manning quickly hit Hixon for a 13-yard gain. Two plays later, Manning found Toomer on the right side for 15 yards. On third and five, Manning hooked up with Boss for a 12-yard gain to the five.

Manning then threw into the end zone for Hixon, who drew a pass interference penalty by Ken Lucas. It was the first defensive pass interference penalty called on the Panthers all season. The infraction moved the ball to the one-yard line. Jacobs scored on the next play.

The following two-point conversion was the Giants' first since Nov. 27, 2005 at Seattle, where Manning threw to Shockey.

Williams' 30-yard touchdown run increased Carolina's lead to 28-20 with 12:50 remaining in the fourth quarter. The score capped a seven-play, 63-yard drive that included Jake Delhomme's 19-yard pass to Dwayne Jarrett on the play immediately preceding the touchdown.

Manning's pass to Boss pulled the Giants to within a point with 59 seconds remaining in the third quarter. On third-and-goal, Manning dropped back to pass and had plenty of time to survey the field before finding the tight end standing alone in the end zone.

The score ended a 12-play, 84-yard drive that took 8:36 to complete and featured an 11-yard Manning pass to Boss on third-and-10, receptions by Toomer (12 yards) and Hedgecock (13 yards) and Ward's 22-yard run. Hedgecock's catch gave the Giants a first-and-goal at the eight. Jacobs gained six yards, then lost two before Manning and Boss hooked up for the touchdown.

The Giants trailed at halftime, 21-13, the most points they had allowed in any half in 2008.

Carney's 35-yard field goal with 50 seconds remaining in the second quarter lifted the Giants to within eight points.

Williams' third touchdown on a one-yard run with 4:45 remaining in the second quarter extended Carolina's lead to 21-10. Carolina covered 65 yards in only four plays – including a 60-yard Delhomme pass to Muhsin Muhammad that was the third-longest play given up by the Giants in 2008.

On the first play of the drive, Delhomme threw long down the left side for Muhammad. Ross seemed to be in position to knock down the ball, but it sailed through his hands to Muhammad, who caught it at the 25 and ran to the five.

Another pass to Muhammad advanced the ball to the three. Delhomme then passed quickly to the left sideline for Steve Smith, who was credited with a touchdown. But Coughlin challenged the ruling, saying Smith's knee was down before he reached the end zone. After review, referee Walt Coleman overturned the call on the field and spotted the ball at the half-yard line. But the Giants' relief was only temporary, as Williams scored on the next play.

The Panthers regained the lead at 14-10 on Williams' second touchdown, on a five-yard run with 8:12 remaining in the second quarter. For the second time in as many possessions, Williams lost two yards on a first-and-goal play, then scored on second down.

The Giants took a 10-7 lead on Jacobs' two-yard touchdown run with 13:38 remaining in the second quarter. Manning's seven-yard pass to Steve Smith – yes, each team had a Steve Smith - gave the Giants a first-and-goal at the seven. Jacobs quickly picked up five yards to the two. On second down, he took a handoff and bulled his way to the score, using a second effort to get the ball over goal line.

Carolina took a 7-3 lead on Williams' 13-yard run with 6:16 remaining in the first quarter. On second-and-13, Williams took a handoff from Delhomme, shot through a hole at the line of scrimmage and raced untouched to the end zone for the touchdown.

The Giants scored on the game's opening series on Carney's 32-yard field goal. After taking the opening kickoff, the Giants moved 61 yards in eight plays before Carney scored with 9:24 remaining in the first quarter.

JERRY PINKUS

The big play on the drive was Manning's 40-yard pass to Hixon. On third-and-six from the Giants' 42, Manning was spun around but escaped an attempted sack by defensive end Charles Johnson. He then fired a pass down the right side to Hixon, who had opened the game with a nine-yard reception. The receiver's second catch gave the Giants a first down on the Carolina 18-yard line.

Two Jacobs runs netted four yards before Manning's third-down pass for Ward fell incomplete. Carney then opened the scoring.

The Giants concluded their regular season on Dec. 28 with a 20-19 loss to the Minnesota Vikings in the Metrodome. Ryan Longwell kicked a 50-yard field goal as time expired for the game-winning points for the NFC North-champion Vikings.

Under normal circumstances, it would have been a crushing defeat for the Giants. But with the division title and the No. 1 postseason seed locked up, they were able to play the game on their terms. That meant keeping four starters out of uniform and letting most others play reduced minutes. Manning played only the first half. Only two defensive starters were on the field when Minnesota drove for the game-winning field goal.

The inactive starters were Jacobs (knee), Ross (concussion), Boss (ankle/concussion) and defensive tackle Barry Cofield (knee).

The individual highlight of the game was turned in by Ward, who rushed for 77 yards to increase his season total to 1,025. Ward and Jacobs (1,089 yards this season) became the fourth pair of running backs – and the fifth set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

The Giants fell behind, 10-0, scored 19 consecutive points to take a nine-point lead in the fourth quarter, then lost it down the stretch. The Giants scored on David Carr's 23-yard touchdown pass to Hixon and Carney field goals of 51, 30, 42 and 20 yards. It was the third time this season Carney kicked four field goals in a game and it increased his total to 35, which ties the franchise record set by Ali Haji-Sheikh in 1983 and matched by Jay Feely in 2005.

The visitors might have held on had Carney not pushed a 48-yard field goal attempt wide right when it was 19-17 with 3:17 remaining in the fourth quarter. The last of Carney's 38 field goal attempts this season was the only one that wasn't good or blocked. His .921 percentage was easily the best in franchise history.

Minnesota got a 67-yard touchdown run from Adrian Peterson, a 54-yard touchdown pass from Tarvaris Jackson to Bernard Berrian and Longwell field goals of 48 and 50 yards.

Berrian's long touchdown catch lifted the Vikings to within two points with 9:26 remaining in the game. On a second-and-10, he got loose down the left sideline, caught the ball at the Giants' 25 and sidestepped Kenny Phillips' tackle attempt on the way to the end zone.

Clinging to their 19-17 lead, the Giants advanced from their own 25 to the Minnesota 30-yard line. But Carney's kick was no good and the Vikings needed only a field goal of their own to win the game.

The final series began on the Vikings' 38-yard line. The only starters on the field for the Giants' defense were linebacker Danny Clark and safety James Butler. Jackson hit Berrian for a key nine-yard gain on third-and-eight just prior to the two-minute warning. Three plays later, he converted another third down opportunity with an eight-yard pass to former Giant Visanthe Shiancoe that moved the ball to the 30. The Vikings lost two yards and threw an incomplete pass and the teams called a combined three timeouts in the final nine seconds before Longwell booted the game-winner. He hit all six of his attempts from 50 yards and beyond this season.

After enjoying the bye they earned as the top seed in the NFC, the Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their season end with a 23-11 loss to the Eagles in a divisional playoff game in Giants Stadium.

The Giants outgained Philly, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but failed to score a touchdown, despite advancing as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times – and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession – but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble.

The Giants, who finished 12-5, were eliminated by their NFC East rivals for the second time in three seasons. They became the first No. 1 seed in the NFC to lose to a sixth seed in 10 such meetings.

"No excuses. We had an opportunity to come out and play a great game and we didn't capitalize on it," Tuck said. "Give their guys credit – they came in here and beat us. As tough as that is to swallow, that's exactly what happened."

LARRY FRENCH

"It's tough," guard Rich Seubert said. "You can't do it every year. We had it in the palm of our hands this year playing at home, but we let the fans down and we let ourselves down."

The Giants scored on Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. The Giants failed to score a touchdown for the second time in their last four games; they didn't reach the end zone at Dallas on Dec. 14. Manning threw two interceptions.

Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches). The Giants were unable to sack McNabb for the third time this season.

The game started well for the Giants, but the failure to capitalize on opportunities surfaced immediately.

Bradshaw's 65-yard return on the opening kickoff enabled the Giants to begin the game's first offensive possession at the Eagles' 35-yard line. But on the first snap from scrimmage, Manning failed to hook up with Steve Smith, who was open down the field.

But the Giants still had a chance to score a touchdown. Jacobs' three-yard-run on fourth-and-two kept the drive alive and Manning's 13-yard pass to Darcy Johnson gave the Giants a first down at the Philly 11. But a third-down pass to Ward gained five yards when the Giants needed eight and Carney came on to kick a 22-yard field goal for the game's first points.

The Giants forced an Eagles punt and began the next series on their own 13-yard line. But on the first play, Manning's overthrown pass for Hixon flew right to cornerback Asante

Samuel, who returned it 25 yards to the Giants' two. Three plays and a Giants holding penalty later, McNabb stuck the ball over the goal line on a quarterback sneak for the touchdown that gave Philadelphia a 7-3 lead.

McNabb's touchdown was the first of five lead changes.

The Giants closed to within 7-5 on a safety when McNabb was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone with 12:34 remaining in the second quarter. On second-and-nine from the six, McNabb was pursued in the end zone by Tuck and Robbins. Feeling the heat, he flipped the ball to the right side, but no one in an Eagles uniform was in the area. Referee Mike Carey flagged McNabb for grounding and the Giants picked up two points.

It was just the second safety in the Giants' 44-game postseason history. The other was George Martin's sack of Denver's John Elway in Super Bowl XXI.

After the free kick, the Giants drove from their own 32 to the Philadelphia 28, but Carney's 46-yard field goal was wide right.

On the ensuing Eagles possession, Dockery intercepted a McNabb pass intended for DeSean Jackson. The Giants drove from their own 20 to the Philadelphia 21-yard line. But Manning's pass to Ward on third-and-five gained…four yards. Carney then kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Giants an 8-7 lead with 1:33 remaining in the second quarter.

But the slim advantage did not hold until halftime. Philadelphia used the last 1:33 of the second quarter to drive 68 yards, a possession that ended with Akers' 25-yard field goal and 10-8 lead that Philly took into the locker room.

The Eagles had to convert only one third down on the series, which included McNabb passes of 14 and nine yards to Jackson and seven yards to Westbrook, as well as the quarterback's nine-yard scramble.

The Eagles got the ball – but the Giants got a break – at the start of the third quarter.

On the second play of the second half, Robbins intercepted a McNabb pass for Curtis that was tipped by Blackburn. Robbins returned the ball 17 yards to the Eagles' 33-yard line. Jacobs picked up 16 yards on a pair of runs, setting up a second-and-five at the 17.

But the Giants, as they had previously, couldn't get the ball into the end zone from in close. Manning's second-down pass was dropped by Ward and his third-down throw to a closely-covered Boss was incomplete. Carney then kicked a 36-yard field goal for the Giants' third lead of the game, at 11-10.

Akers' second field goal gave Philadelphia its third lead of the game at 13-10 with 7:45 remaining in the third quarter. Before the kick, the Eagles marched 58 yards in 11 plays, the most critical being successful conversions on a third-and-20 and a third-and-10.

The first of those plays began at the Giants' 15-yard line. McNabb sidestepped onrushing ends Justin Tuck and Mathias Kiwanuka and threw to Jason Avant for a 21-yard gain, which Coughlin later called a "huge gain."

Manning's 34-yard pass to Hixon set up Carney's 47-yard field goal attempt, which was wide left. Carney, who missed only one field goal all season that wasn't blocked, misfired on two in the same game for the first time since Oct. 9, 2005, when he played for New Orleans at Green Bay.

The Eagles immediately drove 63 yards, capped by McNabb's one-yard pass to Celek on the first play of the fourth quarter, which increased Philly's lead to 20-11.

The Giants thought they had a first down on their next possession on a run by Ward, but the officials spotted the ball just short. Coughlin challenged the spot, but Carey upheld the call after review. Manning then got stuffed on fourth-and-inches.

The Eagles punted, but the Giants' drive ended when Jacobs was stopped short on fourth-and-two. Manning's interception and Smith's fumble ended the Giants' last two opportunities with the ball – and the season.

GAME 1 - REDSKINS VS. GIANTS

AT EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ SEPT. 4, 2008

GIANTS 16, REDSKINS 7

The Giants opened their season with a 16-7 victory at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing the previous season's Super Bowl champions. Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy.

The Giants continued to thrill their fans when the game started as they earned their first season-opening victory since 2005.

All of the scoring was in the first half. Eli Manning crossed the goal line on a one-yard run and John Carney, the 44-year-old kicker signed just five days before the game, had a successful Giants debut with field goals of 24, 25 and 47 yards. The Giants also benefitted from big performances by Brandon Jacobs (116 rushing yards) and Plaxico Burress (10 receptions for 133 yards). Manning completed 19 of 35 passes for 216 yards and an interception.

But it was the defense that powered the victory. Washington gained only 209 yards, including 51 in the first half and 93 in their final two possessions, when they were in desperation mode. The Redskins had 11 first downs, 84 rushing yards and owned the ball for only 24:17. They went three-and-out on four of their seven possessions in the first three quarters. Washington's only score was a 12-yard touchdown pass from Jason Campbell to Santana Moss with 13 seconds remaining in the first half. Justin Tuck had the first sack of what became a Pro Bowl season.

The Giants carried over their 2007 success on the road into a new season with a resounding 41-13 triumph over the Rams in St. Louis, their most one-sided road victory since Oct. 27, 1996 (35-7 at Detroit). The victory was the Giants' 11th in a row on the road (eight in the regular season and three in the postseason). Including their neutral site victory in Super Bowl XLII, it was their 12th consecutive triumph away from home.

Eli Manning completed 20 of 29 passes for 260 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. The scoring throws went to Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Ahmad Bradshaw and the latter also closed the scoring with a 31-yard run. The offense rolled up 441 yards and 25 first downs. Brandon Jacobs (93), Derrick Ward (58) and Bradshaw (52) became the first Giants trio to each rush for more than 50 yards in a game in 30 years. Justin Tuck retuned an interception 41 yards for a touchdown and had two sacks. Robbins also had a pair of sacks.

After the Rams pulled to within 20-13, the Giants scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter. Bradshaw turned a short Manning pass into an 18-yard touchdown. On the Rams' next possession, Tuck picked off Marc Bulger and scored his first NFL touchdown. Domenik Hixon's 50-yard punt return set up Bradshaw's 31-yard touchdown run around left end. Manning had earlier thrown touchdown passes of 33 yards to Burress and 10 yards to Toomer.

GAME 3 - BENGALS VS. GIANTS

GIANTS 26, BENGALS 23 (OT)

The Giants surged to their first 3-0 start since 2000 with an exciting 26-23 overtime victory at home against Cincinnati. John Carney's 22-yard field goal 6:21 into the extra period ended a wild game that included four lead changes and three ties. The teams scored three times in the final 4:39 of regulation, including a touchdown by the Giants with 1:50 remaining and Shayne Graham's game-tying field goal with as time expired in the fourth quarter.

T.J. Houshmandzadeh caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Carson Palmer to give the Bengals a 20-16 lead with 4:39 remaining. Eli Manning and the offense responded with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a four-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Boss and a 23-20 advantage with only 1:50 remaining. Cincinnati's Antonio Chatman was stopped at the three-yard line after an 11-yard catch with just four seconds left. Graham then kicked his third field goal to send the game into overtime.

The teams traded punts in the extra period before the Giants took possession on their own 34–yard line with 10:28 remaining. Manning threw passes of 28 yards to Plaxico Burress and 31 yards to Amani Toomer to set up Carney's game-winners, his fourth field goal of the game.

Manning completed 26 of 43 passes for 289 yards. Steve Smith caught seven passes for 60 yards and Derrick Ward was the leading rusher with 80 yards. Brandon Jacobs scored the Giants' other touchdown on a one-yard run. The defense sacked Palmer six times, including two by Fred Robbins. Antonio Pierce had 13 tackles (10 solo).

GAME 4 - SEAHAWKS VS. GIANTS

AT EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ OCT. 5, 2008

GIANTS 44, SEAHAWKS 6

Coming off their bye, the Giants rolled to a 44-6 rout of Seattle, their largest margin of victory in a regular season game since a 62-10 victory over Philadelphia on Nov. 26, 1972. The Giants improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1990.

The Giants scored on their first six possessions and did not punt until the third quarter. They gained 523 yards (254 on the ground), the eighth-highest total in franchise history. The Giants had 12 plays that gained 15 or more yards. Eli Manning completed 19 of 25 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions for a career-high 136.6 passer rating. Domenik Hixon, Amani Toomer and Sinorice Moss caught four passes apiece. Hixon and Moss got their first career touchdown receptions on passes from Manning and Moss added a second score from David Carr. Brandon Jacobs rushed a season-high 136 yards and two touchdowns.

The Giants were just as dominant defensively, limiting the Seahawks to a pair of Olindo Mare field goals, 187 total yards (74 on the ground) and one success in 11 third down opportunities.

The Giants needed only four plays to travel 91 yards on their first offensive series. Jacobs touched the ball on each of the first three plays – a nine-yard catch, six-yard run and then a career-long 44-yard jaunt up the left side that gave the Giants a first down on the Seattle 32-yard line. Manning then threw deep for Hixon, who got a step on cornerback Kelly Jennings and secured the ball for the touchdown that started the rout.

The Giants' reign of success away from home hit a roadblock in Cleveland, where they suffered their first defeat of the year to the Browns, 35-14. The loss was the Giants' first since the 2007 regular season finale and ended their road winning streak at 11 games (eight regular season, three postseason), which was tied for the second-longest in NFL history.

The Giants were outscored in the second half, 18-0. Eli Manning threw three interceptions, including one that was returned 94 yards for a touchdown by Eric Wright midway through the fourth quarter. The offense scored just two touchdowns despite four trips inside the Cleveland 10-yard line. The defense surrendered 454 yards, had neither a sack nor a takeaway, never forced a punt and enabled the Browns to convert nine of 13 third-down opportunities, a 69 percent success rate.

Derek Anderson threw touchdown passes to Darnell Dinkins and Braylon Edwards, Jamal Lewis ran in for another score and Phil Dawson kicked two field goals for the Browns. Anderson threw for 310 yards and Edwards caught five passes for 154 yards.

Brandon Jacobs scored on a seven-yard run and Manning threw a short touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress for the Giants.

After Dawson opened the scoring with a 28-yard field goal, the Giants went up, 7-3, on Jacobs' seven-yard touchdown run. The Browns regained the advantage on Lewis' four-yard touchdown run, then increased their lead to 17-7 on Anderson's 22-yard touchdown pass to Dinkins, a former Giant.

GAME 6 - 49ERS VS. GIANTS

AT EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ OCT. 19, 2008

GIANTS 29, 49ERS 17

The Giants' defense turned in an outstanding performance in a 29-17 home victory over the San Francisco 49ers. The unit had three takeaways, sacked J.T. O'Sullivan six times (one of which resulted in a safety) and limited the 49ers to 35 rushing yards, including 11 on 11 carries by star running back Frank Gore.

The Niners scored only one offensive touchdown, on a 30-yard pass to rookie Josh Morgan. They also got a field goal from Joe Nedney and Nate Clements' 74-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt.

The Giants scored on Brandon Jacobs touchdown runs of 26 and two yards, Eli Manning's six-yard scoring pass to Burress, a pair of John Carney field goals and the safety.

Jacobs scored the Giants' first two touchdowns, capping drives that covered 54 and 73 yards. Carney added a 21-yard field goal to give the Giants a 17-10 halftime lead.

The Niners pulled to within seven points on Clements' return touchdown with 1:50 remaining in the third quarter. Carney tried a 35-yard field goal, but Manny Lawson leapfrogged over the Giants' blockers and got his hands on the ball. It bounced to Clements, who ran far ahead of the field for the touchdown. Instead of owning a commanding 27-10 advantage, the Giants' lead was a precarious 24-17.

But the Giants shutout San Francisco in the fourth quarter, when Carney added a 48-yard field goal and Justin Tuck sacked O'Sullivan and forced a fumble. The ball rolled out of the end zone for the safety and the Giants' final two points.

GAME 7 - GIANTS VS. STEELERS

AT PITTSBURGH, PA OCT. 26, 2008

GIANTS 21, STEELERS 14

The fans in Pittsburgh were treated to a game befitting two of the NFL's storied franchises – hard-hitting, fiercely fought, thrilling and played before an emotional, raucous crowd – a playoff-type game at the end of October won by the Giants, 21-14.

The defending champion Giants outscored the team that would eventually capture the title 12-0 in the fourth quarter. Eli Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Boss with 3:07 remaining enabled the visitors to take advantage of another splendid performance by the defense.

Although the Giants had a common point total, they reached it via unconventional means – John Carney field goals of 26, 35, 25 and 24 yards, a safety on an errant snap on a punt by a backup snapper and Boss' touchdown. The Steelers scored on Mewelde Moore's 32-yard run in the first quarter and Ben Roethlisberger's 65-yard pass to Nate Washington in the third.

Pittsburgh entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 defense and a league-high 25 sacks. But the Giants had no turnovers and allowed no sacks. The Giants' defense, meanwhile, intercepted four Ben Roethlisberger passes and sacked him five times – three by Kiwanuka, and one apiece by Justin Tuck and Dave Tollefson. Pittsburgh gained only 249 yards, totaled 12 first downs and owned the ball for only 25:36.

Manning completed 19 of 32 passes for 199 yards on a day when the Giants rushed for only 83 yards on 35 carries, a 2.4-yard average. His favorite receiver was Derrick Ward, who caught five passes for 43 yards. Boss added four receptions for 34 yards.

GAME 8 - COWBOYS VS. GIANTS

AT EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ NOV. 2, 2008

GIANTS 35, COWBOYS 14

The Giants closed out the first half of their season with a 35-14 victory over the Dallas Cowboys. The victory improved the Giants' record to 7-1, including 5-0 in Giants Stadium, their best midseason mark and their longest home winning streak since 1990.

Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 147 yards and threw touchdown passes to Kevin Boss, Steve Smith and Amani Toomer in the first half. Brandon Jacobs (117 yards on 17 carries) and Derrick Ward (63 yards on 12 attempts) ran in for second-half scores. The Giants scored 21 points off turnovers – two interceptions by Corey Webster in the first half off Brad Johnson and another by James Butler in the third quarter off Brooks Bollinger. The offense scored touchdowns all five times it ventured inside Dallas' 20-yard line.

The defense was in control all day, keeping the Dallas offense out of the end zone until the fourth quarter, neutralizing Marion Barber (54 yards on 19 carries), Terrell Owens (five catches for 36 yards and a touchdown) and harassing Johnson and Bollinger with four sacks and constant pressure. The Giants had four takeaways for the second week in a row and held the Cowboys to 183 total yards, 102 passing yards and 11 first downs.

But the Giants were not flawless. Dallas scored its first touchdown on a 23-yard interception return by rookie cornerback Mike Jenkins. The Cowboys also scored on Bollinger's eight-yard touchdown pass to Owens early in the fourth quarter.

GAME 9 - GIANTS VS. EAGLES

AT PHILADELPHIA, PA NOV. 9, 2008

GIANTS 36, EAGLES 31

The Giants won their fourth consecutive regular season game in Lincoln Financial Field with a 36-31 triumph over the Eagles. They dominated the game statistically, outgaining the Eagles, 401-300, including 219-106 on the ground, and owning sizeable advantages in first downs (26-17) and time of possession (39:10-20:50).

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Plaxico Burress and Kevin Boss, Brandon Jacobs ran for two scores and John Carney kicked field goals of 27, 26 and 28 yards for the Giants. For Philadelphia, rookie DeSean Jackson scored on a nine-yard run, Donovan McNabb threw touchdown passes of 10 yards to Jason Avant, seven yards to Hank Baskett and two yards to Kevin Curtis and David Akers kicked a 29-yard field goal.

The game turned in the Giants' favor with 6:18 remaining in the third quarter and the visitors trailing, 24-20. The Giants had moved from their own 31 to the Philadelphia 20, where they faced a third-and-10. Manning completed a 17-yard pass to Kevin Boss that appeared to give the Giants a first-and-goal at the three. But Manning was penalized for an illegal forward pass, because an official ruled he had released the ball beyond the line of scrimmage. The infraction would have pushed the Giants back and forced them to attempt a field goal.

But Tom Coughlin challenged the call and after review, referee Terry McAulay said Manning's back foot was behind the line of scrimmage and upheld the completion. Two plays later, Jacobs scored a touchdown on a three-yard run that gave the Giants a lead they would never relinquish at 27-24.

GAME 10 - RAVENS VS. GIANTS

GIANTS 30, RAVENS 10

The irresistible force overcame the seemingly immovable object in the Giants' 30-10 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. The Giants entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack, while Baltimore had the league's top-ranked run defense. The collision was no contest. The Giants rushed for 207 yards, averaged 6.3 yards a carry and rolled to their first-ever victory over the Ravens. It was the Giants' third consecutive 200-yard rushing game – the first time they did that since 1952 – and their franchise-record fifth of the season. Baltimore had allowed an average of only 65.4 rushing yards a game. No team had run for more than 76 and no back for more than 73. The Ravens had not given up a 200-yard rushing game since Oct. 5, 1997 against Pittsburgh.

But Brandon Jacobs had 70 yards – in the first quarter. That included a 36-yard run. Ahmad Bradshaw ripped off a 77-yard fourth-quarter run on his way to a team-high 96 yards. Derrick Ward chipped in with 41 yards on 11 carries, including a 22-yarder, and led the team with four catches for 54 yards.

In addition to the running backs' heroics, Eli Manning threw a touchdown pass to tight end Darcy Johnson, Aaron Ross returned an interception 50 yards for another score and Lawrence Tynes, doing all the kicking for the only time in 2008, booted a 19-yard field goal.

The Giants' run defense was also outstanding. Running backs Willis McGahee (nine carries for 18 yards), Ray Rice (8-19) and Le'Ron McClain (2-10) combined for 47 yards on 19 attempts. Baltimore's leading rusher was rookie quarterback Joe Flacco with 57 yards on six carries.

Brandon Jacobs (knee) was not in uniform and Plaxico Burress (sore hamstring) lasted just one series. But not even the loss of their leading ground-gainer and most dangerous receiver could derail the Giants, who defeated the Cardinals, 37-29, in University of Phoenix Stadium – the site of their epic victory over New England in Super Bowl XLII.

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Amani Toomer, Madison Hedgecock and Kevin Boss, Derrick Ward scored on a one-yard run and John Carney kicked three field goals for the Giants, who got big contributions from a long list of players.

Domenik Hixon had 269 total yards (180 on kickoff returns, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns, plus an 11-yard rush), tied for the third-highest total in Giants history. Hixon had kickoff returns of 83 and 68 yards in the second quarter. He also took over at split end for Burress and led the team with six catches for 57 yards. Ward started for Jacobs and rushed for 69 yards on 20 carries and caught four passes for 30 yards. Manning completed 26 of 33 passes (a career-best 79 percent completion rate) for 240 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Arizona's Kurt Warner passed for 351 yards. But the Giants limited the damage, allowing no throws longer than 30 yards, holding Anquan Boldin to 87 yards on his 11 catches and Larry Fitzgerald – who would later demonstrate his greatness in the playoffs – to five catches for 71 yards. The defense came up with two second-half takeaways that resulted in 10 points, the difference in a nine-point game.

GAME 12 - GIANTS VS. REDSKINS

AT LANDOVER, MD NOV. 30, 2008

GIANTS 23, REDSKINS 7

The Giants improved to 11-1 – the best 12-game start in franchise history – with a 23-7 victory over the Redskins in FedEx Field.

Eli Manning passed for 305 yards, his only 300-yard game of the season. That included a 40-yard touchdown pass to Amani Toomer on the first offensive series. The Giants also scored on Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run and John Carney field goals of 31, 38 and 39 yards.

Defensively, the Giants held Clinton Portis, the NFL's leading rusher entering the game, to 22 yards on 11 carries. Washington's touchdown came on a second-quarter 29-yard reverse by rookie receiver Devin Thomas.

After forcing the Redskins into a three-and-out on the game's first series, the Giants took possession and promptly drove 71 yards in seven plays, including Manning's 40-yard touchdown pass to Toomer. On first down, Toomer lined up on the right side, got a step in front of cornerback Fred Smoot and caught Manning's perfectly-thrown pass just shy of the goal line and his momentum carried him into the end zone.

It was Toomer's longest regular season score since a 77-yard reception against Buffalo on Nov. 30, 2003 – exactly five years to the day.

After another Washington punt, the Giants marched 67 yards in 11 plays, but had to settle for Carney's 31-yard field goal and a 10-0 lead. Kevin Boss made the big play on the drive, catching a short Manning pass before leaping over two defenders and turning it into a 24-yard gain. Carney's 38-yard field goal with 12:01 remaining in the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 13-0.

GAME 13 - EAGLES VS. GIANTS

AT EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ DEC. 7, 2008

EAGLES 20, GIANTS 14

The Giants suffered their first home loss of the season on Dec. 7, falling to the Eagles, 20-14. But they still clinched the NFC East title when Dallas lost later that afternoon in Pittsburgh.

Although they entered the game as the NFL's highest-scoring team, the Giants didn't score an offensive touchdown until 15 seconds remained. They rushed for only 88 yards, about 72 less than their per-game average. The Giants were second in the NFL in average time of possession, but owned the ball for just 25:06. And the team that hadn't allowed a 100-yard rusher in 14 games saw an opposing back, Brian Westbrook, run for 131 yards.

The Giants had season-low totals of 211 yards and 14 first downs. They converted only three of 11 third down opportunities and went zero-for-three on fourth down. The Giants' only offensive touchdown was a one-yard pass from Manning to Darcy Johnson in the waning moments. Their other touchdown was Kevin Dockery's 71-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt on the final play of the second quarter. It was their first touchdown on a blocked field goal return since Oct. 1, 1978, when George Martin brought one back 78 yards at Atlanta. The touchdown was the second of Dockery's second career; he scored on a 96-yard interception return at Dallas on Oct. 23, 2006.

Westbrook gained 203 yards from scrimmage – 131 on 33 rushing attempts and 72 on six catches. He scored both of Philadelphia's touchdowns on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and a 40-yard reception in fourth. David Akers also kicked field goals of 51 and 34 yards for the Eagles.

GAME 14 - GIANTS VS. COWBOYS

AT IRVING, TX DEC. 14, 2008

COWBOYS 20, GIANTS 8

The Giants will not remember their last visit to Texas Stadium fondly. On Dec. 14, they lost to the Cowboys, 20-8, losing their second game in a row for the first time since dropping the first two games of the 2007 season.

The eight points were the Giants' lowest scoring output since a 30-7 defeat to the New Orleans Saints on Dec. 24, 2006. Playing without leading rusher Brandon Jacobs (knee), the Giants rushed for a season-low 72 yards and converted only three of 13 third-down opportunities.

John Carney field goals from 34 and 47 yards and a safety accounted for the Giants' only scoring. The Giants allowed eight sacks – three by DeMarcus Ware – tying the most times Eli Manning has been sacked in a game (also Sept. 17, 2006).

Dallas scored on Tony Romo touchdown passes of 34 yards to Patrick Crayton and one yard to Deon Anderson and rookie Tashard Choice's backbreaking 38-yard run with 2:16 remaining.

The Giants had scored five points in 1:18 to pull within 14-8 with less than six minutes remaining. But Dallas made two of its three third-down conversions on a 66-yard drive that ended with Choice's score.

Mathias Kiwanuka and Justin Tuck sacked Romo in the end zone for a safety. Romo fumbled the ball, but it rolled out of bounds. That pulled the Giants to within 14-5.

After the free kick, the Giants drove 31 yards before Carney's field goal lifted them to within six points at 14-8. But Choice soon scored the clincher with his touchdown run.

With the NFC's No. 1 seed on the line, the Giants overcame deficits of 11 points in the second quarter and eight points in the fourth to secure a thrilling 34-28 overtime triumph over the Carolina Panthers. Brandon Jacobs scored the winning points on his third touchdown of the game, a two-yard run with 5:03 elapsed in the extra period.

The Giants benefitted from a long list of outstanding performances, but the most vital were turned in by the offense line and running backs Derrick Ward and Jacobs. The Giants rushed for 301 yards, the fifth-highest total in franchise history. Ward ran for 215 yards on only 15 carries, a remarkable 14.3-yard average that was the highest in NFL history by a back with at least 15 rushing attempts.

Jacobs complemented Ward by running for 87 yards and scores on runs of two, one and two yards. The Giants also got Eli Manning's four-yard touchdown pass to Boss and two Carney field goals.

DeAngelo Williams scored all of Carolina's touchdowns, on runs of 13, five, one and 30 yards.

Carolina had a chance to win the game in the waning moments of regulation, but John Kasay's 50-yard field goal attempt was wide left. The Giants took possession on their own 13 with 12:20 remaining in overtime. On the first play, Ward scampered 51 yards to the Carolina 36-yard line. Three plays later, on a critical third-and seven from the 33 – likely outside of Carney's field goal range – Ward ran for 14 yards. On the next play, he picked up 17 more to the two. Jacobs scored the game-winner on the next play.

GAME 16 - GIANTS VS. VIKINGS

AT MINNEAPOLIS, MN DEC. 28, 2008

VIKINGS 20, GIANTS 19

The Giants concluded their regular season with a 20-19 loss to the Minnesota Vikings in the Metrodome. Ryan Longwell kicked a 50-yard field goal as time expired for the game-winning points for the NFC North-champion Vikings.

Under normal circumstances, it would have been a crushing defeat for the Giants. But with the division title and the No. 1 postseason seed locked up, they were able to play the game on their terms. That meant keeping four starters out of uniform and letting most others play reduced minutes. Eli Manning played only the first half. Only two defensive starters were on the field when Minnesota drove for the game-winning field goal.

The inactive starters were Brandon Jacobs (knee), Aaron Ross (concussion), Kevin Boss (ankle/concussion) and defensive tackle Barry Cofield (knee).

The individual highlight of the game was turned in by Derrick Ward, who rushed for 77 yards to increase his season total to 1,025. Ward and Jacobs (1,089 yards this season) became the fourth running back tandem – and the fifth set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

The Giants fell behind, 10-0, scored 19 consecutive points to take a nine-point lead in the fourth quarter. They scored on David Carr's 23-yard touchdown pass to Domenik Hixon and John Carney field goals of 51, 30, 42 and 20 yards. It was the third time in 2008 that Carney kicked four field goals in a game and it increased his total to 35, which tied the franchise record set by Ali Haji-Sheikh in 1983 and matched by Jay Feely in 2005.

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their season end with a 23-11 loss to the Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Giants Stadium. For the first time in their history, the Giants lost twice at home to one team in the same season. It was the second time in three seasons the Giants were eliminated by their NFC East rivals.

The Giants outgained Philly, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but failed to score a touchdown despite advancing as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times. They settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble.

John Carney kicked field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards. He also missed attempts of 46 and 47 yards. The Giants' other two points came on a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone.

Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).

Ahmad Bradshaw's 65-yard return on the opening kickoff enabled the Giants to begin the game's first offensive possession at the Eagles' 35-yard line. But in a harbinger of what was to come, the drive stalled at the four and Carney was summoned to kick his first field goal.

Aug. 7, 2008
Ford Field

The Giants opened their preseason schedule with a 13-10 loss to the Lions in Detroit. Virtually all of their starters played a quarter or less. The only points put on the board by first-teamers belonged to the Lions, who took the opening kickoff and drove 78 yards in eight plays, including a 20-yard touchdown pass from Jon Kitna to Roy Williams. The Giants scored on Lawrence Tynes' 33-yard field goal in the second quarter and David Carr's 13-yard touchdown pass to Craphonso Thorpe in the fourth. Detroit's winning points were delivered by backup kicker Eddie Johnson, who booted a 41-yard field goal with 2:47 remaining in the game. Carr followed Eli Manning and Anthony Wright into the game and completed 10 of 13 passes for 104 yards. Safety Kenny Phillips, the Giants' first-round draft choice, led the Giants with eight tackles (six solo).

GIANTS 37, BROWNS 34

Aug. 18, 2008
Giants Stadium

Shaking off the rust from a 10-day layoff, Domenik Hixon and Danny Ware turned a highly entertaining preseason game into personal highlight tapes as the Giants defeated Cleveland, 37-34. In an eight-minute, 28-second span in the first quarter, Hixon scored three touchdowns to help propel the Giants to a game featuring several big and unusual plays. The Giants led by 27 points in the first half, when Hixon scored three touchdowns in 15 minutes. He caught touchdown passes of 11 and 24 yards from Eli Manning, then completed his memorable evening with an 82-yard return of a free kick following a safety. The star in the second half was Ware, then a second-year back from Georgia. In the final two quarters, he rushed for 97 yards on 10 carries, including a 22-yarder, and returned three kickoffs for 117 yards, a 39-yard average.

GIANTS 7, JETS 10

Aug. 23, 2008
Giants Stadium

Their first-team offense didn't score a point and their starting defense lost a Pro Bowler player when Osi Umenyiora suffered a season-ending knee injury in the Giants; 10-7 loss to the Jets. Umenyiora was helped off the field after hurting his left knee with 10:48 remaining in the second quarter. Tests later revealed he had torn his lateral meniscus cartilage. The Giants mounted their only sustained drive of the first half after taking possession at their own 13-yard line with 3:09 remaining. They got as far as the Jets' eight-yard line. But on third-and-goal, Eli Manning was sacked for a 16-yard loss by Calvin Pace. Josh Huston then attempted a 42-yard field goal, which hit the right upright and fell to the ground as the half ended in a scoreless tie. Mike Nugent of the Jets broke the deadlock by kicking a 24-yard field goal with 5:42 remaining in the third quarter. The Giants took a 7-3 lead on Ahmad Bradshaw's three-yard touchdown run with 13:32 left in the fourth quarter. That capped a 30-yard drive set up by defensive end Renaldo Wynn's interception of a Brett Ratliff pass. But the Jets scored the winning points when Ratliff threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Paul Raymond with 6:08 remaining in the game.

GIANTS 19, PATRIOTS 14

Aug. 28, 2008
Giants Stadium

Tom Coughlin kept several front-line players off the field in the preseason finale against New England. The list of talented spectators included quarterback Eli Manning, enabling David Carr to step in and play all but one series in the Giants' 19-14 victory over the Patriots in a rematch of Super Bowl XLII – albeit with most starters sitting out. Carr completed 20 of 29 passes for 192 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions while compiling a passer rating of 110.1. The Giants took a 19-0 lead and did not give up a point until the fourth quarter. Carr threw touchdown passes to Darcy Johnson and Sinorice Moss and Josh Huston added two field goals for the Giants. After the defense forced a New England punt on the game's first series, Carr led the Giants on a nine-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Johnson. The teams exchanged punts for seven consecutive series before Carr took the Giants to another score, this one a nine-yard pass to Moss to cap a 12-play, 71-yard drive. The Patriots scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns on Kevin O'Connell's 16-yard touchdown pass to Chad Jackson and O'Connell's five-yard run. But the Giants secured the victory by owning the ball for the final 4:44 of the game.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

TIM MARA

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s,

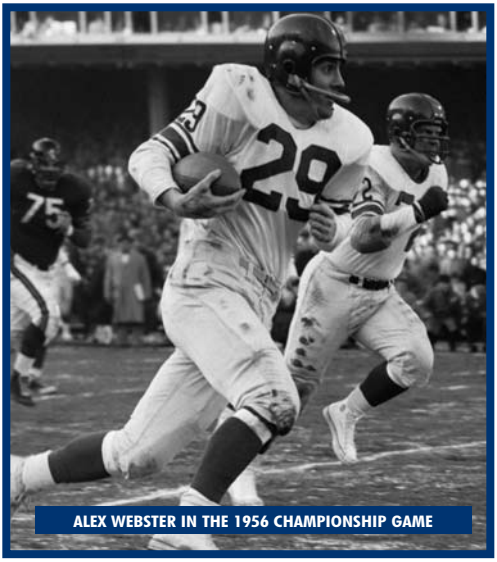

WHY GIANTS? HOW THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS GOT ITS NAME

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history.The Giants finished 8-8 in 2006, but made the playoffs as a wild card.

The 2007 season began inauspiciously, with losses in the first two games, but ended as one of the greatest seasons in Giants history. The Giants clinched an NFC wild card postseason berth with a victory in Buffalo in their 15th game. The following week, they narrowly lost to the undefeated New England Patriots in the regular season finale to finish 10-6. What followed was one of the greatest postseason runs in NFL history, one that culminated with an upset of the Patriots in an exhilarating Super Bowl XLII. Along the way, the Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from their home stadium.

The Giants, seeded fifth in the conference, opened postseason play with a 24-14 Wild Card victory at Tampa Bay. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants. The following week, the Giants avenged two regular season defeats with a 21-17 triumph over the Cowboys in Dallas in a divisional playoff. Amani Toomer caught two touchdown passes, Jacobs scored on a short run and the defense limited the high-scoring Cowboys to three second-half points.

The Giants captured the conference title with a thrilling 23-20 overtime triumph over the Green Bay Packers in frigid Lambeau Field. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with a wind-chill factor of minus-23, making it the coldest game in Giants history. Lawrence Tynes – who missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final p lay of regulation – kicked a 47-yard field goal 2:35 into overtime for the victory. The field goal was set up by Corey Webster's interception of the last pass of Brett Favre's career. Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw scored touchdowns for the Giants and Tynes added field goals of 29 and 37 yards.

Super Bowl XLII was played in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants were heavy underdogs to a New England team that was 18-0 and was bidding to conclude the second perfect season in NFL history. But it was the Giants who enjoyed a perfect finish. Trailing, 7-3, entering the fourth quarter, they took their first lead of the game on Manning's five-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree. The score was set up by a 45-yard catch-and-run by rookie tight end Kevin Boss. New England took a 14-10 lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Randy Moss with just 2:42 remaining.

The Giants took possession at their own 17 with 2:39 left in the game and Manning proceeded to lead them on one of the great drives in NFL postseason history. The highlight of the 12-play, 83-yard march occurred on third-and-five form the Giants' 44. Manning somehow eluded the grasp of the rushing Patriots line and threw downfield for Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet for a miracle 32-yard gain. Steve Smith picked up a critical first down before Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining. The Giants stopped a last desperate New England possession won win their third Super Bowl in one of the biggest upsets in the game's history.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926
Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927
Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928
After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929
Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930
For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931
After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932
Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard-fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933
The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

THE "SNEAKERS GAME"

1934
In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935
After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936
The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937
Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938
A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939
On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940
The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941
With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948

The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

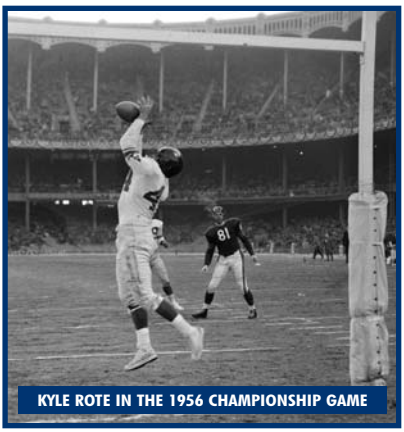

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

Y.A. TITTLE

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end

Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969
The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970
After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971
After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972
Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973
Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974
Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975
The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976
Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

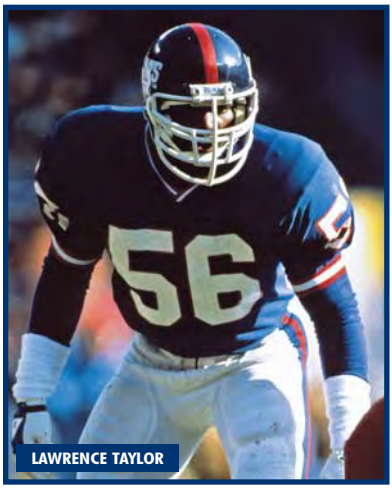

1977
Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978
The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979
Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980
A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12.

A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

1981

With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall-were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

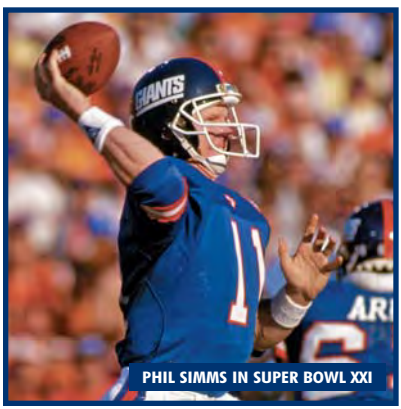

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

MICHAEL STRAHAN

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

1994

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

1995

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

1998

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

1999

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles – his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles – and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 – the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver – made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver – and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks – the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most postseason appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

2004

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and started the season 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. He finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. Barber was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. The Giants had other standout performers. Willie Ponder's averaged an NFL-best 26.9 yards on kickoff returns, the highest average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Eli Manning, selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo) and David Tyree had a team-high 23 special teams tackles.

The 2005 season was marked by soaring success and searing tragedy. The Giants finished 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. But the Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City mover and shaker, died on Nov. 15. The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. The Pro Bowlers were Barber, Shockey, Osi Umenyiora, Michael Strahan and David Tyree.

Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, shattering the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years – Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

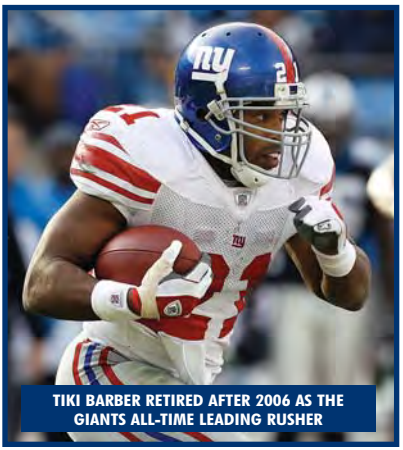

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979.

Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990.

The Giants finished 8-8 and earned their second consecutive postseason berth, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Tiki Barber ended his record-setting career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career. Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included wide receiver Amani Toomer (knee),

The 2007 season was one of the most successful, rewarding and memorable in franchise history.

The Giants stumbled to a 0-2 start – then fell behind by two touchdowns at halftime of their third game – before beginning a remarkable turnaround. They rallied to win that game, 14 of their next 18 and concluded the season with an exhilarating and unforgettable 17-14 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. It was one of the greatest upsets and most exciting championship games in the long history of the National Football League.

Eli Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining, giving the Giants a victory over a New England team that entered the game with an 18-0 record, including a three-point win over the Giants in the regular season finale. After New England had taken a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, Manning completed five passes on an 83-yard drive – including a 32-yarder on the greatest play in Super Bowl history, when he slipped the dutches of the Patriots' pass rusher and threw down field to David Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet and away from safety Rodney Harrison.

Two days after bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to the metropolitan area, the Giants were lauded by more than a million fans at a ticker tape parade up Manhattan's famed Canyon of Heroes, and later at a rally in Giants Stadium.

The Giants triumphed for the third time in four Super Bowl appearances, won their sixth title game and seventh overall championship. They won Super Bowls following the 1986, 1990 and 2007 seasons, NFL Championship Games in 1934, 1938 and 1956 and the league title in 1927, before the advent of championship games.

But this title was the most improbable of all. The Giants were just the fourth team to start a season 0-2 and reach the Super Bowl (and the third to win it). They finished the regular season at 10-6 and became the first six-loss team to win the Super Bowl since the 1988 San Francisco 49ers. The Giants won just three home games – none after October 21 – to become the first team with a losing home record to ever make the Super Bowl. The Giants were the fifth wild card team – and first from the NFC – to win the Super Bowl. They were the third team to reach the Super Bowl by winning three road playoff games, the second such team to win the Super Bowl and the first from the NFC. The Giants sent an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from home (seven regular season, four postseason, including the Super Bowl). Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Eli Manning started every game and threw for 3,336 yards and 23 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback since Phil Simms (1984-86) to top 3,000 yards and 20 touchdown passes in each of three consecutive seasons. Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Burress was unable to practice virtually the entire season because of an ankle injury, but led the team with 70 receptions for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 13 in 1967. Amani Toomer caught 59 passes and became the franchise's all-time leader in receptions with 620. The offensive line – and fullback Madison Hedgecock, acquired off waivers after he was cut by St. Louis - played well throughout the year, a big reason the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards, averaging 134.3 a game.

Under new coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing 305.0 yards a game. The Giants led the NFL with 53.0 sacks and set a franchise record with 12 in a victory over Philadelphia on Sept. 30. Osi Umenyiora was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks and was the lone Giant voted to the Pro Bowl. Justin Tuck became a force on the defensive line and had 10.0 sacks. Michael Strahan, in the final season of his great career, added 9.0 sacks and moved to fifth on the NFL's career list with 141.5. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles (63 solo). Corey Webster stepped up to play superbly in the playoffs. R.W. McQuarters has intercepted a pass in each of the first three postseason games.

The special teams also played well. Punter Jeff Feagles was one of the NFL's most effective punters in the 20th season of his remarkable career. Kicker Lawrence Tynes, acquired in an offseason trade with Kansas City, succeeded on 23 of 27 field goal attempts and booted the game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game. Domenik Hixon, acquired off waivers in October, became the primary kickoff returner late in the season and brought one back 74 yards for a touchdown in the regular season game against the Patriots.

STADIUMS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

Giants Stadium got a new look for the 2000 season when the playing surface was natural grass for the first time. The grass was grown in a series of replaceable trays, which was allowed workers to remove tray containing worn or poor grass and replacing them with a fresh tray. The trays were used for three years, through the 2002 season but never succeeded as planned. The field was often brown and bumpy, and by the end of the 2002 season, new sod had to be installed to cover what had essentially become an unplayable field.

The 2003 season marked the debut of a new surface of FieldTurf, a state of the art synthetic grass field. FieldTurf has been installed on more than 550 sports surfaces in 25 countries in the previous three years (including NFL stadiums in Detroit and Chicago). FieldTurf looks like real grass. Under its surface is what FieldTurf calls, "a special silica sand, cryogenic rubber and Nike Grind filling." That filling includes sneakers. Drainage is said to be immediate, and the heat on the field – which was a problem with previous artificial surfaces - is supposed to be dispersed to the rubber layer below the surface.

COMMEMORATIVE PATCHES

The Giants have celerated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in rememberance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

The Giants honored Hall of Famer, player and coach, Rosie Brown with a "79" decal on the back of their helmets in after his passing in 2004.

In addition, the team has also worn patches in Super Bowls XXV and XLII. Those patches were representations of the NFL's Super Bowl logos for those years.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

WELLINGTON MARA

CO-OWNER
FORDHAM
ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, made up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 18 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 62-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER
CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 (others claim it was $2,500) in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved on the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, showed up at the Polo Grounds as a Chicago Bear and helped draw a crowd of over 70,000 people to save the Giants. After seeing the crowd that formed, Mara decided that under the right circumstances, professional football could be a big success. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse with three NFL and eight divisional titles. He was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO

END
ENSHRINED IN 1981

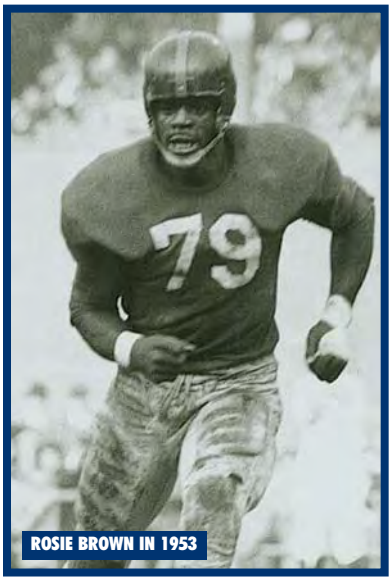

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's first championship game in 1933. He scored the first touchdown in NFL Championship Game history in 1933. In the championship game, the Giants spotted the Chicago Bears a 6-0 lead on two field goals at Wrigley Field. The Giants took a 7-6 halftime lead when Badgro caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Harry Newman in the second quarter. He tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. Badgro was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three season, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was an All-NFL eight straight seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the championship game, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was known as a big, fast blocker who could make the block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

ROSIE BROWN IN 1953

HARRY CARSON

LINEBACKER
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE
ENSHRINED IN 2006

Harry Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the New York Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL selection and was a leader throughout his career and the captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions.

Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully made the transition to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team.

Carson was a two-time first-team all-pro and a five-time second-team selection. He played 173 games in a Giants uniform – tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time – and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI.

During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

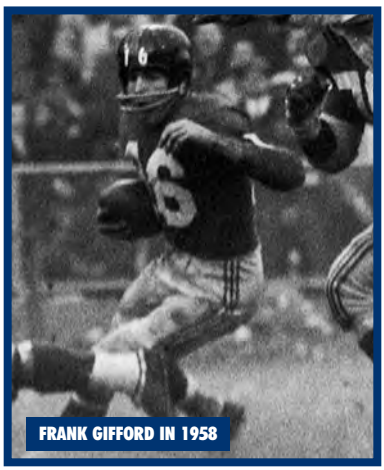

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 season due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first pick in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. Gifford's record includes 3,609 yards rushing, 367 receptions and 484 points. He was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL annals. Gifford played in seven Pro Bowls during his career and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. He holds the Giants team record with 78 touchdowns, and formerly held the marks for highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4.30) and most receiving yards (5,434). A real triple-threat in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including 1956, when they won the world championship.

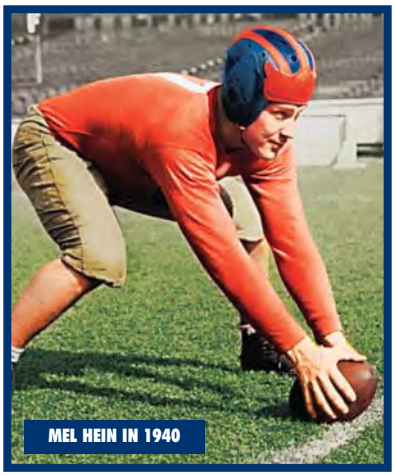

FRANK GIFFORD IN 1958

MEL HEIN

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Originally joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons for the Giants, a record of team service that is matched by only Phil Simms. He was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. The Giants bid the highest at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. Hein never missed a game in the National Football League or in college and high school. He took time out only in two games and was injured only once. Hein was named the League's Most Valuable Player after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the 1938 World Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers at the Polo Grounds.

MEL HEIN IN 1940

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28, and then again in 1936. He was one of 17 charter enshrinees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season the Giants defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He was acquired by the Green Bay Packers in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record in 1929, edging out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 after an All-America career at West Virginia and became an immediate star as middle linebacker. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Huff was named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL for his play in 1959. He anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. Huff was traded to the Washington Redskins before the start of the 1964 season and is currently a color analyst during Redskins radio telecasts.

TOM LANDRY

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry played with the Giants from 1950-55 as a defensive back and was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-59. The Giants 1956 Championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually find their way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had a Hall of Fame coaching staff. Head coach Jim Lee Howell's staff had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended that the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was a second-round draft choice in the first-ever NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Leemans was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH

Lombardi was head coach of the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins after spending the 1954-58 seasons as an assistant with the Giants. Behind Lombardi's leadership running the offense, the Giants captured the League Championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record, including five NFL titles and victories in Super Bowl I and Super Bowl II. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

A great defensive star of the 1920s, played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the National Football League title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. Owen coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17, including eight divisional and two NFL title teams. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen went to college at Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. After a year coaching at his alma mater following his graduation in 1921, Owen joined the Kansas City Blues in 1924. Two years later, the team changed its name to Cowboys. With the Giants, Owens was a four-time All-NFL tackle.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END ARNOLD COLLEGE ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was originally drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams Championship teams. In 1956, Giants co-owner Wellington Mara orchestrated a trade for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. During his career, he played in eight NFL title games and seven Pro Bowls. He was named All-NFL seven years, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Was acknowledged as the field leader on a Giants defense that was largely responsible for the Giants participation in six championship games and winning the 1956 league title. He also served as a defensive player-coach. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
ENSHRINED 1967

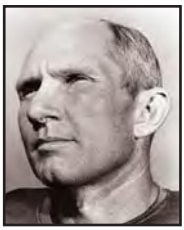

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 title over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Lawrence Taylor played for the Giants from 1981 through 1993 after joining the team as a first round draft pick in 1981. He finished his 13-year career as the No. 2 all-time quarterback sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times during his career (since that recognition was initiated in 1984) and was the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986, and again in September, 1989. In 1989 he was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. Taylor had the finest statistical season of his career in 1986 and it earned him unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. That year, he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 total tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. As a rookie in 1981, he set the tone for his Hall of Fame career as he earned every defensive and rookie postseason honor possible.

Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern division championship. Tittle spent 11 seasons in the NFL and two seasons in the All-American Conference before coming to the Giants. In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against the Washington Redskins tied another league mark. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963. He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set a Giants single-season record that still stands. All told, Tittle had 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with over 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957 when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL

TOLEDO/IOWA
ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948, and played for the team for 11 seasons. He also attended Toledo University. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. The Giants reached a milestone in their illustrious existence by signing Tunnell as their first black player. He holds the Giants team-records with 74 interceptions and 257 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kick returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950 through the 1953 season. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big, extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays. Weinmeister began his pro career in the All-American Football Conference with the New York Yankees in 1950, and moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. He played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. He left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He shined in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs.

RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. He introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. Flaherty also played for the Los Angeles Wildcats and the New York Yankees. He suggested to coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

BENNIE FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK
MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Benny Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), New York Giants (1929-1931), and the Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). When he turned pro, the college football sensation was greeted with fanfare that was exceeded only by the media attention given future Hall of Fame halfback Red Grange when he turned pro in 1925. A versatile player and field general, Friedman could run, kick, and most importantly pass the ball better than any player who preceded him and for many years better than those who followed him. From 1927 through 1930 Benny tossed 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he led the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL Championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

WILBER (PETE) HENRY

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber left retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
TEXAS WESTERN
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. At the time of his retirement, Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) and 88 touchdowns. Maynard's yardage still ranks fourth all-time and his number of catches is seventh. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963 and helped the Giants advance to the championship game that season. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. Originally with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961, he moved to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in stunning trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

JIM THORPE

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter enshrinee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time that the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game. This list was compiled with the assistance of John Berti.

1927*

NFL CHAMPIONS

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

 Victory clinched the NFL Championship- there was no Championship game in 1927.

1990- GIANTS 31, BEARS 3

NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 13, 1991 at Giants Stadium (77,025)

After jumping to an early 10-0 lead, the Giants' defense did a strangulation job on the Bears' vaunted rushing attack, limiting the visitors to just 27 total rushing yards and zero first downs... Jeff Hostetler hit on just 10 pass completions for 112 yards, but two went for TDs and he scored another on a 3-yard run in his first-ever playoff action... Giants also had a pair of interceptions by Mark Collins and Everson Walls to complete the rout.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun...Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries.

WORLD CHAMPIONS

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever...Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

NFC Wild Card Game
Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 7, 2001 at Giants Stadium (78,765)

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

In one of the most dominant performances ever in a championship game, the Giants raced to a 34-0 halftime lead and crushed the Vikings to advance to their first Super Bowl in 10 years. The Giants rolled up 518 total yards and 31 first downs, while the defense limited Minnesota's heralded attack to 114 yards and nine first downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. The Giants held the ball for the final 12:53.

Jan. 28, 2001
at Raymond James Stadium (71,921)

For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

2002- 49ERS 39, GIANTS 38

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins – three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey – a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

2005- PANTHERS 23, GIANTS 0

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 8, 2006 at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first downs (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 7, 2007 at Lincoln Financial Field (69,094)

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Giants also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal – the longest in Philadelphia postseason history – increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

2007- GIANTS 24, BUCCANEERS 14

Jan. 6, 2008 at Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

Before the Giants opened postseason play in an NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay, Tom Coughlin had a simple message for his players: "Let's keep playing." So they did. Carrying their season-long road success into the playoffs, the Giants prevailed, 24-14, over the NFC South champion Buccaneers. They broke a four-game postseason losing streak that began in Super Bowl XXXV – in Raymond James Stadium, the home of the Bucs. The Giants also won their first playoff road game since the 1990 NFC Championship Game in San Francisco. They defeated Bucs quarterback Jeff Garcia, who had beaten them in the playoffs with the 49ers in 2002 and Philadelphia in 2006. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants, one on a five-yard reception, the other on an eight-yard run. Jacobs became the first Giants player in history with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same postseason game. Amani Toomer caught a touchdown pass and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 25-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning completed 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, the two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Giants won a postseason game for the first time with him taking the snaps. The Giants entered the game with a minus-nine turnover differential, or minus-24 relative to the Bucs' plus-15. Yet they had three takeaways to none for the Bucs. The first, a fumble recovery by Corey Webster on the second-half kickoff, led to Tynes' field goal. The second, a Webster interception in the end zone, likely denied the Bucs points. The third, a pick by R.W. McQuarters with 1:53 remaining, sealed the deal. The Giants played without center Shaun O'Hara (knee) and cornerback Sam Madison (abdominal). But Grey Ruegamer and Webster filled in superbly (the corner holding Joey Galloway to one nine-yard reception). They were among a large cast of key contributors. Toomer had a game-high seven catches for 74 yards. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw came off the bench to rush for a game-high 66 yards. Michael Strahan had a career postseason high of nine tackles (eight solo). Gerris Wilkinson, who started for Kawika Mitchell (knee) had seven tackles (five solo). Tank Daniels had two special teams tackles and forced the fumble that Webster recovered. Zak DeOssie also had two special teams tackles. The offensive line allowed only one sack. Tampa Bay took an early lead on Earnest Graham's one-yard run, but Jacobs' two touchdowns gave the Giants a 14-7 halftime advantage. The first score successfully concluded an eight-play, 53-yard drive that took 4:04 to complete. Manning completed five passes for 49 yards in the series. Toomer accounted for 40 yards on three catches. On their next series, the Giants drove 65 yards in seven plays. The biggest play of the series was Manning's 21-yard pass to Steve Smith on third-and-two. Tynes' field goal and Toomer's touchdown midway through the fourth quarter extended the Giants' lead to 24-7 before Tampa Bay added a late score. Toomer scored at the end of a 15-play, 92-yard drive that featured 38 yards rushing by Bradshaw and three Toomer receptions for 27 yards.

2007- GIANTS 21, COWBOYS 17

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 13, 2008 at Texas Stadium (63,650)

The Giants avenged their only road defeat of the season, a 45-35 opening-night loss, with a 21-17 victory over the top-seeded Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Texas Stadium. The Cowboys had defeated the Giants twice in the regular season. The Giants became the first team to beat the NFC's No. 1 seed in the divisional round since the current postseason format (six teams from each conference) was adopted in 1990. Amani Toomer scored a pair of touchdowns on receptions of 52 and four yards form Eli Manning. Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 13:29 remaining provided the Giants with the game-winning points. But the victory was not assured until R.W. McQuarters intercepted Tony Romo's pass for Terry Glenn in the end zone with nine seconds remaining. It was the game's only takeaway. Manning had a career-high 132.4 passer rating after completing 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards, the two scores to Toomer and no interceptions. The Giants played with a severely depleted secondary. Sam Madison (stomach) and Kevin Dockery (hip flexor) were inactive. A third cornerback, Aaron Ross, left the game for good in the third quarter with a shoulder injury. That left Corey Webster, McQuarters and Geoffrey Pope – who spent the entire regular season on the practice squad before joining on the active roster on Dec. 31 – as the only healthy corners. All played extensively in the second half. The secondary, aided by a relentless second-half pass rush, stayed strong throughout the game. The Cowboys scored on Tony Romo's five-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens and Marion Barber's one-yard run in the second quarter and Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal in the third. Romo completed 18 of 36 passes for 201 yards and his 64.7 rating was less than half of Manning's. Toomer turned a short Manning pass into a 52-yard touchdown on the Giants' fifth offensive play. After Dallas took a 14-7 lead, Manning led the Giants on a 71-yard drive in the final minute of the half that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Toomer and a 14-14 halftime tie. Folk gave the Cowboys a 17-14 lead before Jacobs' touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter gave the Giants the lead for good. But the Cowboys had one last chance when they took possession at the Giants' 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. Dallas soon faced second-and-11 at the 23. Two incomplete passes left them staring at a fourth down with the seasons of both teams hanging in the balance. Owens was double covered, so Romo threw to the center of the end zone for Terry Glenn. But McQuarters stepped up and picked off the pass, sending the Giants to the NFC Championship Game.

2007- GIANTS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT)

NFC Championship Game
Jan. 20, 2008 at Lambeau Field (72,740)

The coldest game in Giants history was also one of the most memorable and satisfying the franchise has ever played. The Giants overcame the elements – and the Packers – to defeat Green Bay in overtime, 23-20, in the NFC Championship Game in frigid Lambeau Field. Lawrence Tynes provided the game-winning points when he kicked a 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. Tynes had missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation. It was the first time in the history of Lambeau that a visiting player had kicked a field goal of more than 40 yards in a postseason game. The score was set up by Corey Webster's interception on the second play of overtime of Brett Favre's final career pass. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with winds of 12 miles-an-hour – a numbing wind chill of minus-23. In terms of temperature alone, this was the third-coldest NFL game on record. At the famed Ice Bowl between the Packers and Dallas Cowboys in Lambeau on Dec. 31, 1967, it was 13 below zero at kickoff. In the 1981 Chargers-Bengals AFC Championship Game in Cincinnati, it was nine below. Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) and Ahmad Bradshaw (four-yard run) scored touchdowns and Tynes added a 29-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning set career postseason highs with 40 passes, 21 completions and 251 yards. Plaxico Burress established a franchise postseason record with 11 catches, for 151 yards. The old mark of 10 was set by Ike Hilliard in the 2000 NFC Championship Game victory over Minnesota. Defensively, the Giants held Green Bay to 28 rushing yards, forced Favre into two late interceptions and limited the Packers to one successful third down conversion on 10 tries. The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining Green Bay (380-264), rolling up 11 more first downs (24-13) and owning the ball for 40:01 to just 22:34 for the Packers. The Packers scored on Driver's 90-yard catch-and-run and Favre's 12-yard touchdown pass to Donald Lee, plus field goals by rookie Mason Crosby of 36 and 37 yards. Crosby's second field goal, with 11:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, tied the score at 20-20. The Giants had a chance to prevent the score when R.W. McQuarters intercepted a Favre pass at the eight-yard line. But McQuarters was hit by Ryan Grant and fumbled and the ball bounced right to Packers tackle Mark Tauscher, who plucked it out of the air at the 19. It was the Giants' first turnover of the postseason…In overtime, Favre threw a pass to Driver, but Webster stepped up and picked off the ball, returning it nine yards to the Green Bay 34-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw gained five yards on two runs before Manning's pass for Steve Smith fell incomplete. Tynes then sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with one of the biggest field goals in franchise history.

Super Bowl XLII
Feb. 3, 2008

WORLD CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XLII had a perfect ending, but the unexpected twist was that it belonged to the Giants. Eli Manning engineered a fourth quarter comeback drive for the ages and concluded perhaps the greatest postseason run in NFL history as the underdog Giants upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants won their third championship of the Super Bowl era – the first in 17 years - and seventh overall in what will surely be remembered as one of the most exciting title games in NFL history. It was the first of 42 Super Bowls in which the lead changed hands three times in the fourth quarter. Plaxico Burress scored the game-winning points with only 35 seconds remaining on a 13-yard pass from Manning. The score concluded a 12-play, 83-yard drive that commenced immediately after New England had taken a 14-10 lead with less than three minutes remaining. Manning, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, which deflected off Steve Smith's hands. David Tyree scored the Giants' first touchdown and made an unbelievable catch on the game-winning drive. Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs combined for 87 rushing yards. Amani Toomer caught six passes for 84 yards and Smith added five for 50 yards. Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal, which ultimately proved to be the deciding points. The Giants' defense was magnificent. New England averaged almost 37 points a game in the regular season. The Giants held them to 14. The Patriots averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a run longer than nine yards. Tom Brady was sacked five times. Brady's six-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss gave the Pats a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining. Cornerback Corey Webster slipped on the play and New England reached the end zone at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Manning responded by completing five of nine passes for 77 yards on the game-winning drive. The one everyone will long remember came on a third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning, seemingly about to be sacked, escaped, steadied himself and fired a pass down the middle of the field for Tyree, who was closely covered by safety Rodney Harrison. Both players jumped for the ball, which somehow landed on top of Tyree's helmet. But the receiver wrestled the ball away from Harrison for what may well be the greatest catch in Super Bowl history. The 32-yard gain gave the Giants a first down at the New England 24. Three players later, Smith picked up a huge first down and Manning followed with the game-winning throw to Burress.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their championship reign has come to an end in a 23-11 home loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Giants lost just two home games in the 2008 season - both to Philadelphia. They outgained the Eagles, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but were doomed by an inability to take advantage of opportunities in close. The Giants advanced as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times - and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession - but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble. The Giants scored on John Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).

AP

TRAINING CAMP - THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

The University at Albany and its intercollegiate athletics program continues to move forward in the 21st century. UAlbany's athletic teams began competition at the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division I level in September 1999. The upgrade elevated all men's and women's programs, and placed football in the NCAA's I-AA classification.

In January 2001, the University accepted an invitation to become a full member of the America East Conference. Eighteen of the school's nineteen varsity teams are eligible through America East play for conference championships and NCAA post-season competition. Football, a NCAA Division I-AA program, has been an associate member of the Northeast Conference since 1999.

UAlbany has won 17 conference championships since moving to the Division I. In 2005-06, the Great Danes captured America East titles in men's basketball, men's indoor track, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and softball. UAlbany was awarded the Stuart P. Haskell, Jr. Commissioner's Cup, which annually recognizes the strongest athletic program in the America East Conference based on success both during the regular season and at championship competition, in 2004-05. UAlbany's point total was bolstered by America East championships in volleyball, men's lacrosse, men's outdoor track and field and softball. The Great Danes were also runners-up in men's indoor track and field and women's golf. Meanwhile, Kurt Campbell became the first UAlbany football player to be selected in the NFL Draft when he went in the seventh round to the Green Bay Packers.

UAlbany has an athletic history that dates back to the late 1890s when the first known intercollegiate teams arrived on campus. Albany competed at the college division level prior to the NCAA's restructuring in 1972. The athletic program moved from Division III to Division II in 1995-96.

UAlbany's intercollegiate program has a new direction, but continues to excel in the athletic realm, sponsoring 19 varsity sports for men and women. Club sports, an intramural program, and recreational opportunities are also offered.

The quality of UAlbany's athletic program is evidenced by some of the finest facilities in the nation.

In the spring of 1992, the University opened the Recreation and Convocation Center (RACC), an $11 million state-of-the-art facility. The RACC is the home for Albany's men's and women's basketball teams, and has an .11 mile indoor track. The 5,000-seat arena also serves as a major venue for community events such as rock and pop concerts, sporting events and University activities.

The RACC and Physical Education Building had air-conditioning installed in March 1996, as the state appropriated funds for renovations and permanent improvements to the University's facilities . The $2.3 million in funding was prompted by the New York Giants decision to hold their football training camp on campus. The project brought together the region's community in what has proven to be a successful partnership.

In addition, The Bubble, UAlbany's air-supported structure, fitted with a brand-new covering with minor interior renovations in the spring of 2003, may be utilized for tennis, basketball, volleyball, and indoor football practice.

The indoor complex is complemented by fine outdoor facilities, including University Field, which seats capacity crowds of 10,000 for football games, and has an all-weather, 400-meter track surrounding a natural grass surface. There are 12 lighted tennis courts, four basketball and six volleyball courts; and numerous fields for football, soccer, softball, baseball, lacrosse, field hockey, and other events.

The practice fields on the Western Avenue side of campus were renovated in June 1996 with 263,000 square feet of two-inch thick athletic sod.

UAlbany broke ground on the site of what will become two all-weather athletic fields in May 2005. "John Fallon Field" is the home to the men's and women's lacrosse teams. An adjacent surface known as "Alumni Turf Field" is used for women's field hockey in addition to serving as a multi-use recreational field for UAlbany students. The first phase of construction, which included lighting, landscaping and fencing, was completed in 2004.
